Martin, Commissioners. JOE ELLIOTT DIES Joe Elliott, proprietor of the Trail barber shop on Main street, died suddenly at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at his home on east Center street. The day previous he was out hunting, returning home in the evening and partook of a hearty supper. He retired at an early hour. He arose about 6 o'clock yesterday morning, started a fire in the kitchen range and after heating some water drank a glassful, presumably to relieve indigestion. He dressed and after putting on his overcoat preliminary to leaving for his shop, he suddenly fell to the floor and expired without uttering a word. Acute indigestion is thought to be the cause of death. He was born in Louisiana 41 years ago. He came to Baker in 1917 and since that time has conducted several barber shops here. He was a sportsman and in his younger days followed the boxing game and was trainer of several celebrities of that time. He was married and had a daughter, the deceased leaves a wife and daughter, the later seven years old; three brothers and three sisters, all of whom reside in parts of Oregon and California.—Baker Democrat. NEW YOPK — Judge Rauston of the Scopes trial told Dr. Straton's congregation about Clarence Darrow's contempt. "It was Mr. Bryan who moved him," said the judge. "Mr. Bryan slipped up beside the bench as Darrow stood there, trembling and begging for mercy, and whispered, 'Judge, be merciful!'"
