

Special Sessions Planned by Elks

The Klamath Falls lodge of Elks met in regular session last night and decided upon three important dates for the holding of lodge that are different from the regular Thursday sessions.

Saturday November 21 the local Elks lodge will hold a large initiation in Lakewood and Thursday, November 26, Thanksgiving day, there will be no session of lodge.

Ben S. Fisher, district deputy grand exalted ruler for Oregon south, accompanied by Max Pano, president of the Oregon state Elks' association, will make their official visit to the Klamath Falls lodge on Friday, December 11. This will be one of the large meetings of the year with initiation banquet and entertainment.

Mr. Fisher is a former district attorney of Coos county and Mr. Page is a prominent attorney of Salem, associated with the law office of McNary and McNary. He is also past exalted ruler of the Salem lodge of Elks.

The next session of the Elks will be next Wednesday, November 18, instead of Thursday, November 19.

WEDS RANDOX GIRL

Florence Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Shaffer of Portland and D. E. Metzgas of Marshfield, were married this afternoon by Rev. Streyer of the Methodist parsonage. They will make their home in the former Stahl home on south Tenth street.

The young people left immediately following the ceremony for Portland in their car on a honeymoon. They will return in a few weeks and Mr. Metzgas will resume his position at the W. W. Langworthy shop, where he is a tin worker. — Coos Bay Times.

MERRILL

A number of the students attended the game between Klamath Falls and Merrill Friday afternoon. Klamath Falls won both the boys' game and the volley game by the girls. This is the second game lost by the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frazier were in Klamath Falls Friday on business.

Mrs. W. C. Bailey and Donald attended the game in Klamath Falls on Friday.

Mrs. R. H. Anderson was in the Falls Friday evening.

Friday evening the committee for the Nov. entertainment of the Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church gave a play entitled "Grandma's Dream." The idea of the play is that grandma goes to sleep and in her dreams goes back to her childhood and on through the various ages of her life and each period is acted out. The minnet made quite a hit. At the end grandma appears in a song and grandma wakes up and joins in the last chorus. Those taking part were dressed according to the part they represented. A good sized audience was out. Home made candy was sold by the girls. About $60 was taken in.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton visited in Merrill Friday.

Mrs. A. W. Mackin of Meira was in Merrill Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stukel spent Saturday in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Rose Davis was among those visiting in the Falls Saturday.

Mrs. Velton Haskins gave a surprise party for her sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whisler, Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carleton. The evening was spent in conversation and games.

At a late hour refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Velton Haskins and children, C. N. Haskins, Myron and Dorothy Haskins, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Moore, Esther and John D. Moore, Bert Rodgers, Mrs. Minnie Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jannette, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Raymond, Opal and Arlene Taylor, Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Craig, Chas. Craig, Mrs. W. Hill, Louis and Margaret Hill, Gus Ecksman, Mr. and Mrs. P. Van Shalck, Mr. and Mrs. Whisler, Edna and Junior Whisler, E. C. Reames, Mr. and Mrs. Carleton and Alfred Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Whisler and family and uncle, Mr. Reame, left Monday morning for Rogue river to make their home. It is hoped Mrs. Whisler's health will be improved in a lower altitude. Mr. Reame has lived
