

KLAMATH COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

DEO. HENLEY

The hektograph which was ordered for the school has arrived and has been tried out so successfully that a school paper will soon be issued.

Miss Nelson, county music supervisor, visited at Henley last week, bringing with her a number of excellent new songs and started the Glee club to work on them. Nearly every one in the high school wants to take part and with the help of Miss Nelson the club hopes to stage some vocal concerts before the year closes.

The bond election held at the Henley school passed by a vote of 15 to 9. The purpose of the election was to vote bonds for the gymnasium for the Henley school. Plans for the construction of the building will be drawn up soon, so we are in hopes of having a gym by the end of the year.

A letter was received by the Henley girls from Olive Hill, Dorothy Short and Gladys Latta, who are attending the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth, Oregon. Dorothy and Gladys have returned to Monmouth after a six weeks of practice teaching in Corvallis, Oregon. They find the work at Monmouth very interesting but express eagerness for the Christmas holidays to come.

Henley and Main play tie. Although Main defeated Henley earlier in the season by a rather large score, the Henley team "came to life" last Friday, and played the Main team to a tie. The score was 1 to 1.

The Henley girls by winning from Main girls by the score of 49 to 27, added the fifth victory to their record.

Friday, Nov. 13, Henley will play the Klamath teams in soccer and volley ball at Henley. Both games promise to be very close as the Klamath teams won both of their games from Merrill, last Friday.

A meeting of the farmers of the Klamath Irrigation district was held at Henley, Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. There were about one hundred fifty people present to ask the directors of the irrigation board questions concerning the district. Mr. Jacob and Mr. Short, Mr. Drew and Mr. Carleton, candidates for the coming election which will be held November 16, gave interesting talks.

Mrs. R. E. Bradbury who was called to Seaside by the sudden death of her brother James Young, on October 28, is expected home sometime the latter part of this week. Mrs. Bradbury has spent the last week visiting with friends and relatives in Portland, and with her daughter Marine, who is attending the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Isabelle Heseltine has been in Gresham the last week, called there by the death of her father, R. W. Calkins of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hilyard are expected home this week from their honeymoon in southern California. Mrs. Hilyard was formerly Miss Frances Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Short who are well known residents of the Henley community.

Mr. S. P. Dehlinger accompanied by Frank Stewart left by auto for Kansas where he will visit relatives and friends for a few weeks.

The Student Body Council of the Henley high school met with representatives from the grammar school for the purpose of determining what division should be made of the money received from the basket social. It was decided that the grades be allowed one-third and the high school two-thirds to be apportioned between the boys and girls as the council sees fit.

KENO

Ed Palma made a trip to Worden last week, where he purchased some calves.

Miss Nelson, music teacher, made a trip to the Keno school Tuesday, to give the pupils their usual music lesson.

Mrs. H. L. Clevenger has been on the sick list for the past week. The mail stage between Keno and Worden, changed to winter time the first of Nov. The mail now leaves Keno at 12 o'clock noon, instead of 7 o'clock a. m., as before.

Ed Simmons of Bonanza was calling in this vicinity during the week end.

Miriam Grubb called on Esther Anderson, on Saturday.

Among the Keno people, who attended the dance at Bonanza Saturday night were Mrs. L. W. Anderson and daughter Esther and Miriam Grubb.

Ray Nelson was a business visitor to Klamath Falls, on Monday.

Oliver Puckett and Ben Saugoose, spent Saturday hunting ducks along the Klamath River, they report very poor success.

Merle Anderson spent the week end visiting his cousin "Bud" Bhein in Klamath Falls.

Mr. Cain's family have moved from Mr. Palma's place to Keno where they are closer to school.

Chester Wilson of Worden has purchased the property known as the "Jones Place," and will move his family to Keno soon.

L. W. Anderson moved a part of his sheep from Spencer creek to his Keno ranch, the first of the week.

With the moving away of the Plum family, our school lost three grade pupils.

Mr. Buckbee made a trip to Klamath Falls, Monday, taking with him a load of dry wood.

Ed Palma made a flying trip to the city of Klamath Falls, on Monday.

Since the cold weather began a goodly number of our people, have waked up to the fact that winter is near, so are busily filling wood sheds with dry fuel, for the cold days coming.

Mrs. Ross Simmers was a recent visitor to Klamath Falls.

LONE PINE

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bowman and son, Vernon, of Merrill, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barks Sunday.

J. E. Enman visited at the home of C. W. Lewis Sunday afternoon.

Watson Barkley called at the homes of R. F. Beasley, Pink Barks and M. P. Galarneau Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Swatman were calling on M. P. Galarneau Sunday.

Walter Enman called on Clyde Barks Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lewis and Arline and Thelma, and Mrs. Earl White and son Buster, were shopping in Klamath Falls Saturday.

H. J. Beardsley and mother and Roy Beardsley spent Saturday night with Mr. Beardsley's brother in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Enman are in Rogue River at this time.

Mrs. C. C. Bowman and daughter was in Klamath Falls Saturday.

F. McIndree was a Merrill visitor one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Parker and Mrs. R. F. Beasley and Mrs. C. C. Bowman attended the Rebecca lodge in Merrill Monday night. The Klamath Falls Rebecca lodge was invited down and six new members were initiated and a large supper was served afterwards.

Mrs. Lon Storey called on Mrs. Parker one day last week.

Miss Florence Dillard who teaches at Pelican City visited with her sister Mrs. Clyde Barks Thursday evening.

Mrs. Clyde Barks called on Mrs. Parker Thursday.

A. Burnell was a business caller at Mrs. Tallman's Thursday.

H. J. Beardsley was in Merrill one day this week.

Pink Barks made a trip to Merrill Tuesday and called on R. F. Beasley on his return home.

August Andrew was in Merrill on business Monday.

Mrs. G. W. Tallman has rented the place to Mr. Taylor and moved in the small house on Fred McKendree's dairy ranch, where Bessie Tallman is employed in the Lost River dairy. Mr. Taylor moved his family on Mrs. Tallman's place Monday.

LORELLA

The basket social held in Upper Langell valley on Saturday evening was a success financially as well as socially. Proceeds amounted to about $50 which will be used for the Xmas tree and improvements for the school.

J. W. Turner was re-elected as a member of the board of directors of the Langell valley irrigation district. Having no opposition, the entire vote was cast for Mr. Turner.

John Turner is the owner of a new Chrysler car and with Mrs. Turner has started on a trip to Lewiston, Idaho, where they will visit with Mr. Turner's parents for some time.

Mrs. A. E. Gale will leave for Portland this week to spend the winter with her parents.

A. E. Gale is reported improving after having been in Klamath Falls under the doctor's care, suffering an infection of the hands and face.

Judge Orr of Reno, Nev., is visiting with his brother, Marshall Orr, for a few days and renewing old acquaintances as he was a resident of Klamath county for a number of years.

M. R. Teare and family were dinner guests at the G. P. Keller home on Sunday.

Chas. Puckett and wife spent Sunday in Langell valley, where they are looking for a ranch to rent for the coming year.

The children of the Lower Langell valley school are delighted over a new phonograph purchased recently from the proceeds of a pie social. The phonograph is a cabinet model and is a splendid machine.

The U. S. R. S. have again started the dredger work in Wolf Flat and expect to continue until good weather compels them to discontinue work.

Ben Daniels has returned to Lorella, having spent several weeks in Santa Rosa where his wife was quite ill for a time. Mrs. Daniels is much improved in health and will remain in the south for the winter.

Ben Crapsur had the misfortune of having a number of cattle injured while he was driving them on the highway after night. A car struck several of the animals, one calf dying and several others being injured. The driver was unable to see them until too close to stop.

C. D. Chorsoning and family visited with Mrs. Chorsoning's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Boggs, Sunday.

The Langell Valley Ladies' club met with Mrs. Merle Kilgore on Saturday afternoon. The following members were present: Mesdames J. W. Turner, Dave Turner, H. Tiehner, R. Hopkins, W. D. Tuttle, G. P. Keller, A. Keller, W. D. Campbell, O. Campbell, Jay Walker, L. Harris, Owen Pepple, Frank Pepple, and the following were visitors: Mrs. R. M. Teare, Mrs. L. W. Monroe, Mrs. S. Dewey, Miss Lou Tuttle. A very enjoyable time was had by all present and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Michaels. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. G. P. Keller on November 19.

Mrs. L. W. Monroe received the sad news of the death of her mother in Chicago. The Monroe family have purchased the Henry Vinsoo ranch and recently came from Owens valley to make this their home. Friends of Mrs. Monroe extend their sympathy.

The home of the Langell valley irrigation district manager is almost completed, the painting now being finished. Mr. Hopkins and family expect soon to be able to be permanently located.

Miss Helen-Turner is absent from school suffering with a bad case of sore throat.

On Saturday, November 14, the patrons of the Lorella school district are gathering at the Lorella community house for the purpose of cleaning the school grounds. A dinner is being served at one o'clock. All persons interested in the school have been requested to be present and to lend a hand in the improvement of the grounds.

The Langell Valley Community club will meet in the community house on Saturday night, November 14. Till ladies attending are requested to please bring cakes. A short program will be rendered after the business hour.

PINE RIDGE

Jimmie Fader and family have returned here from Talent, Ore. Jimmie is back at his old job, as chief cook again.

The many friends of Ed Savage are glad to welcome him home again from a Klamath Falls hospital where he spent two weeks recovering from a recent accident, which broke both his arms.

Mrs. W. A. Carlyer of Dorris has accepted the position as postmistress at Pine Ridge.

Mrs. J. E. Mansfield is spending some time in a Klamath Falls hospital where she is receiving medical attention. She was accompanied down by Mr. Mansfield, Ted and Miss Nita Savage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Du Fort left Saturday for Sacramento, Calif., to spend the next few months.

The "As You Like It" club met at the home of Mrs. C. W. Horan Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Pete Beck of Spring Creek as hostess.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. J. J. Brophy, Mrs. W. A. Benson, Mrs. Geo. Chastain, Mrs. Hines, Mrs. Guillepe, Mrs. Troy Miller, Mrs. C. W. Horan and the hostess, Mrs. Beck, who late in the afternoon, served refreshments.

W. A. Benson, engineer from Shaw Bertram camp, spent Sunday here with his family. Mrs. Benson and daughter Margaret drove back with him in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston of Worden are recent arrivals in camp to make this their home.

Mrs. Chas. Seville and children spent Armistice day at Calamus camp visiting friends.

Mrs. J. J. Brophy and Mrs. Robt. Brophy spent Armistice day in Medford with John Brophy, who is there under the doctor's care.

W. C. Horan is spending several days in California, attending to business matters.

Quite a number from here attended the dance at Chiloquin Tuesday evening, given by the ladies of the Community club. All report a fine time.

Mrs. W. Doney spent Thursday in Klamath Falls on business and visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Savage and son Ted motored to Klamath Falls on Thursday where Mr. Savage received medical care for his broken arm.

MIDLAND

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burnett and children spent Sunday visiting in the Round Lake district.

Wm. Dalton and Fred Stukel are shipping beef and stock cattle from Midland today, to parts of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dowden have returned home after spending their honeymoon in parts of Oregon. They were met by a jolly crowd of young folks who welcomed them with lots of noise. Afterward delightful refreshments were served and the crowd departed for their homes leaving best wishes for the young couple. Charles Porter was a business caller in Pine Grove district Monday.

Roofing

High Quality Slate Roofing at Mail Order Houses Prices F. O. B. Our Store

422 Klamath (Old Dodge Garage)

See it before you send your money out of town and wait for deliveries.

Now is the time to give your old roof a new coat, will add years of service, inexpensive, easy applied. Have it in stock in 5s, 10s and 50 gallons.

A. F. Graham

Office Store and Warehouse 420 Main St. 422 Klamath Ave.

Phone 526

A Home Plant

The Lakeside Lumber Company, owned and managed by local men, solicits your patronage.

We, as residents of Klamath County, are vitally interested in its development. We are interested in no other locality. As the town grows, we grow. Therefore it is to our interest to aid every prospective builder.

What We Offer You

We offer the benefit of our years of experience in choosing the type of building best suited to your needs and to your pocketbook. We offer you prices that will compare favorably with any in the city. Finally, we offer you a complete stock of the best building materials, including

Rough and Finished Lumber, Sash, Doors, Millwork, Lath, Shingles, Plaster Board, Prepared Roofing, Plaster, Builders' Hardware

We are sole agents for Carey Specification guaranteed roofing.

Lakeside Lumber Co.

JACK SLATER, Manager

Center and Klamath

Phone 128

Concrete for Permanence Economical - - - Everlasting

If you build for a home or for sale purposes, you cannot afford to overlook the advantages of concrete construction. Before you build, let us tell you of the savings that may be effected by the use of concrete. If you build to sell, concrete construction makes your task easier. If you build a home to live in, you want it to last. Concrete serves your purpose.

We Have in Stock:

CEMENT CRUSHED ROCK SHASTA SAND ROCK FACE CONCRETE BUILDING BLOCK RE-INFORCING STEEL

Johns-Mansville Asbestos and Rag Felt roofings. Petrolastic Asphalt Regal Roof Coating We can save you money on your material and construction

W. D. Miller Construction Co.

PHONE 293 SIXTH AND COMMERCIAL

Safeguard Your Home

It does you little good to scrape and save to build that home of your, unless you take steps to see that it is protected.

The one sure way to be protected is to take out fire insurance. We are agents for the world's largest companies. Our rates are reasonable. We give personal service on every claim.

J. H. DRISCOLL

HART BLDG. Surety Bonds PHONE 432 Life, Fire and Auto Insurance

Everything in Electrical Fixtures

For the home. Irons, washers, Lighting fixtures and accessories, etc.-see us for expert house wiring.

Link River Electric Co.