

Kid Starkey Is Lucky To Get Draw With Johnnie Trambitas; Harrington Defeats Jack Crim

Handicapped by a bad right hand, Kid Starkey was very, very lucky to get a draw at the end of his ten-round go with Johnnie Trambitas in the headline attraction at Scandinavian Hall last night, before the largest boxing crowd of the year, estimated at more than 1,500.

One judge properly saw the bout to Trambitas, the other called it a draw and in making the award the referee also took the draw view.

Trambitas' mouth was cut by Starkey's jabbing left while Starkey was unmarked. Trambitas all through the fight showed a disposition to open up and go but Starkey pursued a hit-and-clang policy toward the end.

The first, fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth rounds appeared to be about even, with Trambitas having the edge in the others and finishing strong in the tenth, rushing Starkey repeatedly.

The semi-windup, Jack Crim and Wilber Harrington, was awarded to Harrington. This bout was a repetition of their previous one, both fighters boring in grimly throughout the contest. Harrington's left worked on Crim with telling effect. In the fourth and fifth Crim was in distress. The fight was full of action throughout and both fighters got a big hand.

SALE

The success of this sale has been almost overwhelming. The response has been more than gratifying, because back of all the tremendous interest the public is evincing in what is going on here, we visualize something of far greater significance than a desire to secure this high grade stock at a fraction of its worth—that something is an expression of faith in our store, confidence in our methods and sympathy with our cause.

A Small Deposit Will Hold 'Till Xmas

Don't be embarrassed by a suspicious bulging tin on your hip

If you go running around with a big, bulky, tobacco tin bulging on your hip nowadays, you're apt to have the law hot on your trail ... But with the new, soft, foil package snug in your hip pocket you'll avoid all appearance of evil and your chances of being copped as a vicious scoff-law get smaller [with the package] every time you load your pipe ... And listen, there's a real kick in that mild, mellow Granger you'll find inside.

Eliminating the tin takes five cents off Granger's price

Compare Granger with any tobacco made, for taste, for richness, for coolness—then compare it for price! Instead of costly tins, a foil package, and hence a straight saving of five cents.

Packed in heavy foil instead of tins—hence 10¢

Klamath Elks Will Initiate Lakeview Herd

Klamath Falls Elks will go to Lakeview Saturday morning, and return Sunday night for the purpose of initiating a large class into the local lodge there under special dispensation from the district deputy grand exalted ruler, it was decided last night at the meeting of the Elks.

It has been several years since the Klamath Falls Elks have put on a special initiation at Lakeview.

Those making the trip will include Charlton S. Currin, W. V. McNeally, O. L. Larson, Linn W. Nesmith, Oliver W. Spiker, O. D. Mathews, Perry O. DeLap, Jack Gove, and E. S. Veatch. A large gathering of Elks in Lakeview has been assured for this occasion.

Watch Your Frail, Puny Child Grow Strong-Take on Weight

In just a few days—quicker than you ever dreamt of—these wonderful flesh making tablets called McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets will start to help any weak, thin, under-nourished little one.

After sickness and where rickets are suspected they are especially valuable. No need to give them any more nasty Cod Liver Oil—these tablets are made to take the place of that good but evil smelling, stomach upsetting medicine and they surely do it. They do put on flesh.

Star Drug Store, Underwood's Pharmacy, Whitman's Drug Co., or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—as easy to take as candy and not at all expensive—60 tablets 60 cents.

Be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine and give the child a chance for 30 days. If you aren't delighted with results just get your money back.

At The LIBERTY

A picture for those married—or about to be—for their friends—and their enemies. With William Fairbanks, the ideal type of young American; Dorothy Revier, the beautiful Broadway star; and Gladden James, well remembered as Norma Talmadge's old villain. It takes you from the tinsel and artificiality of Greenwich Village to the mountains and valleys of Wyoming, where men are men and women are housewives. And there's a prizefight you mustn't miss. Don't miss "Mary Again," at the Liberty tonight.

At the PINE TREE

An avalanche of sparkling novelties, snappy dance revue, comedy galore, and vocalists who sing sensible songs with harmony, will be at seen at the Pine Tree theatre tonight.

The three Deveres appear in a novel dance revue, a versatile showing of steps with syncopated shuffling, eccentric toe dances, burlesque Spanish and French Apache numbers with beautiful drapes and nifty costumes. Dixon & Freeman in "A Minute Late," a colorful railroad conversation from the pen of Rudy A. Powell, characterize the high brown and black in a classy and novel way. Miss Dixon is a clever vocalist and Freeman is a comedian that never falls. Geo. and Lillian Whitney in "Let's Have Some Fun" present a singing, talking and dancing offering with juggling and magic sandwiched in to make it more pleasing. Arlene Francis in "Character Impressions" impersonates some of the best known female stars. The number is a splendid expression of song and story. Musical Delphinos, European Clown Music Artists, combine pantomimic comedy with novelty music which makes for twelve minutes of real comedy and entertainment. The screen offering is Constance Talmadge in "Learning to Love" and is a clever, fascinating comedy.
