Annual Relay Race Thursday Morning

At ten o'clock tomorrow morning the Annual Thanksgiving Relay Race of 200 yards will take place. Participants will meet at the Elks Temple.

Boy scouts will enter the race as well as teams from the Antlers and the De Molay. The banner will be presented to the team winning out in the 200 yard dash.

Leo Hunter, Roy Nine, Seigfried Von Berthlesdorf and a fourth boy not yet named will compete for scout troop number one. James Hawkins, Freeman Gentry, James Cramblett and Clinton Callahan will represent troop number four.

The affair is annual and is sponsored by J. J. Miller. In his absence from the city the affair will be handled by F. Glover.

J. FRANK ADAMS

J. Frank Adams, one of Klamath county's well known and prominent pioneers returned last evening from Yreka where for the past month and one-half he has been confined in a hospital suffering with a fracture of the left leg. His condition is very much improved and he is able to be about again. His many friends in this county welcome his return.

At the PINE TREE

There's one prisoner less in Sing Sing!

Tom Meighan, a convict-for-a-day for scenes in "The Man Who Found Himself," a prison story written especially for the star by Booth Tarkington, recently "broke jail" hopped from a bridge to a fast-moving freight train which carried him to freedom while several hundred inmates of the "college on the Hudson" looked on with a half-hearted "they-do-it-in-the-movies" grin.

In "The Man Who Found Himself," which will be the feature at the Pine Tree Theater tonight, Tom, as vice-president of his father's bank in a small Hudson River town, is suspected of having taken a considerable amount of bank funds for his own use.

At The LIBERTY

"The Happy Warrior," the picture which plays at the Liberty Theater tonight, is an adaptation of A. S. M. Hutchinson's novel of a traveling circus in England.

Mrs. Laura A. Willits and Leland Willits left this morning for Cottage Grove to spend Thanksgiving with the parents of Mr. Willits, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willits. They plan to return here on Friday.

Local boy scouts will compete in the annual Thanksgiving relay race which will take place on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Each team will consist of four scouts. A banner will be given to the winning team.

Automobiles

Almost New - Slightly Used - And Renewed

The new Buicks have been going fast for the past two months and the result is we have taken in some very fine small cars in trade. Not old worn out heaps or wrecks such as you may think of when you think of a used car, but late model Fords, Chevrolets, Stars, etc.

There are several reasons why we know we deserve your patronage.

We have established a reputation of good honest dealings. We tell you the truth about our used cars. We don't tune or fake them up for deception. We go over each and every car we take in and when we are through it is CERTIFIED by us to the buyer.

We offer the following cars, all late models, including closed cars, roadsters, and tourings.
