

Coffee, Senora—it is like the wine—it must be mellowed to bring to the taste that rare flavor which only our high mountain plantations can grow.

"Here in our tropic storehouses, for two years, three years, it should repose—before the roaster adds the finishing touch of the artist!"

"Indeed no, Senora, all of our coffee is not so mellowed. It is the misfortune—but so popular the coffee beverage, we can manage to keep here but a little to age and mellow!"

"Si,—it costs more. But the particular roaster, he gladly pays the difference. His customers appreciate the delightful, the unusual personality of his roast par excellence!—the old coffee with just a discreet dash of the new to heighten, to emphasize the rare old flavor!"

"Then you from the Pacific Coast are indeed fortunate. For you say your S & W is our fine mountain coffee? and from our mellowed stock, livened with but a very little of the old? Bueno!"

S & W coffee upholds the S & W reputation for quality—otherwise it couldn't bear the S & W label. The world's best coffee, a blend by real artists among experts, roasting and packing by the most modern methods. Comes in the new key-can.

"You'll try it? Good! You'll not be disappointed."

AGGIES TAKE UP LIGHT PRACTICE

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 25.—(P) Coach Schissler called his Oregon Aggie football squad together last night for the first time since the Idaho game, and gave it a light workout in preparation for heavy training for the southern California game December 5. Practice consisted mainly of running back a half dozen kick offs and was important only in revealing that the formidable list of cripples was rapidly being reduced. With the exception of one of two, the men have recuperated sufficiently to be out in suits and by the end of the week the entire squad is expected to be back in fighting form.

Klamath High to Play, Benson Here Tomorrow

Promptly at one o'clock tomorrow at the fair grounds field the referee's whistle will start the Thanksgiving day football game between Klamath high school and Benson Polytechnic school of Portland. It will be the most important game of the year so far as the local boys are concerned as it will give Klamath fans a line on the ability of the home team as compared to the Portland high school teams.

"My boys are in better shape right now than at any time during the season," declared Coach French this afternoon. "The lay-off since the regular season ended seems to have done them good and I look for them to put up the greatest fight of the year."

Klamath's star fullback, Hall, is in perfect condition and all primed to make a few of his spectacular broken field runs.

French announced the following lineup for the start of the game:

Delphians Hold Monthly Meeting

Tuesday afternoon the Klamath Falls Delphian club held its second meeting since organization at the hotel White Pelican, when the study of Egypt was taken up. Mrs. H. R. Harrison, first vice president of the club, presided as courtesy hostess and was assisted by Mrs. W. O. Smith and Mrs. Jackson Kimball.

Through the kindness of Mrs. H. W. Bathiany the program was made much more realistic with curios from foreign lands which she has collected from time to time.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt opened the afternoon program with a delightful musical number, "Long Ago in Egypt," and was accompanied by Mrs. J. R. Shaw.

The following program was given:

- Five minute pictures of five cities of ancient Egypt:
  - Memphis.....Mrs. W. H. Robertson
  - Heliopolis, Mrs. Claude Davis
  - Abydos.....Mrs. J. M. Bedford
  - Tanis.....Miss Ida Momyer
  - Thebes.....Mrs. H. E. Getz
- What the Decorator Can Learn from Ancient Egypt, Mrs. Rose Soule.
- The Role of Tutankhamen in History.....Mrs. Paul Jackson
- The Tomb of Tutankhamen.....Mrs. Russell Austin
- What the Metropolitan Museum Is Doing in Egypt, Mrs. Oscar Shive.
- Supervisor's Summary, Mrs. Don Zumwalt.

Intermission Part II

  - Book Review, Warren Ground (Ellen Glasgow), Mrs. Wilbur Jones.
  - Modern Cultural Arts, Mrs. C. I. Roberts.
  - Current Events, Mrs. Hope Kilbourne.

New Vice President For Copco Elected

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—H. S. Jones has been elected vice president of the Western States Gas and Electric Company and the California Oregon Power company with headquarters in Stockton, Calif., the Byllesby Engineering and Management Corporation announced late yesterday.

Henry Genacher of the Byllesby Corporation will succeed Mr. Jones as assistant general manager in Chicago of operation of the Western States Power company at Minneapolis. For 14 years Mr. Jones was president and general manager of the San Diego Consolidated Gas and Electric company.

Vanishing Parties Aid Albany School

Under the auspices of the Woman's Albany College League, a series of "Vanishing Parties" will soon take place throughout the state for the purpose of building new quarters for the women students of the Albany "Self-Help" college.

During the past few months the need for this building has been brought more and more into realization with the constant increase in the student body. Mrs. F. I. Fuller, of Portland, who is president of the league, gave the first party, to which nine other women were invited.

Each guest contributed $1 to the building fund and agreed to be hostess to eight other women, each of whom would contribute $1 and be hostess to seven women, who in turn will entertain six and so on down until the parties will have "vanished". By this always popular plan enough money will be realized to erect a modern dormitory.

Among the southern Oregon women who will be the first hostesses are: Roseburg, Mrs. I. N. Park; Glendale, Mrs. W. B. Lesh; Grants Pass, Mrs. George Riddle; Central Point, Mrs. L. Hatfield; Medford, Mrs. E. P. Lawrence and Mrs. Walter F. Brown; Ashland, Mrs. J. C. Mergler and Mrs. H. A. Stearns; Klamath Falls, Mrs. W. S. Slough. Each of these women will in the immediate future, invite seven other women to be their guests.

Because of her interest in educational affairs, Mrs. W. S. Slough has been chosen to give the first party in Klamath Falls.

On November 28th, the following women of the city will be guests of Mrs. Slough at a College League vanishing party.

Mrs. D. N. Clemens, Mrs. E. S. Veatch, Mrs. A. M. Collier, Mrs. A. L. Rice, Mrs. N. B. Drew, Mrs. R. E. Geary, Miss Mary Walker.

On the same date Mrs. D. N. Clemens will have as her guests Mrs. A. R. Wilson, Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mrs. Roy LaParrie, Mrs. Burt E. Hawkins, Miss Vera Houston and Miss Eloise McPherson.

Mrs. Slough and Mrs. Clemens will be joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Clemens at 426 Second street.

Mrs. Slough's guests will then invite six other women to be their guests and Mrs. Clemens' guests will invite five to be their guests.

"Southern Oregon has been given the honor of being named series one, in recognition of our quick response," said Mrs. Slough today.

"By this simple, democratic program, a three-story brick and stone building, providing dormitory, class rooms for the home economics department, college dining hall and social parlors will be given to the institution which, through its self-help program offers every young man and every young woman the chance to earn the money with which to pay for education. Some men, learning of this work, have asked to be included in the parties with the result that the assistance of men, women and children is cordially invited."

Southern Oregon students now attending Albany Self-Help college are: Victor Arundel; men's glee club; Roseburg; Hovsey J. Borden, football, Medford; Guy Campbell, football, Myrtle Creek; LeRoy Childs, Kerby; Walter Dennis, president, Pirate Knights, Rogue River; Lester Fate, Days Creek; Alice Jess, president, Y. M. C. A., Murphy; James Johnson, Medford; Warren Kirkpatrick, president, the freshman class, Medford; Alva Laws, football, basketball and former college orator, Rogue River; Catherine Pittenger, Ashland; Lyle Sams, football, Ashland.
