GILCHRIST BUYS KLAMATH TIMBER

Klamath holdings of the Gilchrist Timber company of Alpena, Mich., have been increased by 22,600 acres according to 219 patents filed with the county clerk yesterday. All of the timber land described in the patents, is located in the northern end of the county.

To date, the Gilchrist Lumber company, has not manufactured their large timber acreage in Klamath county, and according to present indications, they will continue in this practice of buying timber, not for the purpose of personal manufacture, but of investment.

OPPENHEIM HERE

Leon Oppenheim, popularly known among his Klamath Falls friends as "Oppie" arrived in the city last evening from San Francisco and plans to spend several days here on business matters.

At The LIBERTY

Embarrassing moments, many of them, fill the delightful comedy farce, "My Husband's Wives," starring the ever-lovable little Shirley Mason and which plays tonight at the Liberty Theater.

As the title suggests, it is the ex-wives who cause all the mounting color. Imagine inviting your husband's ex-wife to share your little honeymoon bungalow in the mountains.

That is exactly what Shirley Mason, as the latest Mrs. William Harvey does, unknowingly of course, the ex-Mrs. William being one of her school chums. The resulting situations will keep the audience at the Liberty Theater in a continuous spasm of laughter.

At the PINE TREE

Spectacular dancing revue, novelty offering, vocalists and musicians, and comedy in the lead is the make-up of the vaudeville bill at the Pine Tree Theater tonight and tomorrow.

Geo. B. Flint presents The Tanglefoot Steppers with the Scott Twins and Alice Frederick, a fast dancing revue doing all styles of dancing including all the popular dances and many new ideas with beautiful costumes and scenery—youth and pep predominating. Roy Dove and Girlie in "Blythe Buffonery" will undoubtedly entertain all who witness the performance of this talented couple. Aloha Duo, "The Tropical Serenaders," a musical singlet and dancing act playing ukuleles and steel guitar, use all standard snappy music. Howard Swart, "Dealing Out Webster," sings and tells stories and uses the banjo to good advantage—a clever entertainer. Dunn and Campbell in "Melody and Music" are most personable and able artists who furnish a most entertaining number. The picture is "Mile-a-Minute Mary" with Eleanor Boardman and Matt Moore.

WASHINGTON.—Members of the Mitchell court martial are to take in the army-navy game in New York during the week end recess. But the colonel has been ordered to remain in Washington for Thanksgiving.

A cafe roof fell in Juarez, Mex. Maybe because some Mexican had his picture made without a cigarette.
