

ATTEND THE BENEFIT BOXING CARD TONIGHT

Published Daily at
KLAMATH FALLS
"An Empire Awakening"

The Evening Herald

AID THE COMMUNITY
CHEST; IT DESERVES
YOUR WARM SUPPORT

Associated Press Leased Wire

Eighteenth Year—Number 5692

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1925

PRICE FIVE CENTS

LOCARNO PEACE PACT SIGNED

THE KLAMATH UPLIFTER

Published
Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays
Circulation Poor
Editor The Same

BUT NOT UNTIL THEN

We'll forget every squabble that we've had,
We will work for each other all day long,
We'll stand up for each other, good or bad,
We will fight for one another, right or wrong,
We'll observe, every day, the golden rule,
We will be always neighborly and nice,
When the devil runs clean out of fuel,
And hell's all frozen up with ice.

♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦
♦ A GOLDEN THOUGHT FOR TODAY ♦
♦ Every girl closes her eyes ♦ while kissing, and some of ♦ them have sense enough to ♦ keep their mouths shut afterwards. ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

HYMN OF HATE
A gink I hate
Is Bob Burdette;
He's always bumming
A cigarette.

Answers to Correspondents
S. O. S.—No, Tom Dezell is not a member in good standing in the Uplifter Club any more. Although he was one of the charter members, Thomas decided that two could live twice as cheap as one and is now safely married. We expect him back in the fold, before many months have elapsed. As to what the Uplifters think of his desertion, you will have to send a self-addressed and stamped envelope for reply. The answer cannot be published in this moral family newspaper.

A. L. W.—Yes, Archibald, E. J. Murray is still in California. Although I am inclined to agree with you, there is no question in my mind but that he will return probably by the end of the present week.

W. C. T. U.—I give you my word that I did not call at Senator Stanford's room when he was in the city. Bob, you know, has positive and absolutely quit uplifting.

TODAY'S EPITAPH
Here lies the body
Of poor Abe Bloch;
Kendall didn't fine him—
He died from shock.

Things We'd Like to Know
To B. H. S.—What does the middle initial stand for, and why have it at all?
To L. P. S.—Do you use rouge or does it just grow that way?
To H. S. M.—Do you ever cash in on the "gas" you peddle as well as the gas you sell?

The Cops Are Comin'
Don't tell me that there's much profit
For the poor bootlegging gink.
When he as to pour a gallon
Out into the kitchen sink.

A girl I love
Is Josie Brett;
She never says:
"Aw, you're all wet."

FINANCIAL AID IS VITAL NEED OF IRRIGATION

Oregon Drainage District is Told of Trouble by W. Lair Thompson

TOO MUCH POLITICS

Each District Has its Own Problems Which Must be Met, He Says

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 1.—The irrigation problem is a financial, not a political one, W. Lair Thompson, attorney of Portland, told members of the Oregon drainage association aid of the Oregon irrigation congress in the drainage district meeting held here today, attended by irrigationists and reclamationists from every part of the state.

"If the several men who would become candidates for governor would join in a pledge to appoint a non-partisan committee to study the district problem and suggest treatment, and thus bar the matter from politics, they would be really serving their state," he declared. He declared that one prospective candidate for governor, not mentioning his name, has a purported investigation under way conducted by an immature, inexperienced young man, without a single qualification for the important function, stating that this report is to be made a basis for a political attack upon irrigation development. "I refer to this," stated Thompson, "as an illustration of how not to do it."

Thompson asserted in his address that no plan can be involved to meet the irrigation situation in the state that contemplates lumping them together.

"No plan should be considered," he said, "that rests upon any other basis than helping each district to work out its own salvation."

He suggested that in the Bancroft bonding act may be found the germ of a theory for helping irrigation districts, by assessing land proportionate to the value received from the water.

Daniel Cupid Beats Divorce For November

Popular Youth Crashes Through For Decisive Win

That highly touted and usually popular youth known as Daniel Cupid, crashed through for a victory over divorce during November, county records revealed today. It was a decisive, smashing win, for 15 marriage licenses were issued, whereas but 7 divorce complaints were filed.

"It's about time," court house attaches remarked this morning, and then recalled that it wasn't long ago that divorces during one month actually exceeded marriages.

For some reason or other, it is the women who start most of the divorce suits in Klamath, and the November divorce record for this county is no exception to the rule. Of the seven complaints filed, five were brought by women.

ROSTOV-ON-DONU—Leo Kamenoff has made up with his brother in law, Leon Trotzky. Having once voted for Trotzky's expulsion from the war ministry, Kamenoff is now going to help him become a member of the central executive and political bureau.

S. P. BRAKEMAN THOUGHT DYING FROM ACCIDENT

C. N. Myers Rushed to San Francisco Hospital with Fractured Skull

(Special to The Herald)
YREKA, Calif., Dec. 1.—C. N. Myers, well known and popular S. P. freight train brakeman, was rushed to the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco late last night in a dying condition as the result of a fall from a moving freight train one mile south of Granada.

The heavy freight train was traveling north and Myers, it is believed, was attempting to fix one of the hand brakes on a freight car when he lost his balance and fell. Not until the train reached Montague, 20 miles north, was he missed. Speeders and track walkers were immediately rushed out to institute a search for the missing man.

Kenneth Stott, who lives near the scene of the accident, was reading in the front room of his house, when he heard groans coming from the right of way. Going out, he found Myers in a semi-conscious condition, with his skull badly fractured. He cared for the injured man until a special train could be procured to rush him to San Francisco.

Myers is married and has a wife and two children living at Dunsuir. He had been employed on this division for a number of years and is popular among his fellow trainmen.

Advices from San Francisco today noon were that he has but a slight chance for recovery.

MIAMI STREETS FLOODED UNDER DELUGE OF RAIN

More than 14 Inches Fall in Florida City Within 12 Hours Yesterday

WEAR BATHING SUITS

Beauties and Some Who are Not, Parade Thru City in 1-Piece Garments

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 1.—Miami today was drying itself out after one of the most thorough wettings it has ever known. Rainfall exceeding 14 inches fell here in a period of 12 hours, much of it running in veritable streams in the principal streets of the city. Flagler street, the main thoroughfare, was likened to a bathing beauty promenade, although many who were not beauties had bathing suits as the most feasible clothing under the circumstances.

Still After "Suckers"
Business appointments were kept by staid business men in bathing suits who plunged their way through four feet of water to meet the latest seeker after opportunities from the winterland.

Police, not to be outdone, entered into the spirit by donning sea-side habiliments.

Fair shoppers also arrayed in bathing suits splattered their way about the streets, wading from store to store.

Many motor cars were stranded about the streets as the raging waters stalled engines. Damage in Miami will run into thousands of dollars, it was estimated last night, although reports from the outlying districts were not complete.

Throughout the business portion of the city the water flooded over the curbs and swept into the ground floors of stores and other buildings. Many establishments were forced to close for the day.

Big Charity Boxing Card Will Be Staged Tonight; Opener To Feature Unknown "White Hope"

Kiddies' Christmas Benefit Fund Will Be Aided By Fighters and Promoters—Malin Farmer Boy to Make Debut—All Boxers On Edge

Tonight's the night when the big benefit boxing card will be staged at Scandia hall, with the profits going to the Kiddies' Christmas fund, promoted by the Evening Herald, to supply the poor kids of Klamath Falls with a real Christmas.

Twenty-four rounds of real boxing and quite a bit of starting will be dished up to Klamath's ring worms, starting promptly at 8:30.

Ordinarily, the main event rates top position in a boxing story, by an eleventh-hour switch in the curtain raiser as announced this morning by Matchmaker Johnnie Sylvester, looks so good that the boys and girls who pay out their cash ought to know all about it.

A tall young giant from Malin, fighting under the name of "Knockout Hogan," will make his ring debut against Jim Fleming, who won a technical knockout over Henry Burke on the last card. This will not be a clown match. "Hogan," who is the son of a prominent Malin farmer has been in training for several weeks under the tutelage of Sylvester. He has mastered the rudiments of the ring game so speedily that Sylvester decided to put these boys on in the opener and give the fans a real run for their money at the start of the show. This bout will have the fans buzzing for the rest of the evening.

Mike De Pinto and Billy Watson are all primed and ready for their 10-round main event. These two little game cocks will fly at each other at the tap of the gong and will be pecking away with hooks and jabs in as pretty a bout as can be seen anywhere between a couple of evenly matched lightweights.

Another bout that will be a corker is the six-round semi-windup with Chuck Sams and Mickey Gibbons trying to plant rights and lefts on each other's chins. This bout will give the local boy, Sams his acedest, as Gibbons comes to Klamath from California with a real reputation that he will try his best to uphold. If he gets over Sams he has been promised another bout on the next card, providing he meets with the approval of the fans.

Sid Herbert, a popular Klamath boy, will get back in his ring togs when he faces Kid Clark of Portland, in a four-round special event. Herbert is fast and clever and carries a wicked wallop in either hand. Mister Clark will have to have a real defense if he weathers the storm throughout the four rounds.

Joe Shirk, old-time trainer and handler of boxers, will be the third man in the ring.

The bouts are being staged in the name of charity—to make Christmas a little brighter for the poor, unfortunate youngsters of the city on Christmas morning. It's a good card, better, in fact, than the last one, which Klamath fans admitted was a wow. So do the youngsters a good turn, and go out to the fights tonight. You can't possibly lose.

BIG SALE OF KLAMATH TIMBER TO BE MADE BY OREGON LAND BOARD

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 1.—The sale of 80,000,000 feet of timber located in Klamath county will be undertaken by the Oregon state land board on January 26, 1926, it was announced yesterday by the board. This is said to be the largest timber sale ever negotiated by the board. The board has fixed the minimum price for 28,665,000 feet of yellow pine at $3.50 per 1,000 feet. Over 825,000 feet of white fir has a minimum price of 50¢ per 1,000 feet. The minimum on the 185,000 feet of incense cedar has been set at $1 per 1,000 feet.

Bar Pays Tribute To Deceased Judge

THE DALLES, Ore., Dec. 1.—(P)—Funeral services for Alfred S. Bennett, 71, former justice of the supreme court of Oregon and prominent figure in the early political history of the state, who died at his home in The Dalles Saturday were held in the circuit court room of the Wasco county court house this morning.

Stanley Dollar's Bid Is Rejected

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(P)—Rejection of the bid of R. Stanley Dollar, vice president of the Dollar lines, for charter and purchase of the five combination passenger and cargo vessels of the Admiral-Oriental line was recommended to the shipping board today by President Crowley of the fleet corporation.

LEGIONAIRES WILL NOMINATE POST OFFICERS

Jack Glover and O. D. Mathews Leading Candidates for Legion Commander

With Jack M. Glover and O. D. Mathews leading candidates for commander, the Klamath Falls post No. 5, American Legion, will have a spirited meeting tonight when nominations will be made for all post officers. Nominations will be final tonight, and the election will be staged two weeks from tonight, December 15.

Although Glover was said to be slated originally for the place as adjutant, his friends have been so busy during the past week that they now feel they have enough votes to put him over for the highest office, with Mathews favored for adjutant.

Alfred D. Collier is slated for nomination as first vice-commander; A. Fidler for second vice-commander, and George M. Barth for finance officer.

For the three places on the executive committee, H. E. Getz, retiring commander, F. R. Olds and Linn W. NeSmith are reported to be the leading candidates.

There has been considerable political activity among the candidates, and their supporters during the past couple of weeks, and it is predicted there will be a flock of nominations for all offices when the legionnaires are called to order in their quarters at the court house at 7:45 tonight.

BOOZE ORGY OF MINORS BRINGS MURDER CHARGE

Gordon Pirie, New York Youth, Admits Slaying of His Chum, George Nye

STAGES WILD PARTY District Attorney Reveals Juvenile Delinquencies as Result of Crime

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (P)—The slaying of George Nye, 19, was the climax of a "children's booze party" District Attorney McGehean said today in announcing that Nye's chum, Gordon Pirie, had confessed the killing.

Pirie walked into a Bronx police station shortly after midnight and surrendered himself as the slayer of Nye, whose body was found in a bedroom in Pirie's home by the latter's 16 year old sister, Margaret. Pirie was arrested on a charge of homicide after he had made a confession at the pleading of Violet Schmidt, a friend of the victim.

Admits Guilt
"Tell the truth Gordon," she begged and Pirie told the district attorney how he had smashed his friend's skull with an axe, had robbed his pockets of $5.60, and had taken a girl to the movies a few hours later.

"I just got the notion to kill him," the district attorney quoted Pirie as saying. All of the principals in the case are minors, including half a dozen young girls who had been to parties with the men.

"Aside from the murder phase of this case," said Mr. McGehean, "it gives me an insight into the lives of the young people of this city. They are beyond parental control. Young girls go around without selecting their company; they take taxi rides with men with whom they are only slightly acquainted and they associate with those who carry flasks."

DOCUMENT THAT PREVENTS MORE WARFARE SEALED

German Delegates walk arm in arm with Recent Foes in Bitter War

SETTING VERY SIMPLE

Brief Ceremonies mark Final Steps in Completing Noted Treaty

LONDON, Dec. 1. (AP)

Germany and her antagonists in the world war today signed the Locarno treaty and collateral pacts guaranteeing peace in Europe and the submission to arbitration of any disputes that may arise between them regarding their frontiers. The contrast between the signing of this momentous pact and the peace treaty of Versailles six years ago was marked in two respects.

Today there was none of the magnificence and glamour surrounding the Versailles signing. The ceremony which lasted only an hour was notable for its extreme simplicity.

And this time the Germans came of their own free will. They signed gladly with smiling faces in striking contrast to that other occasion when the delegates of the Reich appended their signatures under compulsion with white faces registering a mixture of fear and anger.

Today's ceremony was carried out in a spirit of optimism which was hailed as auguring well for an era of peace throughout Europe.

To the click of motion picture cameras and a blaze of Klieg lights, Chancellor Luther of Germany, premier Briand of France, and Foreign Secretary Chamberlain entered the famous golden reception room of the foreign office arm in arm, conversing and smiling.

Delegates File In
After them came the delegates of Italy, Belgium, Poland and Czechoslovakia followed by Premier Baldwin and all his cabinet. The latter ranged themselves along the back of the room to witness the crowning success of the efforts of their government and especially of Foreign Secretary Chamberlain, whom the delegates addressed as Sir Austen, because of the honor done him by King George, who yesterday awarded him the order of the garter.

Los Angeles to Bar All Cruelty at Future Rodeos

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1. (P)—This one-time wild western city has cut another tie that bound it to the wild west.

Hereafter rodeos held within the city limits will be less wild, the department of humane treatment of animals has decided.

A few of the several rules provide that calves and goats must not be roped, that "trick bulls" must not be used under saddles and that steers must not be bull dogged.