

Two Knockouts Feature Card

Bad Weather Keeps Many Ringsiders At Home

Boxing fans who witnessed the performance held last night at Scandinavian hall saw two knockouts administered in jig time and two bouts that went the limit.

In the opening event of the card Kid Thompson opened an aerial attack on Skipper McDonald, culminating early in the second round when he misjudged his distance and came in wide open, intercepting a wild swing on the point of his jaw.

"One Round" Hogan of Malin proved his fight to possess the title by knocking out Jim Fleming, a more experienced mixer, in the first round. Hogan has a wallop and should prove a good local drawing card if handled by an experienced man.

The Mickey Gibbons-Chuck Sams fight went the limit, Sams having a shade the best of it in the early rounds. Gibbons showed ability to give and take but seemed to lack judgment with his swings. Sams landed cleaner and more telling blows. This was a fight from the opening bell to the end of the sixth round.

In the main event, which went the full ten rounds to a draw, Mike De Pinto and Billy Watson of Eureka put up a good exhibition. Watson hammered De Pinto all through the fight with a straight left that seemed to have the Portland batter worried, and which seemed to occupy all of his attention.

Watson had the best of it in the opening rounds, then De Pinto took the lead, and in the final rounds honors were about even. The few clean blows De Pinto put across were offset by the continued jabbing of Watson.

Inclement weather kept many regulars away from the ringside.

Aggies Leave for Los Angeles Game

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 2. (AP)—Twenty six Oregon Aggie football men with Coach Schissler, left here at 10 a. m. today for Los Angeles where they will play the final game of the season with southern California Saturday. Fifteen linemen and eleven backfield men were in the party. Those selected are: Halcom and Wernamer, centers; Richert, Badley, Olmsted, Plumb, Carver, Liebe, Dixon, Dickerson, Hale and Vimont, tackles; Carr, Robbins, Logan, and Ward, ends; Edwards and Lassiter, quarters; Denman, Schulmerich, Grider, Bell, Luby and Quinn, halves, and Seider, Jarvis and Avrit, full backs.

The squad had a fast session of signal practice and scrimmage last night. Commenting on the prospects Coach Schissler said, "We may love the game, but from the way the team looks now, and the way they are tearing into the practice, we will have a mighty dangerous bunch for any team to go up against."

On the morning of December 24, the principals of the various schools will hold Christmas exercises and the afternoon will mean the annual theater party, over which C. H. Underwood will preside as host, which has been one of his outstanding acts of kindness to the pupils of the public schools for a number of years.

"TESS" PLEASES MRS. HARDY

LONDON.—(AP)—Thomas Hardy was unable to come to London for the first presentation of his novel, "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," but Mrs. Hardy made the trip to London and after seeing the play expressed her approval of the portrayal of Tess by Miss Gwen Frangon-Davies. Mrs. Hardy said her husband is only slightly indisposed and is ordinarily enjoying good health in spite of his 55 years.

Will Recommend Several Changes in Football Code

CHICAGO, Dec. 2. (AP)—Changes to be recommended in the football code will be considered when western football coaches and athletic directors gather here tomorrow for a three day meeting. If some agreement is reached, it is expected that a number of the rules committee, probably A. A. Stagg, will take the alterations before the national rules committee.

One proposal likely to be considered is in favor of putting the ball in play at the start of the third period where it was when time is called instead of from a kick-off, as required at present.

Another deals with the safety. Some coaches think distinction should be made between voluntary and involuntary safeties. The voluntary safety is regarded in some football quarters as a means of taking advantage of the rules, that five yards ought to be allowed for every punt caught is another change likely to be advanced. A clearer working of the rule regarding the "dead ball" also may be sought.

Football, baseball and basketball schedules as well as track meets will be arranged during the meetings with coaches of non-conference schools participating.

Shop-windows on parade

In the quiet and comfort of your home, newspaper in hand, the show-windows of the town's best stores pass in review. Look at that charming little hat—just the style you have been looking for, and so reasonable!

And say, isn't that coat a darling? . . . Not only do you see illustrations of the merchandise, but you are told in detail of its merits and prices. A passing panorama that may be halted and started at will. A shopping trip at home!

How long do you suppose it would take you to reverse the process—to go up one street and down another, until you had visited personally every worth-while store in town? And how exhausted you would be, physically and nervously.

There's no doubt about it. The modern way to shop is to read the advertisements, then make notes of the stores and the particular offerings that appeal to you. What a lot of time and bother such a method saves. You know beforehand what you want to look at, who has it, and what you will have to pay.

Read the advertisements. Make it a daily habit. The regular reader of advertisements is better informed, makes the family budget stretch farther, has more time for recreation, gets more value for her money, and profits in many ways. Advertisements are frequently the most interesting news in the paper.

Governor Jim Defends Wife Husband of Texas Gov- ernor Flays His Enemies

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 2. (AP)—James E. Ferguson defended today the acts of his wife, Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, in administration of highway matters in Texas, which precipitated agitation for a special session of the legislature. In a statement he asserted the judgment in court of the American road case was not the victory administration opponents claimed. He charged Dan Moody, attorney general, with entering into a private agreement with the road company and stated that the road company was permitted to go "Scott free" with a net profit of $900,000, the state losing a like sum through the agreement and with the approval of the court.

Ferguson said he felt free to talk now that the American Road company case had been settled and the grand jury had adjourned without returning an indictment.

He charged that by adding $300,000 profit made by the road company to the probable cost of $360,000, that it would cost the state to make a second treatment of the highways, the state will sustain a $1,800,000 loss.

Cooperation Is Held Vital Need

"Parents' and Teachers' cooperation is the point which we should all strive towards," were the words of Rev. J. Henry Thomas, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, who spoke before the Central school parent-teachers' association yesterday afternoon.

Piano numbers by Mrs. Russell Austin and Miss Lydia von Berthel-dorf were greatly enjoyed, as was the musical number by the pupils of the first grade, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Polson.

In the absence of Mrs. Ray Reed, president, who is still confined to her home recovering from a major operation, Miss Augusta Parker, vice president of the board, presided. The regular routine of business followed the program.

It is the hope of the association to hold its next regular meeting in the new Fremont school, which will be ready for the term of school starting January fourth.

Sometime during the month of January a "house warming" party will take place in the new school, plans for which were discussed briefly at the meeting yesterday.
