Klamath Falls for the winter.

The recent rains have not im-though they are still passable.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Stiles made a business trip to Klamath Falls Saturday.

Paul, Ora and Ralph Arnett spent Sunday with relatives in Mills addition.

Joe Trammel, who purchased some lumber from the Nine's camp at this place, is hauling it to town this week.

Mrs. Della Nichols and son drove

A Talk With a Klamath

Mr. Smith Tells Something of Interest to Klamath Falls Folks

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in.

Henry Smith, carpenter, says: "I have used Doan's Pills off and on and have always found them to be a reliable kidney remedy."

Mr. Smith is only one of many Klamath Falls people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills.

Another Ancient Mummy Found By Sahara Desert Expedition

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(AP)—The Franco-American expedition in the Sahara, headed by Count Byron Kuhn de Prorok, has disinterred the skeleton of a personage buried in the tomb of Tim Hinan, the legendary goddess and ancestress of the Tuaregs...

The bones of a well built person about six feet in height whose fine features resemble those of present day Tuareg nobles, were found resting on an elaborate couch sunk in solid rock, the dispatch stated.

The scientists were unable to determine whether the bones were those of a man or woman, but the natives were convinced they were those of Tim Hinan herself.

The skull had feminine characteristics, but the body bones were apparently of a masculine type. It is thought possible that the expedition has found the body of the ancient heroine, who in the root and who structure of Torax.

The weapons usually buried with persons of high rank were not found.
Garments of a dignitary were found piled in an anteroom of the burial chamber. Beads, carnelians, garnet and objects of gold and silver were dug up in the mound covering it.

Massive bracelets on the arms of the skeleton were believed to be of gold and silver alloyed with another metal, probably antimony, which was used by the Carthaginians to give gold and silver jewelry additional weight and hardness.

North Dakota
Parties Name
All Nominees

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 2.—(AP)— Primary candidates for congressional and state offices were named and platforms adopted by republicans, democrats and farmer laborites of South Dakota in state conventions that continued until an early hour here today.

Outstanding in importance was the endorsement for renomination of United States Senator Peter Nor-beck and Governor Carl Gunderson by the republicans, who smoothed out early factional ruffles which threatened for a time to disrupt their convention.

Democrats endorsed C. J. Gundersen of Clay county, a cousin of Governor Gunderson for United States Senator and W. J. Bulow of Beresford for Governor, while the farmer-labor party named George Platt, a farmer of Marshall county, for senator, and H. K. Warren of Yankton for governor.

Efforts of the democrats and farmerlaborites to agree on a complete fusion slate failed, although a number of "insurgent farmer-laborites" joined with the democrats in endorsing Miss Alice Lorraine Daly, and several other candidates. Miss Daly, who last year was the farmer labor candidate for governor, was nominated for congress in the first district.

For congress the republicans endorsed the three incumbents, C. A.
Christopherson, Sioux Falls; Royal C. Johnson, Aberdeen, and William Williamson, Custer.

REFORESTATION SUCCESSFUL IN OREGON NATIONAL FOREST

EUGENE, Ore., —(AP)— Reforestation in the Mount Hebo national forest in western Oregon has proved successful. Trees planted from 1912 to 1916 are eight to 16 feet high, the average height being 10 feet.

In addition to the replanting started in 1912, approximately 150,000 trees were set out two years ago. Four out of five of these trees are growing, except on the highest mountains, where there is little protection from the elements.

'The Whole Church Is His Daddy

This four-month-old youngster has been adopted by the whole congregation of a United Brethren church at Toledo, O. He was found abandoned in an automobile in front of the church, and everybody wanted him. The church women have named him Arbine, after the founder of the church, and are taking turns in caring for him.

Two New Flumes
Finished Inside
of Thirty Days

Two irrigation flumes, one just east of Dairy which crosses the Klamath Falls-Lakeview highway and another at the upper end of the Nuss lake lateral, will be replaced before Christmas by durable metal flumes.

"That is," officials at the local U. S. Reclamation office amplified this morning, "the flumes will be finished before Christmas if weather conditions are favorable."

Practically the entire engineering force is laboring on the flume projects. The treaties for both flumes have been erected and a car load of iron flume material has arrived at Oleno and will be shipped immediately to the scene of construction.

Harry Whitby, watermaster, is in direct charge of the work while the job is supervised by George Fry, reclamation engineer.

WEINGARTNER'S APPOINTMENT
CAPS LONG OPERATIC CAREER

BERLIN.—(AP)—Felix van Weingartner, the famous musician, and the equally famous French philosopher, Henri Bergson, have been elected chairmen of the newly founded League of Nations Commission for Intellectual Collaboration.

Weingartner was born in Dalmatia in 1862 and called to the Berlin Royal Opera as alternating chief conductor in 1891. In 1898 he went to Munich to conduct a series of guest performances and subsequently also in Vienna, without the permission of Count von Huelssen, at that time the Intendant of the Berlin Opera. Thereupon Count von Huelssen charged von Weingartner with having broken his contract. The court finally ruled that von Weingartner was to be prohibited from conducting in Berlin for the term of 16 years.

In 1893, however, he severed this Gordian knot by giving a series of symphonic concerts in Fuersten-walde, a suburb just beyond the precincts of Berlin. The event at that time was the talk of Germany.
Weingartner was married to the American singer, Lucille Marcel, who died in 1921.

SHERIFF PLEADS
FOR PRISONERS

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 2.—R. T.
Cookingham, sheriff of Umatilla county, has written Governor Pierce urging executive clemency for Art Shinning, John Feblen, Jack Wright and J. S. Swanson, prohibition law violators. The two former were sentenced to a year in jail and to pay fines of $1500 each.

"Both these men have wives and children and were in straitened circumstances which caused me to make a plea to you for clemency and a parole," writes the sheriff.
"These men have both pledged me that they will never touch or handle liquor again, and I believe them."

Wright and Swanson were sentenced to serve 60 days and pay fines of $500 each for bootlegging.
They have served their time and have no money to pay their fines.
The sheriff says he thinks they have reached the point where they are determined to reform. He favors cutting their fines in half. All four have jobs promised them and are willing, the letter says, to work and pay their fines in monthly installments. The district attorney and the judges are said to concur with the sheriff.

WOMEN SEE DANGER IN LIQUOR

BERLIN.—(AP)—Women doctors, lawyers and economists of Germany favor local option and see in the excessive use of alcohol one of the wrest dangers confronting Germany.
They held a joint conference, with delegates from the Association of German Women Physicians, the Federation of Women Lawyers, and the Association of Women Economists, at the conclusion of which a resolution was adopted memorializing the Reichstag in favor of local option.

BARRISTERS TO REVIVE MOOTS TO AID COUNSEL

LONDON.—A revival of the old custom of holding "moots" in the Middle Temple is being planned for November.

The moot is a mock trial designed to give men in the legal profession —and now women—the opportunity of arguing legal problems arising from established acts, in the form in which cases are argued in the Court of Appeal. Two counsel are assigned for each side and when they have put their case, the judge gives judgment. Justice Sankey has promised to preside over the first moot.

This is considered to be one of the best methods of giving junior counsel an opportunity of putting and arguing a case, as well as gaining hints regarding procedure, and pitfalls to be avoided when taking a legal case into the glare of a public court.
