FRIENDSHIP CLUB TOMORROW

Holding Regular Business Meeting At Home of Mrs. R. H. Dunbar

The Friendship club, one of the most active clubs in the city, which for a number of years has taken an active part in supplying clothing for needy kiddies of the city, will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. R. H. Dunbar tomorrow afternoon at the hour of 2:30. All members of the order are urged to attend the meeting at which time matters of importance will be discussed. The Dunbar home is located at 420 Jefferson.

VISITORS FROM HILT

V. H. Mathisen and J. G. Davis, both residents of Hilt, California, here on business matters, are guests at the Hotel Arcade.

HUNTING ATTRACTS

Hunting is the magnet which is attracting outside people to Klamath this time of year. Tales of wonderful duck and goose hunts in the Tule lake section have traveled far and wide and as a result hunters are coming to Klamath to see for themselves. Last night Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Olding and Joseph Schmidt of Grants Pass and C. J. Semon of Medford were among those who are here to see for themselves.

FOREIGN TOURISTS

S. R. Gilson, Mt. Shasta, Mac Russen, San Francisco, R. W. Peafe, Hollister, William Thomas, Seattle and Edgar Blanchard of Dorris, registered their cars at the chamber of commerce office. With the cold weather and Christmas holidays approaching, a slack in the registrations is noticeable.

FROM WESTERN COLORADO

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon and two little sons of Wheeler, Colo., who are motoring through enroute to California, were guests in the city on Wednesday and plan to remain here until tomorrow. This is their first trip to southern Oregon and they are very much impressed with this section.

FROM BEND

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson of Bend, here on a combined business and pleasure trip, arrived in the city Wednesday and plan to spend several days here. While in the city they are stopping at the Hotel Arcade.

COMING TO SPEND WINTER

Mother and Sister of Mr. G. D. Ray G. D. Ray Expected Soon

Mrs. Martha E. Kerns with Mrs. H. H. Ray and two youngsters are expected this coming week from Santa Cruz, California, to spend the winter months with Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ray. The visitors are the mother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Ray, who returned about three months ago from an extended visit in the south, with her family. Mrs. G. D. Ray is married to G. D. Ray's brother, manager of the Hotel Lake. Her husband is now in South America with the Copper Corporation of Peru, as a mining engineer, and plans to remain away for a period of three years. In college the two brothers both decided upon the engineering course, G. D. Ray taking civil engineering while H. H. Ray took the mining course. Letters from Mr. Ray tell of his living at an elevation of 15,000 feet.

MISS JAMES ARRIVED

Miss Myrtle James, of Newport, Oregon, president of the state assembly of the Rebekah lodge, arrived in the city this forenoon, here to pay her official visit to the local lodge. She was the honor guest at a noon luncheon today at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and this evening Mrs. W. L. Sanders is entertaining with a dinner party.

GEORGE STEPHENSON HERE

Prominent Lumberman from Lakeview Here with Family

George Stephenson, perhaps one of the best known and capable lumbermen of the west, is in the city on business matters from his home at Lakeview, where he holds extensive interests. He is accompanied by Mrs. Stephenson and their son Bobby. While in the city the family are guests at the hotel White Pelican.

DECORATE FOR PARTY

Several members of the senior Christian Endeavor met at the Presbyterian church last evening to decorate the basement for the kid party, which is to be held tomorrow evening. The rooms were carried out in a color scheme of red, green and white. A large Christmas tree was trimmed upon which gifts for each and every guest will be placed. Each member is asked to bring a gift not to exceed 15c in price. A Santa Claus will be on hand to distribute the gifts. A program will follow after which refreshments will be served.

ROADS VERY SLICK

Hunters Back from Tule Lake Find Peninsula Road Slick

Several parties of local men who spent Wednesday in the Tule lake district on hunting trips, returned last evening and this morning and all report the roads around the peninsula very slick, the result of lots of rain. The mud is deep and ruts are prominent on the road. Those planning to make the trip would be wise in taking chains, according to several members of parties who returned. Lots of California men were enjoying the splendid hunting, the west side of the lake being much in favor.
