

STUDENT RALLY CHEERS AGGIES

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Ore., Dec. 3.—(P)—Cheered on by the shouts of a rousing student rally, 26 Oregon Aggie grid men left yesterday for Los Angeles. They are expecting the easiest game of the season with the Trojans and are determined to throw their full strength into the fray to bring victory over the Californians.

Every man is in best of condition excepting Ward, end, who will not be used unless his ability as a pass receiver is absolutely necessary in a crisis. Starting lineup will probably be Rollins and Logan, ends; Dixon and Dickerson, tackles; Reichert and Bedley, guards; Hatcom, center; Edwards, quarter; Shulmerich and Denman, halves; and Snider, full back. Snider will be playing his last game for O. A. C. and should be at the peak of his ability. Some new plays and others little needed in previous games have been perfected in the past two weeks, and a powerful and probably spectacular offensive is expected to feature the Aggie play.

Alaska and Idaho Being Considered at Mines Session

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 3.—Alaska and Idaho had their innings before today's sessions of the Northwest Mining Association's annual convention here. Alaska's situation in relation to mineral development was presented by Dean Minor Roberts, of the University of Washington and by Falcon Joslyn of Seattle. Tomorrow forenoon will be given over to a discussion of Oregon's mineral resources, with H. E. Hendry of Baker as chairman and Dr. D. C. Livingston of the Oregon Agricultural college school of mines and P. S. Woodin, secretary of the Oregon mining survey, as speakers.

WORDEN

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Stiffler, accompanied by their son, Raymond, drove in to Klamath Falls Monday on business.

The recent rainy weather has put the ungraveled roads in a very muddy and slick condition.

Henry Chapman was a business visitor in Klamath Falls last Monday.

A. W. Shur boarded the train Tuesday evening bound for Klamath Falls on a business trip.

C. J. McCollum and wife, accompanied by their son, Harold, drove to Medford to spend the week-end visiting their daughters who live in the valley city.

Ben Gay was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Floyd Wilson drove over to Dorris Monday for supplies.

A. W. Shur and Ben Gay drove over to Ashland Thursday to get their winter supply of apples.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, accompanied by Eileen, Doris and Lester Wilson, drove to Kono Thanksgiving day to take part in a family dinner at the home of C. M. Wilson.

Mrs. A. W. Shur gave a Thanksgiving dinner at her home near Worden to relatives. Those enjoying the dinner were Mrs. Ben Gay, Mrs. Shur, Christina, Mary, Lydia and Gay, Tony Lamb, and Howard Shur.

Lottie Montgomery drove to Medford Thanksgiving day to spend the vacation visiting with friends and relatives in and near Medford.

Mrs. Mary Wilson accompanied by Eileen Wilson, motored in to the county seat last Friday on a shopping tour.

Every one enjoyed the dance Saturday evening under the management of the Ivan logging camp. An excellent small crowd attended. Music was good and a nice supper and coffee was enjoyed at midnight before starting for their various homes.

We were disappointed in not having our Victrola at school this week. On account of a small adjustment upon the timing device, which was not just right, the company had to send it to Portland for adjustment. We expect to have it by the end of the week.

ARTISTS TO PORTRAY LIFE IN SOVIET RUSSIA

MOSCOW. —(P)— Soviet educational authorities have decided to send to various places in the Soviet Union 72 artists to paint pictures of local revolutionary events, portraits of local events and leaders, scenes of labor processes and other social features of present day life. The expedition will include a number of noted artists. They will visit Crimea, the Urals, the Ukraine and the northern provinces. A number of artists are to be sent abroad for the same purpose.
