LET'S HELP 'EM

Somehow or other,
We've got the hunch,
That Uplifter readers,
Are a pretty good bunch;
And we want you to help us
In putting the skids
Under Old Man Grief:
For the poor little kids;
So please kick through
And help us because
We're taking the place
Of old Santa Claus;
So let's put a doll,
A drum or a horn,
In some poor kid's stocking
On Christmas morn.
You'll feel lots better
If you can give
Enough to bring joy
Where the poor folks live;
So send us your dollars,
We're needing lots
To do our bit
For unfortunate tots.

BUGHOUSE BALLADS

The lightning flashed; a shot rang out,
A woman cried: "Oh, fudge!"
Somebody lost the Mah Jongg set
And snored came from the judge.

The waitress kissed me on the lips,
My shirt began to fade,
The weather man said: "Snow, perhaps."
"Twas ninety in the shade.

I stirred my tea from left to right,
The parrot looked askance,
The engines met with mighty crash
And the angworm wore pants.

The sky turned purple, green and brown,
The clock struck thirty-two.
The baby needed shaving
But what could the poor girl do?

A GOLDEN THOUGHT FOR TODAY

A salesman will not cuss in front of ladies even when the ladies are too drunk to hear what he is saying.

HOME BREW, 1925

Alcohol and Juniper
Shaken in a tin,
With a drop of soda pop
Makes a quart of gin.

Take a quart of red ink,
Half a pound of tea,
Boil them up together,
And you get some eau de vie.

Half a pound of sugar
Churned up in a pail,
Sufficient malt, a pinch of salt,
And there's your nut-brown ale.

Stand a bunch of raisins
In the pouring rain,
Doll and stir with oil of myrrh,
And get some real champagne.

There was a time when a woman couldn't get anywhere without clothes. Now she can't get anywhere with 'em.

MAY ESTABLISH QUARANTINE ON OREGON'S PINE

Appearance of White Blister Rust May Lead to Drastic Measures

HEARING TO BE HELD

Matter to be Settled Jan. 8; Would Prohibit Outside Shipments

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—A hearing on the question of a pine quarantine against Oregon because of the appearance of the white pine blister rust in that state will be held in the offices of the federal horticultural board January 8.

It is proposed to prohibit the movement from Oregon into other states of all five leafed pines and currant and goosberry plants, the latter intermediate host plant necessary in carrying the disease from one pine tree to another.

The blister rust has been discovered in Tillamook and Clatsop counties, Oregon, which brings the infection within 175 miles of the northern edge of the great sugar pine forests of southern Oregon and northern California.

NEW RECORD FOR CATTLE GRAZING MADE IN COUNTY

Prineville Cattle Gain 425.5 Pounds Per Animal in 160 Days

RYAN RANCH IS USED

Wood River Valley Section Lives up to high Reputation This Year

A record for fattening cattle, believed by Klamath authorities to be unequaled in the west, was established this fall in the Wood River valley section, 40 miles north of Klamath Falls. It is a record which places the fertile northern Klamath basin country at the head of cattle grazing sections of the west and which justifies the praise of soil exports from the Oregon Agricultural college.

A herd of 206 cattle was turned into the Dan Ryan ranch of Wood River valley on May 4 of this year. At the time they were released to feed on the abundant forage crops of the Ryan ranch, the cattle were "weighed in" and the average weight of each animal noted.

Big Gain Shown
On October 15, the cattle were taken from the ranch and weighed. The average gain in weight of each head of cattle during the 160 day period of grazing on the Ryan ranch was

Frank Pecholt Reported Dying In Local Hospital; Conflicting Stories Of Accident Are Given

Skull Fractured Last Saturday Evening—Officers Say he Was Struck by Big Sedan While Attempting to Evade Arrest

Frank Pecholt, proprietor of the Country Club, and a local resident of 20 years standing, lies near death today at a local hospital with a fractured skull incurred last Saturday night from a terrific blow on the back of the head. His condition was characterized as serious by local hospital authorities.

Pecholt, it was learned today, received the blow which cracked open his skull, when a heavy sedan struck him on Spring street. Fifteen minutes after he was struck down by the automobile he was in jail under charge of drunkenness. He lay in the city prison for 14 hours, little realizing his serious condition. On Wednesday an X-ray revealed the fracture.

Pecholt was stopped last Saturday night about 8 o'clock by a group of officers, including Special State Agents Cole, McMills and Boyd, on Spring street.

"We asked him where he was going and he appeared to be drunk," Cole said today. "We started to walk toward him and he reached for his back pocket, took something out and threw it away. It was either a pistol or bottle of whiskey. Then he started to run down the street."

Hit by Sedan
"At that instant a heavy sedan automobile was coming toward us at a fast rate of speed. It struck Pecholt a terrific blow and knocked him clear across the street on his head. Why it didn't kill him right then, I don't know. McMills stopped the car and took the number and name. I don't know what it was, he has the information."

Well, Pecholt was out for ten or 15 minutes. When he came to, he seemed to be all right and we (Continued on Page Two)

Young Bandits Make Big Haul

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5. (AP)—Seeing two men scuffling on a sidewalk and hearing one call for help, F. F. Enright started to play the good Samaritan by going to the aid of the under man. As he approached both turned on him and held him up, relieving him of $10.

Later two men, who resembled the pair that robbed Enright rattled the door of a cafe on Alder street, and when the proprietor, N. Levine, answered the summons, asked if they could have some coffee and eggs. When Levine brought a plate of bread to their table, one of them thrust a revolver to his side and told him to be quiet. They relieved him of $205 in currency and escaped.

Two youthful holdups last night stole $18 from a groceryman.

STORK REPORTED CIRCLING ABOUT CHAPLIN'S HOME

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Dec. 5. (AP)—A report in motion picture circles that the stork is to make a second visit to the home of Charlie Chaplin, comedian, has been partly confirmed at the Chaplin studio.

"Well, this is just a little previous, isn't it?" the comedian countered in answer to queries. "We live in hopes, and I would be very happy if it were true. Come around a little later and we may have something to tell you. Mrs. Chaplin is the one to see, however."

GRAZING FEE ON WESTERN RANGES UP TO CONGRESS

Department of Agriculture Issues Statement of its New Policy

COST NOW TOO HIGH

Secretary Jardine Believes Considerable Latitude Should be Given

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5. (AP)—Opposition to conferring any "vested right" upon the present users of the western ranges was expressed in a statement today by the department of agriculture. It declared the policy upon which grazing fees are based should be settled by congress, and that a fair settlement of the differences existing between the stockmen and the forest service would not be difficult.

The adjustment of grazing to the "primary purpose of forest reserves, that of forest production and watershed protection," was declared to be the essential of any administrative system; but Secretary Jardine was said in the statement to desire to stabilize use of the national forest ranges as far as consistent with public interests. He would have no objection to legislation giving grazing a more definite legal status (Continued On Page Six)

NEGRO WIFE OF RHINELANDER IS WINNER OF SUIT

Jurors Decide against Wealthy Scion of Prominent New York Family

DECISION IS RESERVED

All But One of Questions Answered by Jury in Favor of Bride

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Dec. 5. (AP)—Leonard Kip Rhinelander, wealthy member of a New York family, lost his annulment suit against his mulatto wife, Alice Beatrice Jones, in a verdict returned today by the jury which heard the case.

Answers favorable to Mrs. Rhinelander were returned to all the questions except the first and seventh. The first, that of whether Mrs. Rhinelander was of colored blood at the time of the marriage, had been conceded as a fact by the defense during the trial. The jury made no answer to the seventh question: "Did the plaintiff cohabit with the defendant after he obtained full knowledge that the defendant was of colored blood?"

Did Not Deceive
The jury in its answer to the other five questions found that Mrs. Rhinelander did not deceive her husband, either positively or negatively, as to her negro blood; that she did not conceal this fact to induce the plaintiff to marry her, and that he would have married her even had he known she was of negro blood.

After he had received the jury's (Continued on Page Six)

Kiddies' Fund Receives More Welcome Help

Natatorium to Turn Over Wednesday's Receipts

Further donations to the Kiddies' Christmas fund, being sponsored by The Evening Herald, were announced today.

M. A. Mann, who conducts the Hot Springs natatorium, wanted to do his bit for the unfortunate youngsters.

"Name any day you wish, and I will turn over the entire receipts to the Kiddies' fund," was his generous offer.

So next Wednesday has been designated as the day, and an effort will be made to fill the natatorium all evening. People can enjoy a swim in the warm mineral water and at the same time help make this a brighter Christmas for the city's poor tots.

G. H. Carleton of Merrill desired to help, so he sent in his check for a dollar last evening. "We wish to do our bit for the kiddies' real his note of explanation.

K. Nelson, 109 South 7th St., brought a silver dollar into The Herald office and expressed the hope that the fund would grow enough to make it a real Christmas for every poor and deserving child in the city.

The Community Chest will not be able to use any part of its funds in buying toys for the youngsters, so The Herald's fund has the full support of officials of the Community Chest, and the investigating committee of that city-wide organization will furnish the names and addresses of all the poor youngsters which this fund will assist.

A group of high school students will aid in selling tickets next Wednesday for the Hot Springs natatorium, in order to do their part in assisting this worthy cause.

Railroads Get Extension For Filing Briefs

Additional Fifteen Days Granted By I. C. C.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 5. (AP)—An extension of fifteen days has been granted by the I. C. C. for the filing of briefs in the Klamath Falls railroad case. Ben C. Dey, attorney for the Southern Pacific, said the briefs would be filed with the I. C. C. December 15. The date originally set was December 1.

A hearing on the application of the Oregon Trunk for permission to extend from Bend to Klamath Falls was held in Portland early in October before Director of Finance Mahaffey, of the commission.

J. W. LILLIE IS NEW WARDEN FOR STATE'S PRISON

Governor Pierce Appoints Chief Deputy Following Long Conference

IS VETERAN OFFICER

Turmoil at Penitentiary Takes New Angle With Change in Executive

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 5.—J. W. Lillie was today appointed by Governor Pierce as warden of the state penitentiary to succeed A. M. Dalrymple. The change is effective at once.

Lillie has been deputy warden of the prison under Dalrymple and prior to that served as deputy under Johnson Smith, beginning his duties as deputy June 1, 1923. Dalrymple has been warden since October 8, 1923.

Immediately upon his appointment today Lillie announced the appointment of Captain W. E. Golden, a guard at the prison, as his deputy.

Dalrymple returned only last night from a month's trip to Jackson, Miss. where he attended a national prison conference, and a visit to the Wisconsin reformatory at Green Bay, and the Mississippi penitentiary at Parkman, his resignation, which was announced immediately after a conference with the governor early this morning, is considered a result of the prison break of August 12, in which two guards were killed, and subsequent publicity of an unfavorable nature relative to his administration of prison affairs.

Quits on Request
That Dalrymple resigned at the request of the governor is unquestioned here, and why the change was made immediately after Dalrymple had been sent on a long quest for prison information in the south is causing considerable quandary.

Prior to being appointed warden Dalrymple was commissary at the prison, a position which he also held about 20 years ago. He has been active in democratic politics in Oregon for years and under the Wilson administration was connected with the internal revenue service. Is Former Sheriff

Mr. Lillie, the new warden, was formerly sheriff of Gilliam county, and lived at Condon. He is a graduate of McMinnville college, now known as Linfield college.

Mr. Dalrymple, the outgoing warden, said today that he has made no plans for the future. He was appointed warden to succeed Johnson Smith when the latter was removed by the governor because of criticism leveled at the administration on account of many escapes from the penitentiary.

TRAINMAN IS KILLED

Another Believed Fatally Injured in Wreck on Burlington Railway

MARYVILLE, Mo., Dec. 5. (AP)—One trainman was killed and another probably fatally injured, when a Burlington railway wrecker was derailed while enroute from Creston, Iowa, to Boligow, where a freight train had been derailed earlier. The trainmen were scalded.
