COLLEGE LEAGUE TEA AT COLLIER HOME

THE HOME of Mrs. Alfred Collier was the scene of a College League tea on Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Collier, Mrs. R. E. Geary and Mrs. George Stephenson were joint hostesses. The Collier home was beautifully decorated with the queen of autumn flowers, chrysanthemums and the Christmas colors. Centering the tea table which was lovely with Dutch silver was a candelabra holding red candles and sprays of holly adorned the table. Each guest who called for tea was presented with an individual corsage of holly. Among the matrons calling were Mesdames Charles L. Roberts, George Wright, Glenn Jester, K. G. Cummings, E. H. Pike, John Boyle, Del Gammon, Warren Hunt, J. H. Carter, Charles Moore, Miss Florence Porter, Miss Margaret Worden and Miss Claire Calkins.
