Rocky Kansas to Battle Goodrich

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 7.—(AP)—The lightweight championship will be at stake when Jimmy Goodrich, the title holder, and Rocky Kansas, veteran challenger, step into the ring tonight. Both boxers are residents of Buffalo.

Goodrich got the lightweight crown by virtue of his successes in the tournament to choose a successor to Benny Leonard when he vacated the throne. Kansas has been a persistent contender for the title. In 1921 he made two unsuccessful efforts to wrest the championship from Leonard.

Red Grange To Become Actor

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Red Grange signed a motion picture contract today under which he received at once a flat guarantee of $300,000 for his first screen performance.

Grange's movie agreement, involving what was said to be a record sum for the first film appearance of any individual, was the high spot of an astonishingly profitable 24 hours following his sensational performance with the Chicago Bears in a professional football game against the New York Giants at the polo grounds yesterday.

Grange, according to his manager, C. C. Pyle, received $35,000 as his share of yesterday's gate receipts. Afterward he endorsed various articles of merchandise for a total return of $40,000, bringing his total earnings since leaving Illinois and turning professional close to $500,000.

AUTO GOES OVER GRADE; ONE DEAD

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 7.—William McClain, 45, an employe of Mt. Crest ranch, near Hill, Calif., was instantly killed and his companion, Geo. McMillan, was seriously injured when the car in which they were riding to Ashland skidded off the icy pavement in the Siskiyou yesterday and crashed fifty feet below, turning over three times in the fall.

McClain was crushed under the car. McMillan suffered a broken arm, dislocated shoulder and severe bruises about the head, but regained consciousness at the Ashland hospital this morning, and is given an even chance of recovery, by doctors in attendance.

Khar'kov, Russia—Russia is appealing for aid for thousands of homeless children, who "like packs of wolves haunt the streets of every large city." For their relief a one per cent tax on vodka is proposed.

Burglary Case Is Being Tried

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 7.—The trial of H. McElroy, charged with burglary at Gold Hill three weeks ago, will begin in the circuit court this afternoon and the chief witness against the defendant will be Richard Dunn, a 13 year old Oakland, Calif., boy, who is alleged to have been induced by McElroy to commit the burglaries. McElroy is about 27 years of age.

Dunn ran away from home and met McElroy at San Jose, Calif., the pair coming north, according to the boy's story to the police, finally getting to Gold Hill, where they were arrested.

GLASGOW, Ky.—Leslie Packett, after struggling in vain to start his coupe, lifted the hood and discovered that someone had stolen the motor.

SHIP FOURTEEN CARS OF CATTLE

Fourteen carloads of Klamath cows and steers, which were owned by the Liskey brothers of Merrill, were shipped yesterday to the Alisa & Pyle meat concern of San Francisco. The livestock was in excellent condition, having fattened on the abundant grasses of the Liskey ranch. The shipment was supervised and the deal consummated by Jack Hunt, local representative of the California Cattleman's association.

One Thin Woman Gained 10 Pounds In Twenty Days

Skinny Men Can Do the Same

That's going some—but skinny men, women and children just can't help putting on good, healthy flesh when they take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

As chock full of vitamins as the nasty, fishy tasting cod liver oil itself, but these sugar-coated, tasteless tablets are as easy to take as candy and won't upset the stomach.

One woman gained ten pounds in twenty-two days. Sixty tablets, sixty cents. Ask Underwood's Pharmacy, Star Drug Store, Whitman's Drug Co., or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Directions and formula on each box.

TENNANT ITEMS

Mr. J. M. Miller who has been visiting his brothers, left Monday for his home at Longview, Washington.

Messrs. Clay Parker and E. F. Miller are flu victims this week.

The women of the Wildwood guild held their annual election of officers Wednesday afternoon in the church library. The new officers are Mrs. O. O. Wingfield, president; Mrs. Alvan Opperud, vice president; Mrs. B. O. Gholson, secretary, and Mrs. Paul Henry, treasurer. These officers are to take their respective chairs the first Wednesday in January, 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Opperud and daughter Clarissa spent the weekend with relatives at Medford, Oregon, returning Sunday evening.

Walter S. Zimmerman and nephew W. E. Zimmerman, prominent machinery men of Portland, Oregon, were business visitors in camp during the week.

W. F. Horn, clothing salesman from Weed, was in camp on business the last of the week.

We were pleased to have among us the first of the week two men from Hollywood, California, who were sent out by the Universal Film company to find suitable location for making pictures. These men were accompanied by J. Z. Miller, Southern Pacific agent of Klamath Falls, and were delighted with our little camp, our wonderful woods and beautiful scenery, as it seemed an ideal place for the making of pictures.

The Universal Picture company will acquire and operate 1000 motion picture theaters throughout this country and will distribute Universal films through 134 theaters in Germany.

Mrs. F. M. Rice of McDoel, Cal., was at the home of Mrs. Alvan Opperud Thursday with a display of stamped goods, fancy articles and novelties for Christmas.

Mrs. W. D. Vance who has been very ill for the past three weeks is improving slowly.

Alva Herold, one of the railway conductors is down with the flu.

Emory McLaughlin who had his foot badly hurt in October, is getting along nicely and says he will soon be able to discard his crutches.

The entertainment given Friday night in the school auditorium by some of the Tenant young people, under the able direction of Mrs. F. S. Ford, was a grand success.

The first part, a comedy play in two acts, entitled "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone," was enacted by four girls; Maxine Harper, as the Irish Cook was a scream, and left nothing to the imagination; Elizabeth Gholson as the Dutch maid, was so in love with her "Adolph" that it rather interfered with her duties as maid; Miss Dorothy Murphy as Mrs. Oakley, and Pearl Murphy as her friend, Constance, played their parts exceedingly well. The telephone played a large part in the performance and when the Irish

Klamath Elks Hold Memorial

The Elks Memorial, held each year on the first Sunday in December, was attended by close to 300 residents of Klamath Falls, held Sunday at the Pine Tree theater.

Frank T. Wrightman of the Elks lodge number 336 at Salem gave the principal address using "The Creed of Fraternity" for his speech. Oscar Gingrich of Salem lodge number 336, a baritone singer, gave two numbers, "Danny Boy" and "Oh Song Divine." Lyman MacDonal, also of Salem, tenor, sang "There is No Death." Mrs. Elbert Veatch accompanied on the piano.

The lodge ritualistics were under the auspices of the local officers including Exalted Ruler C. S. Curran; W. W. McNeely, esteemed leading knight; O. W. Larson, esteemed loyal knight; Oliver Spiker, esteemed lecturing knight; Lynn Nesmith, esquire; E. S. Veatch, chaplain; Tom Dezell, secretary; Jack Gove, tyler; O. D. Mathews, inner guard.

The committee in charge were H. S. Mathews, Lynn Nesmith and W. O. Smith.
