

FAMED FIDDLER VISITING FORD

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 9.—Dunham, champion fiddler, who arrived with his wife from Norway, Maine, late yesterday to visit Henry Ford, was at the Dearborn country club today.

The fiddler and his wife, who have been attracting much notice since he was invited to come to Detroit, were waiting to be told the plans Mr. Ford had for their entertainment while in the city. Before retiring early last night Dunham said that he was as much ignorant of the program for his visit as the general public and the only announcement vouchsafed by the Ford organization was that there might be a statement issued by Mr. Ford today.

Arriving late yesterday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Dunham were met at the railroad station by an assistant secretary from Mr. Ford's personal staff. He whisked them into an automobile and started them for Dearborn, completely ignoring a corps of newspapermen who had journeyed all the way from Maine with the couple.

The fiddler, his fiddle under one arm and a pair of snowshoes under the other, was taken directly to the Ford offices at Dearborn, where they were shown through the plant and where they met Mr. Ford. The only report of the meeting was that given by Dunham last night. He said Mr. Ford said he was "glad to see him," and the fiddler returned the greeting and presented him with the snowshoes he had made for him.

Ford then, according to Dunham's report, given over the telephone from the country club, told them he wanted them to have a good rest and sent them to the Dearborn country club. The fiddler was loud in his praise of the "supper" he had at the club last night, asserting it was the best one he had ever eaten, and was highly appreciative of the attention he was being given.

Postal Clerk Was First To Propose Seals

Just twenty-one years ago an obscure postal clerk in Denmark conceived the idea of a decorative stamp to be placed on Christmas mail as a means of raising funds for a hospital for tuberculous children. A few years later the first Christmas seals that were sold in the United States raised $2,000 for the purchase of a sanatorium site in Delaware. Last year, 1924, the sale brought approximately $4,500 into the coffers of the 1500 organizations affiliated with the national body, with 1,250,000,000 seals printed for the National association.

Again the little seals that bear "Merry Christmas and Good Health" are coming into our homes by mail on letters and packages, to further strengthen the great campaign against one of the world's greatest scourges. Candy counters, cigar counters, hotel desks, stores, hotel lobbies, post office lobbies and all places public have the seals for sale.

During the twenty-one years this seal has helped to finance hundreds of local state and national campaigns to secure hospitals, sanatoriums, clinics and dispensaries. At least 20,000 public health nurses are at work in the schools and homes to educate children and parents in the rules of healthful living. In this way minor physical defects are detected and, because of early treatment a physical breakdown in later life with tuberculosis or some other serious disease is often prevented. All the large cities throughout the United States have the open-air schools, preventoria and nutrition classes where the children of tuberculous parents and others below par are brought back to normal weight and strength. At the present time there are approximately 3,000 such institutions in this country. The Christmas seal has made possible the modern health crusade, the largest child-health movement in the world, through which 8,000,000 school children have been taught daily habits of cleanliness, diet, exercise and rest so that they may develop into robust men and women.

So just remember when you buy the little gummed stickers, to do so with a smile and happy heart, knowing that in doing so, you are participating in an investment in individual and community health. More than that, we become a part of the message of hope which the seal carries to the many thousands who otherwise become victims of a preventable and curable disease. In all truth, the mission of this little Christmas seal is "Joyous Health."

PRISON GUARDS TO BE CHANGED

Morale at State Penitentiary to be Bettered by new Warden

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 9.—All of those changes recommended by Governor Pierce prison investigation committee that are found to be practicable under existing financial conditions are to be carried out under his administration of the state penitentiary, J. W. Lillie, appointed Saturday to succeed A. M. Dalrymple as warden, declared in an interview this morning. In addition, the new warden has under consideration several changes and reforms of his own that will be put into effect as rapidly as circumstances will permit. There will be no general revolution of methods and practices inaugurated in a day, but the new warden has a very definite goal of standards for the conduct of the institution in mind, and he says he intends to keep plugging away until they are realized.

Strict discipline in handling the prisoners and stronger morale among the guards are the two objectives Lillie has in mind for the immediate present. As the reorganization progresses younger and more physically active men are to be selected as guards, and strict attention to their business at all times is to be insisted upon.

"There is to be no politics played in the selection of guards," said Lillie. "Wherever it is possible to get them I want young men who are physically fit, preferably between 20 and 35 years old. The job of organizing them into an efficient body, ready to function at all times and in any emergency will be handled by Captain Golden, who will be responsible for their conduct. They will be thoroughly drilled, and target practice once a week will be required."

One practice that has been general in the past, and noted in the investigating committee's report, is going to be stamped out immediately, the warden announced.

LONGFELLOWS TO ELECT OFFICERS

Election of officers and directors of the Longfellows club, No. 6, of Klamath Falls will take place this evening at 7:30 at the chamber of commerce.

Some 25 members are expected to be present, all of whom are six feet in height or over.

R. E. Patterson has been chosen as song leader of the club and songs will be adopted at the meeting tonight.

It has been definitely decided that the club will hold its meetings on the second Wednesday of each month, with the annual meeting to be held on the second Wednesday in December.

Benjamin Ostlund, president of the Longfellows club for the state of Oregon, wired the local club that he will be unable to attend the meeting.

DORRIS

DORRIS, Calif., Dec. 8.—In addition to the Topsy Lumber company's extensive building program here, which includes a sawmill and planing-mill, several new residences are in progress of construction. This is a condition not enjoyed by Dorris for many years and is taken as evidence of new growth and prosperity by local residents. L. D. Stephenson is the principal contributor to the housing problem relief by virtue of having built one new, modern bungalow and made plans for several others, which will be built during the first of next year.

Roy N. Fuch, a contractor of Klamath Falls, has just finished constructing a number of concrete cistern tanks and cess-pools in Dorris for banks and houses and residences.

Mink farming, the newest of local industries, was instituted recently by H. M. Hackman. Mink raising is a very lucrative business if properly conducted. Mr. Hackman considers this locality particularly adapted to the business and intends increasing his supply of animals materially in the near future. He is beginning with eleven selected mink as breeders.

J. R. Clemmens, a farmer of this section, is seriously ill with rheumatism in the Warren Hunt hospital at Klamath Falls. Mr. Clemmens has suffered recurrences of this dread disease for many years and he has the sympathy of all those who know him.

Duck hunting in the marshes of the Oklahoma district is reported exceptionally good by those followers of the sport who have ventured into the tules recently in quest of the feathered tribe.

A new residence is being built for Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dennis, who recently purchased the Dorris Meat market. They expect to be at home in their new habitation some time in January.

Officers of Dorris Lodge No. 88, Knights of Pythias, were elected Friday evening for 1926. W. G. Hagelstein, cashier of the Butte Valley

PINEHURST

Beautiful bright days are being enjoyed at Pinehurst.

Lester and David DeArmond and Dr. Hanes were in Klamath county recently on a duck hunt.

Mrs. Alice Coppack and son, Charles, of Merrill, were in Pinehurst Saturday on business.

Charles Elliott and sons went to Weed on day this week looking for work.

Mr. Hessig of Klamath Hot Springs passed thru Pinehurst Monday, with a large herd of dairy cows, which he purchased in Rogue River valley. He expects to go into the dairy business quite extensively.

Mrs. Harold Edsall of Chasco, Cal., was visiting in the neighborhood recently.

W. A. Perkins of the "Square Deal Grocery" is working in a meat shop at Hornbrook.

Mrs. C. W. DeCarlow was in Ashland one day recently on business in connection with the reestablishing the Pinehurst postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester DeArmond ate Thanksgiving dinner with relatives in Ashland.

Archie Grievs of lower Jenny creek was in Pinehurst recently. He and his daughter expect to leave soon for Davis, Calif., to spend the winter.

Among those who ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. DeCarlow were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Koller of Central Point, Miss Mildred Mellon of Ashland, Miss Irma DeCarlow of Medford, W. V. Harris of Kerby, and Leland DeCortier of Ashland.

Is Reappointed to Conciliation Board

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 9.—Governor Pierce today appointed J. K. Flynn of Portland to succeed himself as a member of the state board of conciliation. He represents the employers. His new term begins January 1 and expires in four years.

ROTARIANS GATHER
EUGENE, Ore., Dec. 9.—Rotarians from Eugene and Roseburg joined last evening in a jollification meeting here. Women of Rotary were present to aid in the fun-making.

A debate was held by radio recently. What a fine way to argue with someone you can't swip.

added Economy

Better Buick operating costs are very low. This car is thrifty—both in purchase price and in ownership.

Buick design protects all operating parts from dust and wear—barricades them with iron or steel housings in the famous Buick "Sealed Chassis" and "Triple Sealed Engine".

The famous Buick Valve-In-Head engine develops more power from a given quantity of gasoline than other types of engines.

And now, the Buick oil filter makes it necessary to change crankcase oil only at rare intervals.

Even smaller, less powerful cars do not match the Better Buick in low cost of operation and maintenance. You add to your power to economize when you buy a Better Buick!

At the PINE TREE

Have you ever made a motor trip across the continent?

If you have, or if you haven't, for that matter Reginald Denny demonstrates how it should be done in "California Straight Ahead," the feature at the Pine Tree theatre tonight.

With the unusual situations presented in a transcontinental motor trip, Denny and his director, Harry Pollard, have managed to make "California Straight Ahead" possibly the most entertaining of Denny's recent series of feature farce comedies.

Traveling in a palatial bungalow-on-wheels, Denny, in the role of a fitted suitor, attempts "to forget" by journeying across the country by motor. Instead of finding solitude and peace, he finds everything else, including his ex-fiancee, various accidents and mishaps, a storm in which several wild animals escape and invade an auto camp, and numerous other diverting things.

ABERDEEN WOMAN FOUND MURDERED

Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 9.—Mrs. James Chapman was murdered in her room in an Aberdeen hotel about 1 o'clock this morning. Her throat was cut, apparently with a safety razor blade. Her husband was arrested and is being held pending an investigation.
