MISS ROBINS HOME

Miss Marguerite Robins, who has been a patient at Klamath Valley hospital for the past two weeks, where she submitted to a major operation for appendicitis, was able to return to her home on Sunday. After Miss Robins has recovered sufficiently from the operation to travel she will go south for the remainder of the winter months. Her many friends in Klamath Falls will be pleased to learn of her improved condition.

RETURNS FROM NORTH

Clara Emswiler who has been enjoying a month's visit in a number of northern points and coast cities, returned to Klamath Falls last evening and plans to remain here with relatives.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

Start Bright and Early This Morning For Keno on Hike

A party of the younger set, all high school girls, left this morning for Keno on an all-day hike, garbed in their hiking costumes and carrying their lunches. At Keno the girls built a large camp fire and cooked their noon day meal. Mrs. Harry Whitman motored out this afternoon and brought the girls back to the city. Those making the trip were Misses Marie Crystal, Jennie Grover, Ruth Coffey, Dorothy Dryden, Hilda McCall, Joyce Bennett and Mrs. Donn Fisher and Mr. F. R. Bennett. During the holidays the girls plan a number of these parties, all determined to keep their girlish figures.

BICYCLE RACE TODAY

Four Local Scouts to Ride to Bonanza and Back to Pass Tests

Four local boy scouts who are hoping to secure their merit badges in the cycle contest, Merle Swanson, Joe Kirk, Elmer Wilkerson and Lee Hunter, left this morning on their wheels for Bonanza. Upon reaching the neighboring town the boys will drop a post card to Scout Executive E. O. Nord telling him of their arrival there. They then will turn around and cycle back to the city, taking their wheels apart and then putting them back together again to pass the inspection test given by R. L. Fulkerson. To receive the merit badge the boys have to ride a distance of 50 miles.
