

E. F. CARLETON LEAVES
After spending several days in Klamath visiting with his many friends here, E. F. Carleton, former city schools superintendent of Eugene and now connected with the faculty at the University of Oregon, returned to Eugene this afternoon. He was to have spoken before the chamber of commerce forum luncheon yesterday noon, but owing to the spinal meningitis epidemic, the meeting was postponed. He made two addresses, one at Malin and the other at Merrill.

FROM FT. KLAMATH
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days here visiting friends. Mr. Page is owner of a large ranch in the Wood River valley country.

MRS. GERBER RETURNED
Mrs. Louis Gerber has returned to the city from Portland where she spent a delightful week, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin. While in the northern city she was the inspiration for a number of delightful affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are former residents of Klamath Falls, where Mr. Martin was in the banking business.

YEOMEN HAVE SUPPER
With over 40 members included in its ranks, the brotherhood of American Yeomen are fast coming to the front in Klamath Falls, according to L. V. Stockner, head of the local order. Last Saturday evening the members enjoyed an oyster supper and dancing followed.

Mainly . About . People

MRS. WORDEN ANNOUNCES
Mrs. A. M. Worden made an announcement today that no missionary meeting of the ladies of the First Presbyterian church will be held this week. This afternoon the society was to have met.

BUD WHIPPLE LEAVES
Bud Whipple of the Shell Oil company, left this morning for Portland to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

MRS. POOLE RETURNS
Mrs. Harry Poole returned last evening from San Francisco, where she has been since the Thanksgiving holidays, visiting with her daughter, Miss Eleanor Torrey.

FROM O. A. C.
Miss Bertha Peltz and Harry Peltz, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peltz will arrive the last of the week from Oregon Agricultural college, where they are attending school, to remain here over the holidays.

MAY MORDOFF EXPECTED
The latter part of the week when college boys and girls begin to arrive in the city to spend the holiday season with their parents, Miss May Mordoff is expected home from the University of Oregon, to be with her parents over Christmas and New Years.

BETTY MANNING COMING
Miss Betty Manning, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. H. Manning, is among the University of Oregon students arriving the last of the week to spend the Christmas holidays here with her parents and friends.

GOES NORTH
Miss Sarah Polson, one of the teachers at Central school left this morning for northern Oregon, to spend the holiday season with relatives and friends.

LEAVES FOR HOLLYWOOD
"Bob" Coyne, owner of Edgewood ranch left this morning for Hollywood, where he will spend the holidays. He was accompanied as far as Sacramento by J. Frank Adams, who plans to spend some weeks in the capital city. Before leaving Mr. Coyne stated that he had completed arrangements for his application for water rights for the irrigation of his ranch.

GOES TO INDEPENDENCE
Miss Helene Jones left this morning for Independence, Oregon, where she will enjoy the Christmas holidays with her parents and friends. Miss Jones is a teacher at the Central school and will return to the city shortly after the first of the year.

WONT MEET IN 1925
"There will be no more meetings of the four different groups of the campfire girls until 1926." This was the statement today given out by Mrs. A. L. Rice. It is thought best not to have anymore gatherings of the girls on account of the meningitis epidemic and early January will find them again active in their work. Mrs. V. E. Parker, Mrs. A. L. Rice and Mrs. Paul Jackson are in charge of the various groups.

RETURNING FROM SOUTH
Mrs. Louis Porter and youngsters are returning this coming week from southern California, arriving home in time for the Christmas holidays. Mr. Porter plans to motor south for his family within the next few days.

MORRISON'S LEAVING
Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Morrison are leaving tomorrow for Raymond, Washington, where they will visit until after the first of the new year, the guests of Mrs. Morrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coats. Christmas day marks the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Morrison. While in Washington they expect to visit in Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane.

MISS DUNBAR SURPRISED
A number of the close friends of Miss Edna Dunbar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar of 120 Jefferson, surprised her at the family home last evening, the occasion being her birthday. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening at the conclusion of which refreshments were served. Among those honoring Miss Dunbar were Misses Dehila Hawkins, Dorothea Hawkins, Joy Miller, Pauline Adamson, Charlotte Grover, Jennie Grover, Bonnah May and Eda Jones; Ren Hollister, Ralph Adamson, Ray Wakeman, Earl Mack, John Hawkins, Clinton Hamaker, Robert Oliver, Irvin Keller and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar.

THE WEATHER
The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows the pressure to have been falling for the last 24 hours and at noon today had reached a "low" of 29.80. Indications are for high winds tonight followed by a storm. Forecast for next 24 hours: Cloudy and unsettled with brisk southerly winds. Probably rain or snow.

The Tycoos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:
High.....44 Low.....29

U. S. Weather Report
Oregon: rain west, rain or snow east portion tonight and Friday. Normal temperature, fresh southerly winds, becoming gales along the coast.

KERNS TO KENO
In the interests of his land holdings in the Keno district, J. W. Kerns left this morning for the neighboring town to spend the day.

NEWSOM TO EUGENE
John D. Newsom, brother of Dr. G. S. Newsom, left this morning for Eugene on business and pleasure. He recently returned from an extended business visit at Port Orford, Coos Bay and a number of coast points.

FROM LONGVIEW
Alex Hay, of Longview, Washington, here on business matters is among the guests registered at the hotel White Pelican today.

MOTHER PROVINCIAL HERE
Greatly Impressed with Rapid Progress Being Made at Academy

The Mother Provincial of the Order of St. Francis, the Sisters of which community are conducting the Sacred Heart academy in this city, has been here for the past two days on business connected with the affairs of the institution. She expects to leave in the morning for her home in Pendleton, where the Mother House is located. She expressed herself as greatly pleased with the progress that the Academy is making and indicated that if the attendance continues to increase it will be necessary to add a substantial addition before the opening of the school year in 1926.

TROOPS TO HIKE
Troops one and four of the boy scouts in company with their scoutmasters and Scout Executive E. O. Nord are leaving for the Sand Pit tomorrow evening at six-thirty where they will cook their evening meal. Friday is the regular meeting night of the two troops and due to the fact that no indoor meetings are being held during the meningitis epidemic the boys are looking forward to the hike. Each scout will bring his own food supplies and be at the chamber of commerce promptly at six-thirty.

HARGUS FROM U. OF O.
Buford Hargus, local boy, who is a student at the U. of O. plans to spend the holidays here with relatives and friends. With a number of other college boys, Buford will arrive here on Saturday.

DR. LAMB LEAVES
Dr. E. D. Lamb, accompanied by his wife, has departed for Portland to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends. They made the trip by motor.

MISS LEAVITT SOUTH
Miss Maybelle Leavitt left this morning for southern California where she will visit over the holidays. In Los Angeles, Miss Leavitt will be the house guest of her sister, Mrs. F. V. Robinson.

GOES TO MEDFORD
Miss Ethel Pearson left yesterday for Medford where she will be with her sister, Miss Vera Pearson. Miss Pearson was employed at the Blue Bird while here.

ROTARY TO MEET
Will Hold Luncheon at Chamber of Commerce Office Friday

Due to the fact that most all of the members of the Rotary club eat their noon meal in the restaurants about the city, the members will hold their weekly luncheon on Friday at the chamber of commerce according to announcement made today.

FOREIGN REGISTRATIONS
W. W. Woodbury of Lodi, Calif., W. M. Jackson of Susanville, Calif., and A. P. Chisom of Toppenish, registered as out of the state tourists at the chamber of commerce office today.

RESIDENTS OF KIRKFORD
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller, residents of Kirkford, Oregon, arrived here yesterday to spend a few days Christmas shopping and attending to business interests.

GOING FOR HOLIDAYS
De Less Mills and Martin Ramsey of O. A. C. are expected some this week and to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents. Wade Rowe also of O. A. C., whose home is in Sacramento is expected with De Less Mills to be his guest over the holidays.

LEFT THIS MORNING
Mrs. William Maguire, Sr., left this morning for Ashland from which point she took the Southern Pacific for Portland enroute to Seattle to spend the coming two months with her two daughters, William, Jr., will join his mother and sisters in the coast city, coming from Spokane where he is a student at Gonzaga.

LEAVING SATURDAY MORNING
Seven scout masters and the scout executive of Klamath Falls are planning to leave here early Saturday morning on a "ski party" for Crater Lake. They plan to return to Klamath Falls on Sunday evening. Reports from the park are to the effect they will have use for their skis as the snow is plentiful. Saturday night they will camp on Anna Creek, hitting the ski trail early Sunday morning for the park.

MISS ULRICH TO COME
Miss Katherine Ulrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ulrich, is expected home Saturday from the University of Oregon to spend the coming fortnight here. Miss Ulrich is one of the most active girls on the campus at the university.

NORD AWAY
Scout Executive E. O. Nord left this morning for Merrill and Malin on scout business matters. At Merrill, Nord will confer with Jim Seogins, scout master, in the matter of reorganizing the Merrill troop which has fifteen boys. A new troop will be formed at Malin, with Rev. Joseph Mikaseak in charge. Mr. Nord will return to the city tomorrow forenoon.

BRIEF TRIP SOUTH
Rollin Rodolph, accountant of Sacramento, who spends a good portion of his time here on business, plans to make a brief trip south soon and will return here to spend at least two months.

PINE TREE Theatre

ON THE STAGE

Margie & Co.
in
'Music as you Like it'

Price & Gilmore
in
'Advice to the Lovelorn'

Roulette Trio
in
'Sensational Surprises'

Huyler & Carmen
in
'Wait 'til the Scandal'

Bert Clinton
in
'The Larry Semon of Vaudeville'

ON THE SCREEN

"THE DARK SWAN"
from the famous Ernest Pascal Novel with Marie Prevost, Monte Blue and Helene Chadwick starring.

Two full shows each evening

Vaudeville
7:15 and 9:15

At The LIBERTY

The kind of a picture that will hold you spellbound—

"The Trouble Shooter"

with your favorite star, TOM MIX.

Saturday Only
Hoot Gibson in
"Hurricane Kid"

ELLIOTT GIRLS HOME
The Misses Florence and Clarice Elliott, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Elliott, who are attending school in Eugene, will arrive home on Saturday for the holiday season. Miss Florence is attending the university while Miss Clarice is in high school in the northern city.

NO SERVICES SUNDAY
Local Clergymen to Abandon Church Gatherings in City

Pastors in the churches of Klamath Falls with the exception of the Christian Scientists, will not hold Sunday services, in an attempt to help fight the epidemic of spinal meningitis, was the word of the various clergymen of the city today.

If the epidemic still appears serious during Christmas week, Christmas services will be abandoned as well. This, however, will be decided within the coming week.

MOTORING IN SOUTH
Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Trux and Mrs. Sarah Gowen are among the local people enjoying a motor trip through southern California. They are expected to return within the next few days.

JOHNSON TRIAL OPENS
W. E. Johnson, charged with possession of intoxicating liquor on the 5th of December, went on trial this afternoon in justice court before Acting Justice of the Peace R. A. Emmitt. Johnson was arrested by City Patrolman Ross H. Brown.

APPLES

Newtowns and Jonathans
$1.50 a box

TOMATOES—

SOLID PACK, 2 cans for 25c
Case, $275; 2 doz. 2 1/2 size cans

WE HANDLE EGG MASH, MIN Run, Bran, Rolled Barley, Rye, Wheat, Cracked Corn, Ground Corn and Whole Corn, Oat, Oyster Shell, Charcoal, Alfalfa Chop and Super-sold Butter Milk.

Complete Line of Staple Groceries.
Anchor and Crater Lake Flour

We protect our customers on sugar

Anderson Transfer & Grocery

335 South Sixth St. Phone 795
Four Trucks for General Hauling

CANDY

Christmas without sweets is like Spring without flowers! Something's wrong!

For the children, of course, Christmas means a tree, toys and CANDY!

The precious little people want to freely indulge. It is your responsibility to see that they get only the best and purest candies.

If you want a wide assortment of the purest candy, come in and place your order today.

Each individual order made up separately!

in any quantity you wish. Only cakes for the Christmas tree.

Chocolate Shop P. J. ZISSOS, Proprietor

MRS. NOEL BETTER

After being confined to her home for the past three days with an attack of tonsillitis, Mrs. Paul Noel was able to be about yesterday.

DELPHIAN CLUB

Will Not Meet Until Early January According to Announcement

Delta Gamma, the local chapter of the Delphian Society, will not hold their December meeting on the 22nd as planned, but will wait until the holiday season is over. January fifth they will convene in the sun room of the hotel White Pelican.

YREKA BUSINESS CALLER

R. W. Gordon of Yreka, California, made a short business visit in Klamath Falls over Wednesday, returning south this morning.

BURNS TO EUGENE

J. D. Burns left this morning for Eugene where he is planning to remain for the coming two months visiting with relatives and friends.

FROM MERRILL ROAD

Miss L. M. Gober of Merrill road is in the city today doing Christmas shopping.

LAWSON HERE

C. W. Lawson, brother-in-law of Harry Poole, proprietor of the Pine Tree theater, arrived in the city last evening with Mrs. Poole from San Francisco and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Poole for several days. Mr. Lawson is a retired business man of Michigan and plans to return south to Oakland this coming week.

OLENE RANCHER

Clarence Adams, one of Olene's well known ranchers, spent the day here on a shopping and business trip.

MALIN MERCHANT

V. Piasil, merchant of Malin, transacted business affairs in the city today.

SENATOR McCULLOUGH HERE

Former Senator Charles McCulloch of Portland arrived in Klamath Falls last evening to transact legal matters. McCulloch is one of the prominent attorneys of this state. During his visit here he is at the hotel White Pelican.

The Thoughtful Gift

—Valuable —Useful
—Lasting —Appropriate
—Beautiful
—Practical

and not too expensive
—nor hard to find at

Link River Electric
Seventh at Klamath