"A GENEROUS deed, a kind word, a nod of recognition, a smile of encouragement—these are the jewels which anyone may pluck from the round bowl of time and bestow upon his fellowman. Thrice blessed of God is he who gives, and truly blessed is he who receives these jewels when days are dark or bright."

It has not been so many years since little girls were told it was very "vain" for them to look at themselves in the glass and were thereupon instructed to look up certain scriptural quotations on the subject of vanity. As a matter of fact, however, it is vanity only in every case which tempts us to gaze earnestly at our reflections and urges us to make the best of what beauty we possess and to improve ourselves if possible.

There is a decided distinction between vanity and self respect and there should be no mistake in regard to the definition of the terms. I for one, am decidedly of the opinion that our self-respect leads us to keep ourselves sweet and clean and to be as lovely as possible externally as well as internally. "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" and its moral lesson you have already found out if you have ever attempted slum visiting in any of the larger cities. Personally I believe that cleanliness promotes Godliness.

Since we are to inhabit our bodies for a lifetime we certainly should be expected to keep our abode as attractive and wholesome as can be.

It is sheer carelessness for a woman to neglect her appearance. It is an important asset in either a professional or domestic career and I think women are beginning to realize that more every day. It is no evidence of vanity to be well-groomed. It is a sign of good breeding not only to be appropriately dressed but to be well manufactured and well kept in regard to hair and complexion and all the details which go to make up the toilet of the careful woman.

We cannot be prodigal of our good looks and when you are fortunate in possessing them you should certainly try to preserve them. It is not entirely vanity, is it, which leads us to ward off the threatened attacks of "Father Time." Or, if so, it is vanity distinctly to be encouraged for there is nothing like a youthful face to keep a woman young in spirit. A row of wrinkles and flabby cheeks greeting one in the glass are enough to make any woman age in spirit as well as outwardly.

MISS JOAN McDONALD BRIDE OF TOMORROW NOON

At high noon tomorrow, Miss Joan McDonald will become the bride of Mr. Leland Willits at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Rice will perform the ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the popular young couple. Miss McDonald will be attended by Miss Grace Hoagland while Mr. Stanley Hajeck will attend Mr. Willits. Immediately following the wedding ceremony a wedding dinner will be held at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald on Eleventh and Walnut.

Miss McDonald is one of the city's most charming and attractive young women and since the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Willits has been the inspiration for a number of social affairs.

After a honeymoon trip to Portland and other coast cities they will be at home to their friends on Eleventh and Walnut.

A. N. W. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. JENNIE HURN

Mrs. Jennie Hurn was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the matrons of the A. N. W. club. Regular business was taken up and during this session, Mrs. George Ulrich was elected to membership in the club. The remainder of the afternoon was spent with fancy work. At four-thirty the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Among the matrons present were Mrs. Wilbur Jones, Mrs. Rufus Moore, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. C. Ramsby, Miss Elizabeth McCurdie, Mrs. E. Powell, Mrs. Grubb and the hostess.

MISS EDNA DUNBAR HONORED BY FRIENDS

On Wednesday evening Miss Edna Dunbar was delightfully surprised at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar on Jefferson, when a number of her friends gathered to honor her birthday. The evening was spent with games and music at the conclusion of which a buffet supper was served. Among those honoring Miss Dunbar were the Misses Dehila Hawkins, Dorothea Hawkins, Joy Miller, Pauline Adamson, Charlotte Grover, Jennie Grover, Beulah Ray and Edna Jones. Messrs. Ralph Adamson, Ray Wakiman, Earl Mack, John Hawkins, Kinton Hamaker, Robert Oliver, Irvin Keller and Ren Hollister.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE MARRIAGE OF MISS FRANCES O. RANDLIN

Mr. Warren C. Bennett on Christmas day was made this week. The bride-elect is a Portland girl and for the past several years has taught school at Summers. Mr. Bennett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Parker of Crescent avenue and is manager of the People's Warehouse of this city.

MISS JOAN McDONALD COMPLETED WITH PARTY

In compliment to Miss Joan McDonald, one of December's bride-elects, whose marriage to Mr. Leland Willits will be an event of tomorrow at high noon, Mrs. Floyd McMillan was hostess on Wednesday evening with a prettily appointed dinner party at her home in The Sunset. The table appointments were carried out in yellow. The center piece was an artistic basket of opelia roses. Garlands of green were spread about the center piece. The nut cups were wed yellow tulips and tall cathedral candles of yellow were held in crystal holders. Hand decorated place cards in tones of yellow marked the seats for the six guests. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Noel, Miss Margaret Grace Johnston, Miss Pansy Robertson, Mrs. Helene Breitenstein, Miss Joan McDonald and the hostess, Mrs. McMillan.

Since the announcement of her engagement, Miss McDonald has been the inspiration for a number of affairs given by her many friends. Bridge and music passed the evening hours following the dinner.

WITH MISS MARY BALL ON MONDAY EVENING

Monday evening marks the annual Christmas party of the Kedron club. Miss Mary Ball will be hostess to the club at her home. A Christmas program has been arranged and a gift exchange will be one of the features of the evening.

COLLEGE SET RETURNING TO CITY FOR HOLIDAYS

Just a few short months ago found a number of the young people of the city wending their way to college. Homes were a bit lonely with the departure of these loved ones, who were off to school to further their education.

Now these same homes are gladdened with the return of these young folks, who are welcomed back home, here to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends.

Today found a number of the young set arriving in the city, including Katherine Ulrich, Betty Manning, May Mordoff, Bertha Peltz, Nell Elliott, Veronica McAndrews, Leah Beall and Esid Light, both of Lakeview, Florence and Clarice Elliott, Katherine Doty, Ruth Newton, Chas. Johnston, Buford Hargus, Delos Mills, Martin Ramsby, Harry Peltz, Richard Maguire, Lynn Horton, Robert Kuykendall, Noah Truax, Wellman Clark, Bruce Jeffers, and Hope Gordon.

YOUNGER SET TO BE GUESTS AT JONES HOME

The younger set are looking forward to the Christmas parties on Monday and Wednesday evening of this coming week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Jones, when their daughter Miss Martha and Miss Hillis McCall will be hostesses to some seventy of the high school set.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. McCall will act as patron and patronesses for the affairs.

HENDERSON GIVES DINNER PARTY AT HOTEL PELICAN

Honoring the employees of the Klamath Development Company, Mr. T. P. Henderson was host with a dinner party on Tuesday evening at the Hotel White Pelican. Centering the prettily appointed table was a silver basket of Charles Russell roses. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Montelius, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Montelius, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sabo, Jr., Mrs. C. S. Currin, Jay Calzek and the host, T. P. Henderson.

BUSINESS WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Mrs. Irma Dixon was elected to serve as president of the Business and Professional Women's club for the year Nineteen Hundred and twenty-six, at the meeting of the club held on Monday evening at the hotel White Pelican. At the hour of six-thirty members of the club gathered in the dining room of the hostelry for dinner after which they adjourned to the sun room where the business meeting of the club and the annual election of officers was held. To serve with Mrs. Dixon this coming year, Mrs. Ebba Bennett was chosen vice president, Mrs. L. Parker secretary and Mrs. Lena Dennis treasurer. A committee composed of Mrs. Gertrude Moore, Mrs. Lena Dennis and Miss Ida Momyer will act as a permanent library committee room of the library have been completed.

Campus Cut

Leave it to the collegians to think of something new! At the University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore., the girls are wearing sweaters with gay scenes painted on the back. This co-ed maintains that the scene on the back of hers represents the spirit of the campus.

INSTALLATION OF STAR OFFICERS TUESDAY EVE

A LOHA chapter No. 61 of the A. O. E. S. will meet in regular session on Tuesday evening, December twenty-second, at eight o'clock in the Maconic hall. Installation of officers for the ensuing year will take place.

Ella McMillan will act as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. Kate Peyton as marshal and Mrs. Alma Cofer will preside at the piano. A musical program with instrumental and vocal numbers will follow installation.

INVITATIONS ISSUED FOR PARTY NEW YEARS EVE

Invitations for the annual New Years party of the Pelican Community club have been issued. The affair which gives promise of being one of the outstanding social events of the Christmas holiday season will be held in the Community club house on Thursday evening, December 31, 1925.

The program includes: Dancing, Galloway's orchestra, nine to twelve; party, vaudeville, courtesy Pine Tree theater; refreshments, favors, novelties.

LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT

On Sunday evening the musical concert at the hotel White Pelican was attended by several parties of local people including Mr. and Mrs. Horace Manning, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White Delzell, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bedford, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Albertson.

That local music lovers are enjoying the concerts given each Sunday evening at the hostelry is proven by the attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bradford and daughter, Maryellen, are to spend the holidays in Sacramento and San Francisco. In San Francisco they will be the guests of Mr. Bradford's mother.

Society Personals

Mrs. Louis Gerber has returned from Portland where for the past fortnight she has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Martin. While north she was the inspiration for a number of delightful social affairs.

Miss Leah Beall and Miss Esid Light, who are attending college at Corvallis are the week end guests of Miss Margaret Grace Johnston enroute home to Lakeview, where they will spend the holidays with their parents.

Mrs. Myrtle Helm and Mrs. Laura Alice Willis are enjoying their Christmas vacation in southern California with relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. V. Fisher is spending the holiday season with her daughter Constance at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Gammon and daughter Nancy, are south for the holidays, the guests of Mrs. Gammon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Russell Reed of Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Peltz, who are spending the winter in San Francisco, and their daughter and son, Bertha and Harry, students at O. A. C. will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, over the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ramsby and son Martin, accompanied by S. E. Martin, are motoring to Oakland for the Christmas holidays where they will join Mrs. S. E. Martin and children and Miss Betty Ramsby.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard will spend Christmas at Walla Walla, Washington, with relatives and friends.

Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes and children expect to spend Christmas and New Years in Newberg, Oregon, with relatives and friends.

Paul Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Keller, who is established in business in Portland, will spend the holidays here with his parents and friends. Mr. Keller is arriving in the city on Tuesday.

MODES OF THE MOMENT FOR THE SMART WOMAN

The increasing simplicity of women's costumes is brought vividly to us in a leaflet that is being distributed by a firm of manufacturers showing the use in 1900 of eighteen and twenty-seven inch materials; in 1910, thirty-six inches, in 1915 forty inches and in 1924, fifty-four inches.

A new gown by Jenny shows a godet inserted at the shoulder and falling the length of the gown.

The small high collar is often trimmed with velvet and closed with little bows, ties or ends.

A rep evening coat seen recently has a detachable mole lining.

A striking ensemble uses navy blue leather for the coat, with a tailored coat dress of blue gray kasha. The kasha also lines the coat.

Jewelry fashioned after that used in George Washington's day is very popular this season. It is reproduced in brass and vari-colored stones and mounted delicately in silver.
