$1,000,000 Is Goal of Suit Filed by U. S.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 23.—(AP)—The United States government thru William W. Wilson, alien property custodian, today brought suit to gain possession of the entire estate of E. Henry Wemme, who died, leaving half of his $1,000,000 estate to heirs in Germany and the other half to charity to be administered through the Christian Science church.

The estate has been in litigation for years, and the supreme court held some time ago that the portion willed for a rescue home for girls could not be administered through the Christian Science church. The portion left to the church's administration was then turned over to the E. Henry Wemme Endowment fund.

4 LOCAL BOYS TO APPEAR IN BOXING EVENT

6 Heavyweights to Perform Here New Year's Day; Farmer Coming

With four brawny sons aspiring to boxing honors, Klamath Falls soon may be somewhat in the limelight of the sporting world. Buck Weaver, "Kid" Short, Knock-out Hogan, and Jim Fleming are the four, and all have places on the heavyweight card to be staged here New Year's afternoon, when Sugar Willie Keeler and Frank Farmer will appear as main-eventers in the beefiest boxing program ever scheduled in a Klamath Falls ring.

Short, who is the son of Burrell Short, county commissioner, has a future as a boxer, due to his phenomenal reach and hitting ability. This is the verdict of the seasoned Keeler, who has been working out with him for the last few days.

Hogan's supporters say it's a cinch while Fleming's adherents think otherwise, and according to gossip, someone is due to lose some money on a question of judgment between these two.

Hogan is developing into a straight hitter and gradually getting away from the habit of swinging wildly. Keeler is now working out with all four of the aspiring heavies.

Tickets have been sent to Frank Farmer and he is due to arrive here within the next few days.

When that happens, two of the local boys will work out with his and two with Keeler.

Arrangements for a preliminary bout have not yet been completed.

Chev. Looks for Big Year in 1926

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 23.—(AP)—In anticipation of another record-breaking year during 1926, the Chevrolet Motor company has greatly expanded its field organization to assure quick distribution of cars and parts to its thousands of dealers.

The expansion program just completed involved the opening of three new zone offices in key cities and the erection of specially designed sales and service buildings at four other zone points.

The drive-away stocks of cars are so arranged that they may be started enroute within a few minutes after a call is received from any dealer in the zone. The supplies of parts are compactly arranged in special stock rooms adjoining the packing and shipping departments.

Besides providing ample space for stocks of cars and parts, the new buildings contain zone offices, assembly rooms for meetings of the zone organizations, and Chevrolet service schools where dealers' shop experts are given special training with especially designed Chevrolet precision tools.

There are now 26 of these schools—the number having been doubled during 1925.

At the PINE TREE

Newspaper and police crusades throughout the country against fake mediums and crooked clairvoyants recently resulted in Director Tod Browning writing a thrilling film expose of crooks of this variety.

Browning has filmed his story as "The Mystic," now being shown at the Pine Tree theater, and it is one of the most thrilling crook plays that has ever been flashed upon a motion picture screen.

The picture is both a warning and high class entertainment, and shows how crooked mediums are often linked with bands of swindlers who take advantage of the grief of the wealthy persons seeking solace by means of communication with the departed dead.

The locales of the story are Hungary and New York, and Allen Pringle and Conway Tearle are seen in the leading roles. They are supported by a cast which includes Mitchell Lewis, Robert Ober, Stanton Heck, Gladys Hulette, David Torrence and DeWitt Jennings.

At The LIBERTY

Although it was made under the most perilous conditions, "The White Desert," which is coming to the Liberty theater Thursday and Friday, is the greatest outdoor drama that has ever been screened.

The terrifying beauty of the great stretches of snow land at the top of the Continental Divide in Colorado, known as the White Desert, has been transferred to the screen in a manner that defies description.
