

DINE TREE Theatre

On the Screen

ON THE STAGE

Norma Shearer

VAUDEVILLE

"A Slave of Fashion"

Bigwood Twins

Christian Sisters & Burke

Harry and Mae Cooper

Aerial Allens

"Inside of the Five and Ten"

Mulkey

"An Aerial Classic"

Vaudeville at 7:15 and 9:15

Coming Soon — "Seven Keys to Baldpate"

Mainly . About . People

NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT

Inhibition of candidates in the Neighbors of Woodcraft will take place on Friday evening at the L. O. O. F. temple at 8 o'clock, according to announcement made today.

MISS ROBERTSON HOSTESS

Complimenting a few of her close friends, Miss Pansy Robertson was hostess with a dinner party last evening.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO

W. E. Ruddle, H. W. Hanstein, F. M. Kay and H. W. Harry, all of San Francisco, registered at the hotel White Pelican last evening.

FROM SPRAGUE RIVER

Visiting with friends and attending to business transactions, B. E. Wolford, merchant of the Sprague River district, spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls.

COMPLIMENTING JINKERS

Entertaining at one of the numerous affairs which have been given throughout the winter months for the Jinkers club of the First National bank, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Glover will be host and hostess Friday evening at their home on north Sixth.

MERCHANT HERE

Jim Stevenson, Merrill merchant and well known in Klamath Falls, transacted business matters here on Wednesday.

FROM FORT KLAMATH

J. V. Heasig, president of the Ft. Klamath Telephone company, spent yesterday about the city on business and visiting with his friends.

HEARS FROM WEST

E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National bank, recently received a letter from Merle West, who with Mrs. West is located in San Diego. For several weeks, according to the letter Mr. Bubb received from the former Klamath Falls city councilman, he had been in ill health, but had completely recovered. In his letter he asked for many of his close friends in Klamath and hopes to hear from them.

HOME TOMORROW

After spending the past fortnight in Salem on school matters, Fred Ferguson, county school superintendent, is returning home tomorrow. In Salem he attended a meeting of the school superintendents of the state, and also visited at Bonnyth normal.

MISS FOWLER SICK

Miss Gladys Fowler of the Telephone company is ill at her home, suffering with an attack of la grippe. A short time ago Miss Fowler returned from Portland where she had spent a week with relatives and friends. Her condition showed improvement today.

SCOTT LEAVES

J. H. Scott, state market road engineer, returned yesterday to Salem after a visit of several days in Klamath Falls for the purpose of inspecting market road projects completed and proposed. Mr. Scott was accompanied on several inspection trips by Frank Z. Howard, county road engineer.

CHARLES WANZER DEPARTS

Charles Wanzer, division state highway engineer, and now supervising the state highways in Klamath and Lake counties, departed this morning for Bend, his headquarters for this division. Mr. Wanzer has been active in inspecting Klamath highways during his visit here in order to familiarize himself with condition of roads in this section. "And I'll probably be down here very frequently, at least until I get posted on these roads," Mr. Wanzer said today, just before leaving.

CATTLE BUYERS VISIT

When John Allan and William Bryan, both of San Francisco, come to Klamath Falls, it usually means it won't be long until a shipment of cattle will be leaving the Klamath territory for the market. Allan and Bryan, who arrived on last evening's train, are cattle buyers, the former representing the firm of Allan and Pyle. The men are stopping at the Hall hotel.

MERRYMAN'S TO HONOLULU

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Merryman are among the prominent residents of Klamath Falls who will sail from San Francisco on Saturday for Honolulu on the President Pierce. With them will be their two sons, George and John, who will make the trip. They expect to be gone for a two months' vacation, before returning to Klamath Falls.

MRS. MEEHAN AWAY

Mrs. Jack Meehan left this morning for Seattle for a visit of several weeks with relatives and friends.

BEND VISITORS

P. C. Valley and William Claire of Bend are attending to business matters in Klamath Falls today.

FROM FORT KLAMATH

W. D. Crawford is among the residents of Fort Klamath who is on business matters in Klamath Falls today.

REEDER ON BUSINESS

U. E. Reeder, rancher of Pine Grove, is here on business matters, and will return home this evening.

MUELLER TO LEAVE

William Mueller, former proprietor of the Battery Service station, will leave Saturday for his home in Marysville, Calif. His plans for the future are indefinite, though he indicated he might engage in the hardware business there.

LELAND WILLITS BETTER

Leland Willits of the Shell Oil company, who has been ill with an attack of la grippe, resumed his position today.

E. K. LOOSELEY HERE

E. K. Looseley, a member of the well known Looseley family of the Wood River valley region, arrived in town last night to spend several days attending to business matters. Mr. Looseley is identified with the lumber business in Montague, Calif., where he resides. He is a guest at the Hall hotel.

MACDOEL MERCHANT HERE

O. E. Snider, prominent merchant of Macdoel, accompanied by Charles Hufford, also of Macdoel, arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days on business, stopping at the Hall.

RECOVERING NEELY

Miss La. Neely, who broke her shoulder in a fall last week, is recovering nicely at the home of her mother, it was reported today.

GOING TO MEDFORD

E. O. Nord, Henry Mueller, W. Foster and Frank Moser are leaving tomorrow afternoon for Medford to attend the banquet and installation of Longfellows in the valley city tomorrow evening at the hotel Medford.

The Medford chapter will be the seventh one in the state, the others being Portland, Salem, Eugene, Marshfield, Roseburg and Klamath Falls.

At the next meeting of the local chapter, to be held January 13, a number of the Marshfield and Medford members will be present, it is stated.

MARY BLANAS ILL

Miss Mary Blanas, sister of Chris Blanas of the hotel Arcade, has been confined to her home for several days, suffering with a severe cold. She was able to be about today for the first time, and while still in a weakened condition, is improving.

MAHAFFEY VISITS

E. P. Mahaffey, vice president of the Central Oregon bank, Bend, Ore., made a hurried business trip to this city last evening and returned home this morning. He was republican delegate from Oregon to national republican convention, which nominated Coolidge for president.

THE WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underdow's Pharmacy continues to register a fairly high barometric pressure. This indicates a continuance of fine weather.

Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair and cool, with moderate winds.

The Tycos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:
High.....32 Low.....18

U. S. Weather Report

Oregon: Fair tonight and Friday normal temperature, moderate north to east winds.

GOVERNOR CRITICIZED

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 7. (AP)—Voicing criticism of Governor Hartley's recommendations, both for the management of the state school system and the state printing of text books, the senate committee on education, to which was referred the governor's recommendation on schools tendered its report to the senate today.

SHOPPING FROM MERRILL

Mrs. W. F. Jinnette and Mrs. J. W. Taylor are shopping and visiting with friends here today from their home at Merrill.

Here are the New prices!

	Old Prices	New Prices
Touring Car	$ 875	$795
Roadster	855	795
Type-B Sedan	1045	895
Type-A Sedan	1195	1075
Coupe	960	845
Panel Commercial Car	960	885
Screen Commercial Car	885	810
Chassis	730	655

f. o. b. Detroit

These new prices apply to a product that is far and away the finest Dodge Brothers have ever produced. They are made possible by a $10,000,000 expansion program, which practically doubles production, and materially reduces the cost of manufacture

WAKEFIELD MOTOR CO.
170 MAIN STREET

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS

RYAN FAMILY AWAY

Lloyd Ryan, well known local merchant, and family left yesterday by motor for Salem where they will visit for ten days with Mr. Ryan's parents. Mr. Ryan was raised in the capital city and will visit a number of his boyhood chums. During his absence Ren Hollister will be in charge of the store.

MANAGER OF HATCHERY

Harry Howard, manager of the Eastbrook resort located above Chiloquin, is here today transacting business. He expects to return to the resort tomorrow.

KRONHOLM TO MARSHFIELD

John Kronholm, manager of a local store has been transferred to Marshfield to take up the duties, to which he has recently been transferred by headquarters at Portland.

VISITING FROM DUNSMUIR

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Silva are guests in the city today from Dunsmuir. Mr. Silva is a frequent business visitor here and on this trip was joined by his wife, who plans to remain here for several days.

OVER FROM MEDFORD

O. D. Henson, well known business man of Medford, is here today on business, registered at the hotel Arcade.

ELKS TONIGHT

The regular meeting of the Elks lodge has been called for this evening at eight o'clock, by the exalted ruler, C. S. Curran. Regular business will be transacted at this meeting.

JUSTICE SPINK IN

Justice of the Peace R. C. Spink of Chiloquin transacted legal matters in the city yesterday, returning home last evening.

BURTON FROM CHILOQUIN

Mrs. H. J. Burton of Chiloquin spent Wednesday in the city shopping and visiting with friends. Mrs. Burton with her husband owns the leading restaurant in the neighboring town.

PAUNINA CALLER

C. A. Morgan of Paunina on the Natron cutoff is about the city today, business bringing him to the city.

FROM WEED

F. Brown and H. K. Bhenke, both of Weed, who visit Klamath Falls frequently on business matters, are in the city today. They are stopping at the hotel Hall.

ALGONA VISITOR

R. H. Vernon of Algona spent Wednesday in the city on business, stopping at the hotel Arcade.

At The LIBERTY

BOB CUSTER

"THAT MAN JACK!"

Thrilling Battles
Reckless Rides
Escapes and Escapades make this rattling good Entertainment!

Coming Soon — "BEYOND THE BORDER"

HAMAKER Motor Co.

Service Worth While
Klamath Ave. at 8th St.

Phone 1040

A Steam Heated Garage FOR STORGAE

—24 HOUR SERVICE—

BUICK GARAGE

PHONE 42

OPPOSITE WHITE PELICAN HOTEL

GUARANTEED REPAIRS
USED CARS

Hats off to the autofolks who are saying a good word for this repair shop. You see it really does pay to put your heart and soul in your work the way we folks do. It surely pays. We never close.