New Church To Be Built Soon In Chiloquin

Property Purchased for Catholic Place of Worship

A new Catholic church, modern in every respect and large enough to serve the needs of the community for several years to come, will be constructed in West Chiloquin. It became known today. Construction on the new building will begin early this spring.

The church will be in charge of the Rev. Father F. X. Geis, who several months ago was assigned to the Chiloquin region by his bishop. The Rev. Father Geis formerly administered the Catholic church in Klamath Falls and was later transferred to north-eastern Oregon when the Rev. Father A. L. Looser was assigned to the Klamath Falls church.
