

GO TO CAMP
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston and daughter, Miss Anne Mae, left early this morning for the Pollock Bay Lumber camp, where Mr. Johnston is logging superintendent. They will spend the day at camp returning home late this evening.

CHRISTIANS ORGANIZE
A splendid meeting was held in the new Christian church last evening when plans were discussed for the coming year. Committees were appointed for the various divisions of the church and Sunday will find all classes meeting in the new house of worship. Mrs. Nellie Beckley was re-appointed as superintendent of the Sunday school, having served in this capacity during the past year. Owing to the splendid work which she has done during the past year she was unanimously chosen to serve through 1926.

INSURANCE MAN FROM VALLEY
One of the prominent insurance men of southern Oregon, representing the California State Life Insurance company, W. A. Brown, is among the business callers from Medford today. Mr. Brown was accompanied here by his son, Clarence, who is affiliated in business with his father in the valley city. Recently Mr. Brown moved his family to Medford from Woodland, California, the old home.

MEETING AT LAMB HOME
An all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. E. D. Lamb, 204 Park Circle will be held tomorrow by the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The meeting will convene at 10:30 tomorrow morning. At noon Mrs. Lamb will serve a luncheon. Robes for the choir will be prepared for the opening of the new church which will be in the near future.

MRS. RENICK ILL
Mrs. E. W. Renick is confined to her home on Eighth and High with measles. She was reported as quite ill this morning.

FROM GRANTS PASS
A. B. Davis and Dr. Ralph Stearns, among Grants Pass leading business men, were in the city over Tuesday. The trip was one of business. They stopped at the hotel Arcade.

FROM ALGOMA
G. Thompson, connected with the lumber industry at Algoma, is here on business today.

FROM LANGELE VALLEY
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown and daughter Miss Alice, who attends high school in Klamath Falls, spent Tuesday in the city on business.

JOHNSTON HUNTING
"Ducks were not so plentiful" was the word brought back last evening by Jimmy Johnston after spending the entire day at Tule lake with a party of local hunters. While he returned with a good bag of the birds, they were not nearly as plentiful as local sportsmen expected them to be.

MRS. KILBOURNE BETTER
Friends of Mrs. Hope Weston Kilbourne, manager of the hotel White Pelican, will be glad to learn that she is improving from a severe attack of influenza which has confined her to her room at the hostelry for several days.

MACDOEL CALLETS
Mrs. Eliza Rice and Mrs. D. T. Rice, well known residents from Macdoel, who have many friends in Klamath Falls, are guests at the hotel White Pelican. They motored up from the south to shop and visit with friends.

MRS. MURPHY GOING HOME
Mrs. Dan Murphy, wife of one of Klamath county's prominent stockmen, and mother of the first 1926 baby, is leaving the Klamath Valley hospital tomorrow for her home at Henley, with wee Margaret Mary. The little tot was born at 25 minutes past midnight on New Year's morning, and has been the recipient of numerous gifts from the various merchants in Klamath Falls.

NORTHERN BUSINESS CALLER
J. Weinstein, Portland merchant, who makes frequent trips into southern Oregon, was among the business callers in the city over Tuesday. He is returning north tomorrow after visiting a number of smaller towns surrounding Klamath Falls.

SCOTTI AT ASHLAND
M. R. Scotti, in the produce business here, motored to Ashland on Monday to attend to business transactions in the valley city.

HALLS TO RETURN
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall of the Hall hotel are expected to return from San Francisco the last of the week. They have been enjoying a visit in the southern city since a short time before the holidays with relatives and friends.

ULRICH IS BACK
Claiming the distinction of ranking first of all insurance agencies in Oregon for the year 1925, George C. Ulrich, in company with Mrs. Ulrich, returned Tuesday from Portland where he attended the convention of the Mutual Life Insurance company.

BUSINESS CALLER
Morton Hadley, of Portland, made a business trip south into Klamath county the first of the week. Enroute to Klamath Falls he stopped for a short visit in Roseburg with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hadley. He expects to return north late today.

KELTY GOES HOME
Dr. H. E. Kelty, prominent resident of Lakeview, who has been here for several days with his wife, who submitted to a major operation at the Klamath Valley hospital the first of the week, returned Tuesday to Lakeview. Mrs. Kelty is recovering nicely from her operation and her many friends are hoping for her speedy recovery.

FAREWELL SKATING PARTY
Close to fifty of the younger set of the First Christian and First Presbyterian churches enjoyed a skating party and wienie roast across from Shippington last evening. This particular rendezvous has become popular during the snappy weather when ever so many coteries of the Klamath Falls younger set have motored out night after night to enjoy the favorite winter sport. The affair last evening was in the nature of a farewell party to the students of the Christian church who have been holding their meetings at the First Presbyterian church while their new house of worship on Pine and Ninth has been nearing completion. The students of the Presbyterian church were hosts last evening. Next Sunday the Christian students will hold services in the new church.

MASSONS TO MEET FRIDAY
A special meeting of the Masonic lodge has been called by R. L. Griffith for Friday evening at the Masonic hall. Work in the E. A. degree will take place at 7:30.

Formal Opening of the new home for Star Cars. Fours and Sixes. Saturday Evening Jan. 16—7:30 P. M. Eight St. and Klamath Ave. Music — Prizes — Refreshments At 8:30 All Models Unveiled. We want to know you We want you to know us BE SURE AND COME. HAMAKER MOTOR CO. Service Worth While. 8th and Klamath Phone 1040

HERE FOR TEN DAYS
L. A. Deer, E. S. Sheeley and Jack Foxe, all affiliated with the Southern Pacific, making headquarters in Dunsmuir, will spend the coming ten days in Klamath Falls on business. They are stopping at the hotel-Lake.

MISS BLANAS BETTER
Miss Mary Blanas, sister of Chris Blanas of the hotel Arcade, is able to be about today after suffering with a severe cold which confined her to her room for the past week.

DALTONS HERE
Familiar and prominent residents of the Klamath country who were seen about the streets today, were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton, in from their ranch at Malin. While here they are stopping at the hotel White Pelican.

MISS MAGUIRE AWAY
Miss Margaret Maguire left the first of the week for Richardson Springs, Calif., seeking improvement from a severe attack of neuritis which has confined her to her home for several weeks. She will later visit in San Francisco.

RETURNS FROM NORTH
After a business trip of two weeks in Portland and Seattle, Mrs. C. H. Lornsen has returned to Klamath Falls. "Business conditions along the coast were picking up and it looks like 1926 will be a most prosperous year," Mrs. Lornsen said this morning.

HUNTING AT TULE LAKE
Two well known Dunsmuir business men, F. W. Cassidy and G. W. Brewer, declared Wednesday, Thursday and Friday as holidays for themselves and left Klamath Falls bright and early this morning for Tule lake. They registered at the hotel Lake.

THE TREE Theatre "Seven Keys to Baldpate" with that finest young American, Douglas MacLean, in a very funny picture. THURSDAY AND FRIDAY BLANCHE SWEET and RONALD COLMAN in "His Supreme Moment" and Five Acts of Vaudeville

LAST HUNTING TRIP
Two of Klamath county's most ardent sportsmen, A. J. Connolly and W. Henry Cooke of Malin, left this morning for Tule lake to spend the last two days of the hunting season enjoying duck hunting. Mr. Cooke spent the holiday season with friends in southern California and returned north as early as possible, declaring there is no place like southern Oregon when the hunting season is on.

CALLED TO MONTAGUE
Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Skeen were called to Montague the last of the week by the death of Mr. Skeen's father, George Skeen, who passed away at the family home on Friday morning. Mr. Skeen is well known throughout Klamath county, having been in business here in Klamath Falls for several years. The funeral was held in Ashland Tuesday under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge of which the elderly man was a prominent member.

Mainly About People

W. C. T. U. AT MEDFORD
The Klamath Falls chapter of the W. C. T. U. has received a special invitation from the Medford chapter to attend a meeting in the valley city on Saturday, January 16. The session will be held all day. Mrs. Ada Wallace Ulrich, secretary of the Children's Farm home at Corvallis, and Mrs. Haunon, affiliated with the W. C. T. U. of Portland, will be among the principal speakers of the afternoon. Judge Walter H. Evans, prominent attorney of Portland, who is hearing cases in the circuit court in the valley city just now, will address the meeting on Saturday evening. Mrs. Frances E. Boyd is in charge of the reservations and is hoping to have several cars of members going from here on Saturday. Anyone caring to learn further details can get in touch with Mrs. Boyd at 2343.

ENJOY SKATING
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Abbott and H. Smith motored across the lake from Shippington last evening to enjoy the ice skating with hundreds of other local people.

SKATING PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hayes and E. Hayes were among the local parties who enjoyed a skating party last evening on the lake across from Shippington.

MISS BROTHERTON OF MEDFORD
The many friends in Klamath Falls who received this word with happy hearts, hoping that he might yet recover and be able to return to his home in this city.

BOBBITT SLIGHTLY IMPROVED
"Slightly Improved" is the latest word received by friends here from Woodland, Calif., from Mrs. Bobbitt as to the condition of the well known pastor, Rev. Bobbitt. While his condition has been pronounced incurable by a number of the leading physicians, still the latest word tells of his perceptible improvement. Attending physicians are now attempting to build up his health so as to start the radium treatment, which have been known to cure cases in the fourth stage.

GOING TO MEDFORD
Looking forward to hearing Sousa's famous band, which is to appear in Medford this coming week, a number of local people are planning to motor over the mountain. Among some of the local residents who have already secured tickets are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hershberger, Mrs. B. J. Setzer, Ted Snyder, Misses Connie Crystal, Ma Crystal, Jo Upp, Ruth Lindsey and Inez Jenkins.

FROM SPRING LAKE
John Humm of the Spring Lake district is in Klamath Falls today on business matters.

RESUMES POSITION
Mrs. Helene Breitenstein has resumed her position on The Herald in the editorial department, after an illness of several days, suffering from a severe cold.

PAVING BONDS SOLD
Paving bonds, worth $190,000, were sold Monday by the city council to a syndicate of five bonding firms of Portland, comprising the firms of Ferriss & Hargrove, Freeman, Smith & Camp, Blayth Witter & Co., George H. Burr, Conrad and Broom, Inc. The successful bid, 190.27 at a rate of six per cent. This bid is considerably under that of the American National bank, which refused to accept the bonds, on advice of their attorney.

RETURNING TO DETROIT
After an enjoyable visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Patrick of North Ninth, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Patrick left today for their home in Detroit, Michigan to partake where they plan to take the Oriental Limited east, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick will visit at Roseburg for a brief time with relatives and friends.

ASHLAND BUSINESS CALLER
E. P. Sullivan of Ashland is here today on business matters.

An ideal Radio Set at a price you can afford. Western Air Patrol "Radio as you want it". Home, Sweet Home. An open fireplace... a comfortable armchair... a happy, healthy family and a radio set. Every feature necessary for good radio reception is embodied in the Western Air Patrol. Tone—Clear, sweet, flexible, pleasing to the ear. Selectivity—So sharp that you can tune out all interference without difficulty. Volume—A turn of the dial increases the merest whisper to the mighty outpouring of sound. Simplicity—Even a child can quickly learn how to handle the controls. Look under the lid and examine the sturdy construction. Western Air Patrol is built for us according to our rigid specifications. Only standard parts are used. By selling direct, we eliminate middleman's profits. The saving is passed on to you. Our low price includes everything. There is nothing else to buy. To fully appreciate Western Air Patrol you should hear it in your own home. Our fifteen-day Home Trial Offer makes this test possible. You may obtain full particulars at any "Western Auto" store. Our Console Model is a masterpiece. You will be surprised how reasonably priced it is. Auto Accessories with a Universal Reputation. The best the markets afford. Brands you have often seen advertised in national magazines. Auto accessories of an established quality that add comfort, safety and economy to motoring are carried at all "Western Auto" stores. Below is a partial list. A. C. SPARK PLUGS—Clear, sweet, flexible, pleasing to the ear. CHAMPION SPARK PLUGS—Ford Size $1.50, Other Cars $1.75. A. C. SPEEDOMETER—For Ford Cars. Registers speed steadily and clearly on the roughest roads. Price complete $15.00. WALSCO AUTOMATIC WINDSHIELD CLEANERS—$3.35. Other Windshield Cleaners as low as 35c. NOBBY LOCKING CAP with Monogram—The dean of all caps. Lends individuality to any car. $4.75. Other Radiator Caps as low as $3.50. ALL-ANGLE WIND WINGS—Double hinge type brackets—finest plate glass. $3.25. Other Wind Wings, $1.75 and $2.25. SCHRADER VALVE INSIDES—Packed five in tin box, with sliding lid—per box, 25c. TIRE GAUGE—The genuine Schrader, complete in neat leather case, for high-pressure tires—each, $1.15. For Ballon Tires, $1.35. COP-SPOTTER MIRRORS—They eliminate the necessity of looking back while driving—neat beveled edges and attractive nickel-plated brackets. Priced $2.70 and $2.95. Other Mirrors, 95c to $2.45. BOYCE MOTOMETER—Priced $2.50 to $12.75, according to size. More than 125 Stores in the West—Western Auto Supply Co. 7th and Pine, Klamath Falls