MILLIONS IN WILD GAME

At a meeting of representatives of the various bureaus of the department of agriculture in Portland, E. F. Averill, state game warden, urged the creation of a stronger public sentiment for enforcement of game laws. He estimates that Oregon game has an actual food value of $5,000,000, and as a lure to sportsmen of other states brings into this state the considerable amount of money they spend.

Less than 10 per cent of Oregon is under cultivation. Nature is so prodigal of life, so generously multiplies her creatures, that the comparatively useless 90 per cent of forest, mountain and desert land should maintain indefinitely, ample resources in wild game. Not so many years ago a family could fare well in many parts of the state without benefit of butcher's meat or farm animals.

Formerly, the sportsman reckoned the success of his day by the size of his bag, without limit, without thought for the future and without any sportsmanlike consideration for the needs of others. Laws and the public opinion which is back of them have gone far toward ending criminal and wasteful slaughter, but there are still those who would ignore or evade restrictions, and many game families are holding their own with difficulty, it at all.

Hunting is an occupation of the wilds. The game warden cannot be always on the spot, like the ubiquitous traffic officer of a busy street. It follows that the law will be obeyed rather from a general recognition of its reasonableness and value, on the part of the sportsmen whom it especially serves, than from fear of watching officers. If hunters want game to hunt next year, it is up to them to make it possible by giving it reasonable protection now.—Portland Telegram.

ITALY WAR DEBT IS UNDER FIRE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. (AP)—The Italian war debt settlement again came under fire today as the house continued consideration of the resolutions to authorize ratification of the agreements negotiated with six countries since the last congress.

An effort by Chairman Green of the ways and means committee which has jurisdiction in the matter to limit debate of the Italian proposal, failed, a number of members announcing they desired to speak. After Representative Montague, democrat, Virginia, urged approval of the settlement, Representative Rainey, democrat, Illinois, asserted it amounted to virtual conclusion of the debt.

Italy has not effected adequate economy in its government, Mr. Rainey said. He placed the salary of Premier Mussolini at $70,000 a year and that the "Italian dages" at $200,000 each.

Representative Bloom, democrat, New York, questioned the statement of the salary received by Mussolini, who he asserted, is paid the equivalent of $1,000.

Mr. Rainey said his information came from an Italian newspaper published in Colorado.

The state department he charged with suppressing information about Italy to create a favorable impression of Mussolini in this country.

Specifically, he assailed the department for "bushing up" an attack he said a fascist policeman, in full uniform, was made an American vice consul Gore at Leghorn, Italy last year. A charge by Mr. Rainey the Mussolini sanctioned the slaying of those who opposed him was questioned by Representative Bloom.

The Illinois member then read from a book which he said had been smuggled from Italy before Mussolini could destroy all copies. It contained a number of pictures which Mr. Rainey asserted were of those slain by the Fascist.

Some of these were taken after February 1 and 2.

death," he said. "They show the mutilations of the bodies."

Chairman Green of the ways and means committee questioned the propriety of the reading from what he said was an anonymous book, alleging facts detrimental to a government with which "we are at peace," and objected to further questions along this line.

Mr. Bloom denied the truth of conditions depicted, asserting he knew "as a fact" that Mussolini always has stood for law and order.

AIR PROGRAM IS TO BE CHANGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13. (AP)—Reorganization of the nation's naval air defenses including construction of a new and larger dirigible to replace the wrecked Shenandoah, is contemplated in the administration's naval program now taking shape in congress.

The reorganization would be accompanied by economies in other branches of the naval service, including a reduction of navy enlisted personnel from 86,000 to 82,000 and withdrawal of a number of warships from active duty. The house appropriations committee also has decided there is no present need of maintaining the Lakehurst naval air station whose only dirigible, the Los Angeles, now is laid up in her hangar. In reporting today the naval appropriation bill, the committee suggested that by closing down the station the cost of its maintenance could be reduced from $1,715,000 to $126,900. Such a step is not favored by the navy department which has suggested that if the station were closed a separate arrangement would have to be made to take care of the Los Angeles.

It is disclosed also that the department has before it plans for the Airship development corporation, backed by Henry Ford, to build a much smaller all-metal naval airship but Mr. Wilbur said there had been no decision whether the projected craft should be of the Shenandoah or metal covered type. The department expects to ask for an additional $300,000 for experiments with metal dirigibles.

Chinese Coeds Must Have Approval of Parents to Marry

PEKING.—Marriages between coeds of the various government colleges and universities without the consent of parents has been prohibited.

Governor General Li Ching-lin of Chihli province asserted that the social custom of the West has penetrated to such an extent in China that many young men and women contract marriage without parental approval. As the general viewed free marriages as detrimental to the ancient doctrine, all professors and students will be dismissed and punished without mercy if they persist in the practice.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES F. STEWART
WASHINGTON—January 1 is a hard day on presidents of the United States. Also on "first ladies in the land."

The New Years reception at the white house is the biggest occasion of its kind in the entire year.

Literally thousands of people invariably are on hand—to "pay their respects" so they say, but really, most of them to go home and brag about having exchanged clasps with the country's chief magistrate and his wife.

Now it's no joke to stand in one spot from 11 o'clock in the morning until late in the afternoon, shaking hand after countless hands, trying to smile and struggling to put a little warmth into the same two or three words of greeting, repeated over and over again for half a dozen hours on end.

It's a very considerable physical feat and mentally it must be deadly tiresome.

President Coolidge goes through it like a routine task, which is what it is. His wife makes a wonderful bluff at liking it. It's impossible to believe that she actually does.

Stroll along Pennsylvania avenue past the white house of a New Years day and you'll see what it's like.

All of ten or a dozen city blocks of callers for one pair of human beings to shake by their hands and thank, separately, for best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year!

SEASON WILL BE LESS THIS YEAR
