

BACK FROM SOUTH
After an enjoyable three months visit in southern California, with relatives and friends, Mrs. Allan Sloan and daughter, Rose Mary, have returned to Klamath Falls.

MISS ALLISON HERE
Miss O. Allison, of Portland, is a guest of Klamath Falls friends today. Miss Allison registered among the guests at the hotel White Pelican.

PEASLEY BACK FROM NORTH
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peasley of Peasley's Photographic Art studio, returned home last evening from Portland. Mrs. Peasley journeyed north before the holidays to visit with relatives and friends and Mr. Peasley motored north the early part of the week to join his wife.

BOUCHER BACK AGAIN
Bob Boucher returned today from Sacramento and San Francisco where he has been since before the holidays visiting with his mother, other relatives, and friends. While south Mr. Boucher submitted to a major operation from which he recovered and will resume his duties with the Standard Oil company on Monday.

MRS. HALLOWAY AWAY
Mrs. Charles Halloway is enjoying a two weeks visit in Medford with relatives and friends. She is the mother of Mrs. Guy Satterlee of this city.

MRS. STINSON HOME
Mrs. H. E. Stinson and daughter, Miss Marjorie, have returned from a delightful fortnight's visit with relatives and friends in Sacramento.

Mainly . About . People

TAKING APARTMENT
Gordon MacAnay and F. Ray Dunn are leaving their apartment at The Winters and will make their home at The McCarthy where they have taken an apartment.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS
Business interests held in Klamath Falls brought F. Lugo and R. M. McClain both of Dunsmuir to the city yesterday.

ACCEPTS POSITION
Planning to make Klamath Falls his permanent residence, S. Johnson, of Stockton, California, arrived here last evening and has accepted a position.

ROCKY POINT MAN
H. E. Hunsberry, of Rocky Point, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls over Wednesday. During his stay here he stopped at the hotel Arcade.

LITTLE DONALD BETTER
Wee Donald Nord, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Nord, is reported to be much improved today, after suffering part of the week with a severe bronchial cold, which it was feared for a time might develop into pneumonia.

KERNS ENJOYS HUNT
J. W. Kerns made a business and pleasure trip to his ranch at Kerns yesterday. He spent several hours hunting, getting some good shooting.

BREMER FROM VALLEY
Among the frequent business visitors in Klamath Falls is J. T. Bremer of Medford. Yesterday Mr. Bremer paid the city one of his calls and expects to return home tomorrow. He registered at the hotel Arcade.

HOME FROM VISIT
Mrs. Louis Porter and children arrived home last evening from the south where they have been visiting for some time past.

WEEKS TAKEN NORTH
Unable to raise $1000 for a bond, Daniel Weeks, charged with introducing intoxicating liquor onto the Indian reservation, was taken to Portland to jail today, to await the convening of the federal grand jury. He is C. C. Wells, deputy United States marshal. Weeks was arrested in Chiloquin and held until the arrival of Wells. He was indicted in Portland as a result, it is believed, of affidavits made by reservation residents, alleging that Weeks was selling whiskey in the vicinity of Chiloquin.

DAUGHERTY COMING BACK
Jimmy Daugherty, connected with Connolly Brothers, who left here some two months ago to spend the winter in California, has decided he likes Klamath Falls weather and people much better and is returning from the south tomorrow. His friends will welcome his return. During his residence here he enjoyed the fishing and hunting of this county and in his letter declares this to be "God's country."

STORK ARRIVES
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—A son was born today to the new assistant secretary of war, Hanford Macnider and Mrs. Macnider.

MRS. KING BETTER
Mrs. Ross King was able to resume her position at the hotel Arcade today after an illness of several days suffering with a gripe.

MANY CARS LAST NIGHT
Over 50 cars of local skating parties were parked on the banks of upper lake last evening. The ice with the exception of a few places was smooth and solid and skating was thoroughly enjoyed by numerous parties from Klamath Falls.

WITH MRS. CRAMBLITT
The American Association of University Women will meet on Monday evening with Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt at her home, 124 North Sixth. Various reports from committees will be read and Mrs. Myrtle Helm will give a review on the Life of Christ. It is hoped that as many members as are able will attend this meeting, which is the first in many weeks.

COOKE CALLED SOUTH
A telegram telling of the serious illness of his son at Fullerton, California, called W. Henry Cooke, prominent rancher and stockman of Malibu south this morning. He left on the morning train, immediately upon receipt of the wire. Recently Mr. Cooke returned from California where he spent the Christmas and New Year's holidays with relatives and friends.

MRS. ROGERS HOME
After a delightful two day visit in Medford with friends, Mrs. Leslie Rogers accompanied by her little son Donald and Mrs. Andrew Busman, returned home last evening.

ALL FROM PORTLAND
Portland, the metropolis of Oregon, held first place with greatest number of registrations at the hotel White Pelican over yesterday. Among the familiar names from the northern city, men who make frequent business visits to Klamath Falls were C. E. Burnett, M. Pierce, J. G. Archer, K. B. Kelts, M. B. Jamison, Thomas W. Hoke, and E. B. Daffs.

MRS. WINNIFORD ILL.
Mrs. M. Winniford, of the East Brook farm who returned to Klamath Falls last evening from her Christmas vacation spent in Roseburg and Grants Pass with relatives and friends is confined to her room at the hotel Arcade today suffering with a gripe. As soon as her condition improves Mrs. Winniford plans to return to the resort which is located above Chiloquin.

J. J. MILLER BACK
J. J. Miller, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific returned on last evening's train from the south where he has been on business in the interests of his company.

MAGUIRE JR. BETTER
J. F. Maguire, Jr., returned to his office today after an illness of several days which confined him to his room. La Grippe which has forced so many people to remain away from their positions of late, was the cause of his illness.

LOCAL MERCHANT BACK
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ryan and children, Allan, LeRoy and Phyllis, returned last evening from Salem where they motored a week ago to visit with relatives and friends.

KEDRON CLUB TONIGHT
An unusually good attendance is expected at the meeting of the Kedron club this evening at the Presbyterian church. This is the first meeting the club has held in many weeks on account of the Christmas holidays and sickness throughout the country. Miss Mary Hall and Mrs. A. M. Collier will be hostesses this evening.

Masons Attention
Special Communications Klamath Lodge No. 77 A. F. & M. M.
Friday, January 15th work in the E. A. Degree
Monday, January 18th work in the F. C. Degree.
7:30 p. m.
By order W. M.

Make your Selection

As has already been announced, I have led the field in bringing to the men in Klamath Falls a big selection of the newest imported and domestic fabrics for Spring clothes.

Many selections have already been made and to assure yourself a choice in this real up to the minute stuff you had better act right away.

Scotch Tweeds English Tweeds

In a big variety of patterns

CHAS. J. CIZEK
Merchant Tailor

109 South Seventh St.

BUICK GARAGE

PHONE 42

OPPOSITE WHITE PELICAN HOTEL

GUARANTEED REPAIRS

USED CARS

ARE YOU LEARNING?

Folks learn as they go along. Rather, they learn as they get stopped. When you meet with an accident the first thought that should occur to you is having us repair your car. It'll prove to be a saving thought.

WE NEVER CLOSE

ENTERTAINING MCINTYRES
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers are entertaining this evening at their attractive home on Pacific Terrace, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre. Before her marriage, which was an event of the holiday season in Portland at the home of her parents, Mrs. McIntyre was Miss Eloise McPherson. She is one of the popular young women of Klamath Falls. Mr. McIntyre is connected with the First National bank.

LONGFELLOWS BANQUET
Members of the recently organized Longfellows' club held a banquet last night at the White Pelican hotel, at which time they cussed and discussed the various things which make life a burden for those who look down from a height of six feet or more.

WILSONS TO MEDFORD
Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wilson, have purchased tickets for Sousa's Band concert in Medford on next Wednesday evening.

DR. AND MRS. MASSEY
Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Massey will attend the concert of Sousa's Band in Medford on next Wednesday evening to which a number of local people have made plans to attend.

LEES TO ATTEND
Mr. and Mrs. Will Lee are among the local residents who plan to motor to hear Sousa's Band which is in the valley city on that date.

VISITING SMITHS
Mrs. Alene Saunders, formerly of this city, the daughter of Sam Smith, one of the well known residents of Klamath county is the house guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roberick Smith. Mrs. Saunders makes her home in southern California. Her visit here is welcomed by her hosts of friends.

Now They Aren't Speaking

When Mrs. Virginia Le Gette married Wilbur Le Gette in 1920 she was a rich San Francisco society woman. Now she is prosecuting him for obtaining money under false pretenses and suing for annulment of her marriage, charging that he hadn't divorced his first wife when he married her.

DELPHIAN CLUB TUESDAY
The Delphian, one of the outstanding clubs of the city, will hold its next meeting on Tuesday afternoon, January 19, at the hotel White Pelican in the Sun Room, promptly at the hour of 2:15, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Don Zumwalt.

The evening class, under the leadership of Mrs. Rachael Solomon, will meet at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jones on High on Wednesday evening, January 20.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. John C. Boyle will give a book review of "The Perennial Bachelor" by Ann Parish. Being one of the most interesting of books of the year, much interest is being shown in the review which Mrs. Boyle is to give.

Miss Marian Martin will give two piano numbers.

THE WEATHER
The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy shows that the pressure has been falling slowly for nearly 48 hours—a very good indication of an approaching storm.

Forecast for next 24 hours:
Cloudy and unsettled with conditions favorable for rain or snow. Moderate temperatures.

The Thermos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperature as follows:
High—37 Low—21

U. S. Weather Report
Oregon: Rain over west, probably rain or snow in east portion tonight and Friday. Warmer in the interior tonight. Strong southerly winds, probably gales along the coast.

HUNTERS MOTOR SOUTH
Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill Hunter left late this afternoon for Ashland to catch the southbound train for San Francisco where they plan to spend the coming two weeks on a pleasure trip. While south they will visit various southern points and will be the guests of relatives and friends.

PACIFIC TELEPHONE MEN
In the interests of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, M. J. Lamb, district plant chief, with headquarters in Eugene, and H. C. Britton, chief testboard man of Portland, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday. They expect to return north this evening.

PINE TREE Theatre

On The Screen Blanche Sweet and Ronald Colman —in— "His Supreme Moment"	On The Stage Machedon Brothers "Comedy Bar"
Wenzel "Xylophonist"	Raymond & Ann "Ventriloquist Novelty"
Miller & Rainey "Comic Oddities"	Connor Troupe "An Evening at Home"

If you like—
Thrilling Melodrama
Unusual Romance
Exquisite Colors
Then don't miss this picture.

Two Full Shows
Each Evening
Vaudeville at 7:15 and 9:15

Don't Discard Your Worn Tires

If they have a sound body we can retread them. If they are injured or rock cut we can repair them and see that they give you service.

All our work guaranteed.
At The

ACE TIRE SHOP

115 South Eleventh
Phone 843