

Charles Inman Is Not Guilty, Jury Decides

Three men, constituting the jury which sat in judgment on Charles Inman, charged with driving an automobile while drunk, declared Inman not guilty early last evening. The verdict came after two hours of deliberation and after a morning and part of the afternoon of wrangling and scuffling that kept the audience in throes of laughter all day long. The jury was made up of Frank Mills, Ernest Nitchelm and John Verling.

Rotary Supports Civic Measure

Rotarians yesterday voted their support to city tree planting, better street lighting, improvement of the Linkville cemetery, and the condemning of shacks and other eye-sores of the community which affect the general appearance of the city. The civic club will hold a ladies' night some time in February, with an extensive dinner and also plans to hold joint meetings with the Kiwanis club. The honeymoon is over when he finds it might be best to lie to her about a few things.

Fighters Will Wind Up Their Training Work With Workouts At Scandia Sunday Afternoon

Willie Keeler and Frank Farmer all Ready to Tear Into Each Other Tuesday Evening;—Indian Battle Promises To be Hard Fought

Final public workouts by the boys who take part in Tuesday night's fight card will be held tomorrow afternoon at Scandia hall, starting at 2:30. Willie Keeler and his sparring partners will go through their paces for an hour, and then Frank Farmer and his brave boxing mates will finish the afternoon's entertainment. Both Farmer and Keeler are all hopped up and raring to go for their 10-round main event battle, with fans just about evenly divided on their predictions of the outcome. Keeler has promised to stand up and fight blow for blow with the Tacoma veteran, and if he hews to this line of action there's liable to be a knockout at any stage of the argument.

F. Way Will Be Released Here

Frank Way will be freed from the iron bars and star, symbolic of the law, in Klamath Falls, instead of in Salem, according to word received here late yesterday afternoon. Way, who was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of Tim Murphy, was admitted to bail pending an appeal to the state supreme court. He will be brought to Klamath Falls, bondsmen will be secured and he will be released, temporarily at least, by Judge A. L. Leavitt.

Musician Will Give Lessons

DeLap Family Holds Reunion

The DeLap tribe, a large family, last night gathered at the home of the heads of that family, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap, in their new home at 885 Eldorado street in Hot Springs addition, to commemorate and celebrate the veteran county clerk's 63th birthday. It was a family gathering and a great celebration.

C. R. DeLap was born January 17, 1857, two years prior to the time that the territory of Oregon was admitted to statehood. He is a pioneer of Oregon and an old-time public official.

When C. R. DeLap completes the term of office for which he was elected at the last general election, he will have served Klamath county for 20 years and six months.

Those present at the birthday party included Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap, Mr. and Mrs. Perry O. DeLap, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. DeLap, Mr. and Mrs. Chester H. DeLap, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd R. DeLap, Miss Ruth DeLap, Miss Wilmoth DeLap, Mrs. Della Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Borland, Mrs. Ella McMillan and Mrs. Edna White.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil DeLap of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. True H. DeLap of Richmond, Calif., and Miss Octavia DeLap, teacher in the Richmond high school, were the only members of the family not in attendance.

Mr. DeLap received a beautiful gold watch from his family; he has the best wishes from his host of friends throughout Klamath county for many more happy birthdays.

Mill and Hall to Be Used By Stars

Altamont hall and McCollum's mill on the Klamath river will be throbbing with activity next week for it is at these two places that James A. Spearing and William Crinley will direct the filming of the Universal picture, "Crashing Timber."

The film stars accompanied by all the accouterments and the like, which in all will make up a party of 50, are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls tomorrow night. Arrangements have been made whereby a complement of timber "beasts" will be on hand to do their stuff and furnish local color to the picture.

News of the arrival of the Universal Film company, and a second film company, was received in Klamath Falls early yesterday afternoon in an Associated Press dispatch from Los Angeles. The cotirig of film stars in the first squadron from Los Angeles will include such names as Kenneth Harlan, Henry B. Walthal, Dewitt Jennings and Billy Kent Chaffer, child star. In the second aggregation which will leave for Klamath Falls January 25, will be Jack Daugherty and Blanche Mehassey.

STREET NAMES ARE CHANGED

Streets were divested of names and plans were laid for establishing a systematic street naming system in Klamath Falls, at a special meeting of the city council last night. In one instance, one street had six names. The council committee, will meet once again to complete its work of straightening out the tangle before turning the matter over to City Attorney J. H. Carnahan, for the drafting of ordinance which would correct the faults.

WASHINGTON.—"The monument is still there." Such was the remark of President Coolidge as he glanced out a window when his attention was called to the discussion on the habits of George Washington.

Farmer won his reputation as a singer because of his inclination to stand up and fight it out with any of the big boys. There's no question but that this will be a hectic battle with the result in doubt probably until one of them drops.

Word from Chiloquin and other points on the reservation is to the effect that the fans of that section will be down in force to see the battle between Jack Crim and Wilbur Harrington, both Indians. Harrington will be a favorite among the Indians because he is a member of the Klamath tribe while Crim is a Medoc. It wasn't so many months ago that Crim announced to the world that he was a Medoc and proud of it, and Harrington has been chosen by the Redskins to wipe the confident smile off the face of the shifty Medoc fighter.

Both boys have been promised bigger fights if they win over the other, and with a larger purse promised, they will both go in there Tuesday night to do or die.

Joe Walters will look like a new fighter altogether when he squares off again Jim O'Dowd in the four round special. Walters will be outweighed several pounds, but this means nothing in the young life of the slugging middleweight, who is now ready to go at top speed for four cantos, and if one of these boys doesn't drop before the four rounds are up, then the dope sheet is badly wrong.

A four-round curtain raiser will complete the card, making it 24 rounds of about the hardest fighting seen in these parts for many moons. Advance seat sales are reported as far above the average, with prospects of a crowded hall.

W. A. Lodge Wins Kiwanis Prize

Something new in the line of persuasion, introduced by Pat Burke, local insurance man, proved a decided success at the Kiwanis club luncheon. Burke announced at a recent meeting of the club, that all members that had paid up their dues by a certain date, would be eligible to compete for the $1000 insurance prize, W. A. Lodge, manager of the Big Basin Lumber company was the successful man.

One More Case of Meningitis Found

One more case of spinal meningitis, the first in 14 days, was reported late yesterday to the Klamath county health unit office. The case which had been under observation for several days, was definitely found to be meningitis in the laboratory of Dr. Paul Sharp.

The patient is Mrs. Millard Smith, aged 17, who resides on Tenth and Walnut streets. A spinal puncture was taken and an examination revealed the meningitis germ.

At the PINE TREE

"I'll show you the Town," the feature starring Reginald Denny, coming to the Pine Tree theatre, Sunday is the screen version of Elmer Davis' sensational novel of the same name.

This picture is one of the greatest laughing successes of the year, showing Denny in the role of a woman-hating college professor of thirty, who tries to get an endorsement for the impoverished college from a wealthy widow. In attempting to win her favor, he wins her heart, and complications begin to set in with the girl he expects to marry and two others whom he has promised to "show the town."

Entertaining three women at once in the same cafe, each woman being unaware of the others' existence, is a problem which he answers by the expedient of having himself paged every five minutes. It results in many screamingly funny situations.

Being pressed for time in his many sided courtships, he manages to show one woman the town in a very few minutes by means of an airplane.

In one of the scenes, laid in a fashionable beauty parlor, where the homely widow is seen to go through all the processes of being made beautiful, there is a beauty parade of the latest Paris creations, adding charm to a picture packed with thrills and laughs.

Denny is supported by a notable cast including Marian Nixon, Edward Kimball, Lilyan Tashman, Hayden Stevenson, Classy Fitzgerald, Margaret Livingston, Neely Edwards, William A. Carroll, Martha Mattox, Helen Greene and Lionel Braham. Harry A. Pollard directed the production.

No Axe to Grind

Perhaps your tire problem has to do with air pressures; perhaps you wonder whether you should equip with low-pressure tires of standard size, or balloons.

We are in a position to advise you fairly and without prejudice because Racine builds—and we sell—both kinds.

Moreover, both kinds equally uphold RACINE'S reputation for building first-quality products only.
