Compare Prices

We want you to compare the price we ask you with the price you have been paying—do not simply compare a few items, compare them all—compare them every day in the week.

Remember we sell you all you want—we make no limits—there is no strings tied to our merchandise—our store is equipped to handle half the business in this county and do it at a small cash price.

You only pay the maintenance of one store when you patronize us—you pay no bad accounts because we do no credit business.

Its the price you pay for each item your purchase each day in the week that counts

MERRILLS FROM MERRILL

It wasn't long ago, that Merrill was naught but a sagebrush flat. It is not a particularly old town as Klamath, not nearly as ancient as Keno, Fort Klamath or Bonanza. But that is no criterion of its growth as it is one of the most prosperous and stable farming communities in southern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merrill, who which the farming community is are members of the family after named, were visitors in Klamath Falls today. They arrived last night.

Suffering from a malady on which no definite diagnosis has yet been pronounced, little Jack Hershberger, aged 14 months, is seriously ill, according to reports today. The little boy, whose father is the owner of the Club cafe, has been dangerously ill, but rallied slightly this afternoon. The Hershberger family resides at Tenth and Washington.

Have you tried the
"Minute Method"
of washing?

We call our finished service the "minute method" because it reduces washing and ironing to just the minute it takes to call us on the telephone. "Finished" is the finest of laundry services—everything is carefully washed and beautifully pressed. No work—no worry—no staying in the house—just call us and washday is over in a minute.
