

Mainly . About . People

RETURN TO MAKE HOME

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Warren and son Scott, for many years residents of U.S., have returned to Klamath Falls to make their future home. The past few years the Warren family has been living at Redding, California. They will be welcomed back to Klamath county by many friends.

JOHN MARTIN BETTER

Friends of John Martin of the Acme Motor company will be glad to learn he is about the streets today for the first time in several days. He has been confined to his room at the hotel Hall suffering with an attack of la grippe.

OLD FRIENDS MEET

Going through the hardships of a Kansas cyclone, a good many years ago in which J. Z. Wing lost his mother and sister, as well as being financially ruined, J. R. Couger and Mr. Wing are this week enjoying a visit after many years of separation.

In the meantime, Couger has located in business in Spokane, while Mr. Wing is located in Ashland. Both gentlemen spent Thursday and Friday in the city, visiting with Mr. Wing's brother, A. J. Wing, who is in the lumber business at Algoma.

SHOPPING FROM BONANZA

Mrs. L. D. Burke is shopping in the city this afternoon from the Burke home at Bonanza.

TO MEDFORD

Ed. Geary, who with his brother Everett Geary is developing a huge tract of fertile land in Wacoma valley, is spending several days in Medford visiting with his many friends there and attending to business matters. Mr. Geary is expected back tomorrow or Monday.

JACK HUNT BACK

After an absence of several days, Jack Hunt, local representative of the California Cattleman's association returned last night from the Rogue River valley country. Mrs. Hunt accompanied Mr. Hunt as far as Medford and took a north-bound train to Portland, where she will visit with friends and relatives.

SHOPPING FROM ALGOMA

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Masters of Algoma are shopping and visiting with friends in the city today.

SNYDER CHILD BETTER

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder is reported as very much improved today. For the past ten days the child has been in a critical condition suffering with intestinal flu.

LUCAS ARE LEAVING

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lucas of the Lucas Furniture store will leave tomorrow morning for San Francisco. Mr. Lucas will attend the National Buyers' week in the bay city this coming week. They are making the trip by train.

Mr. Lucas recently returned from Holbrook, Kansas, where he has been for the past three weeks, called east by the death of his mother.

MRS. HODGES ILL

Suffering from complications following an operation for appendicitis Mrs. B. J. Hodges was taken to the Klamath Valley hospital on Friday. Her condition shows improvement today.

REEDER FROM MERRILL

U. E. Reeder, president of the Federated board, arrived in the city about noon today from his home on Merrill road to attend the meeting of the board this afternoon at the chamber of commerce.

CHILQUIN BUSINESS MAN

Alfred B. Castel of the firm of Castel and Utter of Fort Klamath spent Friday in the city attending to business matters.

BURKES LEAVING

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Burke expect to leave Monday for La Grande where they will attend the parish convention of the Episcopal churches.

TAKES BODY SOUTH

Accompanying the body of her mother, Mrs. Callie Langner south to Sacramento for burial, Mrs. O. M. Hector left for the south on the Friday morning train.

CONDITION IMPROVED

The condition of Mrs. E. D. Truelove shows slight improvement today, according to word from the family home at 1903 High street. Mrs. Truelove has been ill for some time past.

POT LUCK DINNER

Following church services at the First Christian church tomorrow noon, a pot luck luncheon will be served in the basement of the church.

Mrs. Rachael Applegate Solomon is chairman of the committee in charge of the luncheon.

VISITORS FROM ETNA

Mrs. Tillie Marvin with her son and daughter, Norman and Lena, are visiting in Klamath Falls today from their home at Etna, California. While here Mrs. Marvin is looking after business interests.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS

Nearly 75 of the young people of the city attended the social rally of the Christian and First Presbyterian churches last evening. Light refreshments were served at six-thirty. At eight o'clock the young people attended the basket ball game between Honley and Klamath Falls at the American Legion building.

STALLCOPE LOCATES HERE

F. S. Stallcope connected with the Mason-Ehrman wholesale grocery concern, with headquarters in Portland, has been transferred to Klamath Falls.

VISITING IN MEDFORD

Mildred Bailey motored to Medford on Friday afternoon to spend the week end visiting with Mrs. Billie Leonard Bell.

W. O. SMYTH HERE

W. O. Smyth of Hilderbrand, a well known resident of that section, arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days here to attend to business matters. Mr. Smyth, by sound at least, bears the same name as W. O. Smyth of Klamath Falls. But one name has an I and the other a Y, which is the only difference. Mr. Smyth of Hilderbrand stopped at the Hall hotel.

DOWN FROM KIRK

Mrs. C. G. Simonson of Kirk, who conducts the principal hotel and store at the lumber center north of Chilquien, arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days here, visiting with her friends and attending to business matters.

LUMBERMAN HERE

George Hoffman of the Algoma Lumber company is in the city on business yesterday. He is an official of the company.

FROM MODOC POINT

Mrs. Joe Ball spent yesterday in the city shopping from her home at Modoc Point.

WAKEFIELD GOES SOUTH

H. S. Wakefield left Friday afternoon for San Francisco on a business trip.

MRS. SHULMIRE SHOPPING

Mrs. E. A. Shulmire shopped in the city yesterday from her home in the Miller Hill district.

TICHSOR HERE

H. J. Tichnor, dairyman and rancher of the Langell valley district, is in town today on business matters.

MRS. ALLEN IMPROVES

After being confined to her home at 2036 Garden avenue for the past two weeks, suffering with spinal meningitis, Mrs. Anita Allen is well on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Vogel. Her many friends will be happy to learn she is improving from her serious illness.

MANNINGS TO LEAVE

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Manning of 429 North Ninth left this morning for San Francisco, where they will spend two weeks on a pleasure trip. They went by train.

LOCATES HERE

B. A. Edmundson of Eugene has located permanently in Klamath Falls, accepting a position with a local lumber concern this week.

MRS. ANDERSON BETTER

Mrs. W. R. Anderson is able to be about after a week's illness with a severe attack of la grippe.

If You Associate Pleasure with Dining come to the

CLUB CAFE

534-36 Main

Moderate Prices Prompt Service

Failing Eyesight

Means loss of producing power, that creative energy so necessary to success. Let us fit you with convenient, comfortable, energy-saving glasses, that will look well and do well, thus enhancing your value to your employer and to yourself.

Dr. Goble

700 Main St.

We grind the glasses in our own factory to suit each individual requirement.

REPAIRS—QUICK SERVICE

GOES TO MEDFORD

Mrs. Mildred Bailey left this afternoon for Medford where she will spend the week-end on a pleasure trip. She will be the guest of Mrs. Billie Leonard Bell while in the valley city.

MAGUIRE SENIOR AWAY

J. F. Maguire, Sr., of Maguire and Maguire, left on this morning's train for Portland where he was called on business. His trip north will keep him away for at least a week.

GOODING ON BUSINESS

H. S. Gooding, formerly one of the well known business men of Klamath Falls, who recently moved to Ashland with his family, was in the city today looking after his extensive property interests here.

VISITING RYANS

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Keacher of Stacey, Minnesota, arrived in Klamath Falls last evening to visit for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ryan on Alameda.

Mrs. Keacher and Mrs. Ryan are sisters. In the eastern state, Mr. Keacher is prominently identified with the drill pickle business, owning one of the largest factories in the state.

The eastern visitors are enroute home from an extended visit of the Pacific coast states.

EASTERN STAR PARTY

Tuesday evening the Aloha chapter of the eastern star will enjoy a valentine party following the lodge session which is called for eight o'clock.

At The Churches

Grace Methodist Church
10th and High streets
9:45 a. m. church school. Classes for everybody.

11:00 a. m. morning worship. Subject: "Education and Religion." Special music by the choir.

7:30 p. m. evening worship. Subject: "The Assurance of Immortality." Luther Burbank, the "Plant Wizard" of California has declared his doubt that there is a future life. What assurance have we that there is any? Special music. Everybody invited. A cordial invitation is given to strangers, especially.
Thos. D. Yarnes, Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church
Sixth and Pine Streets.
10 a. m. church school.

11 a. m. morning worship. Sermon especially for the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 2, "Life's Blueprint." Anthem: "On Life's Highway." Bertrand-Brown. Organ selections: "Prayer," Caprell, "Largo" Handel.

6:30 p. m. Intermediate and Young People's C. E.
7:30 p. m. Evening worship. Organ numbers: "March" Jetrall, "Berecuse" Dennee, "Traumerel" Schumann. Anthem: "God So Loved the World" Stainer. Sermon: "New Lives for Old."

Arthur L. Rice, Minister.

Community Sunday School

The rapidly growing section of our city known as Mills Addition has long felt the need of having a Christian service and Sunday school of their own. Several meetings held recently under the auspices of the Parent Teachers' association have resulted in the definite announcement that a beginning will be made on Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock when the Rev. J. W. Price, a Congregational minister working under the Home Missionary Society of that church will speak to the parents and children of Mills district. Mr. J. P. Wells, Supt. of city schools has loaned one the school rooms for this purpose. A special talk is being prepared for the children that attend this first Sunday by Ross H. Price.

Rev. J. W. Price, Pastor.

Immanuel Baptist Church

Bible school, Sunday 9:45 a. m. Watch us grow! Enthusiasm and attendance increase with each meeting as a result of a trip to Palestine.

Slogan: Every member on time with Bible in hand.

Prayer service, Wednesday evening 7:30. Interesting subjects with a capable leader.

First Christian Church

Ninth and Pine.
Sunday school 10 a. m.
Church service 11 a. m.
Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m.
Sermon text 1st Peter, 2nd chapter, 4th verse: Unto whom coming a living stone rejected indeed of man but with God elect.

J. W. Bryant, Acting Pastor.

NOW IN ST. LOUIS

Miss Gertrude Eckman, of The Gertrude Shop in St. Louis at the present according to word received from her by Miss Cecilia McMahon, in charge of the shop while Miss Eckman is away. Miss Eckman attended the fashion reviews in New York City and enroute home will visit in Chicago. She expects to return to Klamath Falls about the first of March.

SABIN LEAVES TODAY

Lynn P. Sabin of the chamber of commerce left this morning for Grants Pass to meet Mrs. Sabin who has been visiting in Portland and Grants Pass for the past fortnight. They will return to Klamath Falls on Sunday evening.

ADAMS FROM OLENE

Charles Adams, one of Oleene's well known ranchers is about the streets today. Mr. Adams is in on business matters.

George G. Schmidt, reading just over the line from Merrill, is on business in Klamath Falls today. Mr. Schmidt registered his car at the chamber of commerce, his license being from California on account of living just over the boundary.

FALLS MERCANTILE MEN LEAVE

Robert Amcke and George E. Fife of The Falls Mercantile store will leave tomorrow morning for San Francisco and Los Angeles to purchase the latest modes in wearing apparel for their store. The merchants expect to be south for at least two weeks. They are making the trip by train.

At the LIBERTY

TONIGHT ONLY

"A DESPERATE GAME"

featuring Pete Morrison. It's a speedy western drama.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

REX The Wild Horse in Black Cyclone

A Story to Thrill You! Amaze You! Hold You Spellbound! To make you grip the arm of your theater chair and feel the mighty drama of the primitive!

Continuous show beginning at 1:00 o'clock
Don't made a mistake—This is a man-size picture!

MRS. TELFORD LEAVING

Mrs. Lenora Telford left today for Severy, Kansas, on an extended visit. At Pueblo, Colo. Mrs. Telford expects to spend several weeks visiting with friends.

MEDFORD BUSINESS VISITOR

J. T. Breuner of Medford is looking after business interests in Klamath Falls today from the valley town.

PINE TREE Theatre

TONIGHT ONLY

Bert Lytell in "Sporting Life"

A Racy, Flashing Whirl of Sporting Thrills!

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Can You Prove You're Single?

What would YOU do if you found a little beauty eating at your table and asserting she was your wife? Well, neither did Denny. See this bachelor's nightmare, it's full of new laugh wrinkles.

REGINALD DENNY
UNIVERSAL STAR

REGINALD DENNY

"WHERE WAS I?"

Continuous Show Special Music by the Beginning at 1:00 p. m. Pine Tree Orchestra

Coming next week Viola Dana's greatest picture
"WINDS OF CHANCE"

The HEALING HAND

It will pay you to investigate my Chiropractic Health Service

Dr. O. H. Mather

715 Main St.

Phone 404

Opposite Pine Tree

What does the passing public know about you?

They know that your appearance attests the respect you have for the regard of others. Your esteem for the kindly consideration of those you meet, is measured by the manner in which you present yourself to them. The man who instinctively feels that such a consideration on his part is but a natural responsibility succeeds in matters where real qualities count.

Dress Well and Succeed

J. A. Goldsmith Merchant Tailor

Upstairs Suite 309 Winters Building