

A laugh is just like sunshine,
It freshens all the day;
It tips the peak of life with light And drives the clouds away.

The soul grows glad that bears it And feels its courage strong,
A laugh is just like sunshine
For cheering folks along.

A laugh is just like music,
It lingers in the heart,
And where its melody is heard The ill of life depart.

And happy thoughts come crowding
Its joyous notes to greet;
A laugh is just like music
For making living sweet.

TOMORROW, February fourteenth, comes the day sacred to St. Valentine, with his hearts and darts and merry little Cupids always engaged in fitting arrows into cartishly shaped bows, that could not by any possibility be made to work.

We grown-ups have become a little tired of the frivolous saint of late years, and have turned him over to the children for whom he makes an ideal companion for just one day of the year.

February, the shortest month in the year is generally one of the gayest, with special dancing parties and home affairs. Friday evening marked one of the gayest of these affairs, when residents of the social set of Klamath Falls enjoyed the mask costume ball at the hotel White Pelican. This was the birthday of our beloved and great Lincoln.

On the twenty-second the anniversary of the birth of George Washington. A thrill of pride and patriotism fills the heart of every true American at the mere mention of these names. It turns out thoughts to the great work of Americanization and our feelings of gratitude to the brave boys who fought and died overseas that Democracy might live.

Incidentally, this month is the connecting link with spring and a-ready thoughts are beginning to turn to spring flowers and spring clothes and millinery.

The Lenten period begins unusually early this year, February 17, is Ash Wednesday and the penitential period of forty days seems at the present writing to hold out little promise for special gayeties.

Those of us who have not taken advantage of the social lull to get away to southern resorts will be occupied with typical Lenten charities and diversions.

The housewife and the business woman may each have their hours of independence, when they can do nothing or do what they please, but to "keep up" in society, one must be active, continually on the merry-go-round of social activities and Lent comes as a welcome respite.

MEN are like chairs; they vary in shape and size, but all can be sat on. Some men are like mahogany chairs, they lose their polish after a little while.
Some are like chippendale chairs, they need delicate handling. Some are like plush upholstered chairs, one just cannot stand them on a hot day. Others still are like parliamentary seats, they just simply have to be won. Some married men are like chairs, they always have to be dragged about. And finally, most men are like rocking chairs, they put you to sleep.

NOUDES ENTERTAIN WITH DINNER PARTY

MR. and Mrs. Byron Noud were host and hostess with a delightful dinner party on Thursday evening at their home on Ninth.

COSTUME BALL AT PELICAN BRILLIANT AFFAIR

THE outstanding event on the social calendar was the St.
Valentine mask ball at the Hotel White Pelican Friday evening when more than three hundred guests enjoyed dancing from the hour of nine until one, to the strains of delightful dance music furnished by the Tantalizers. The affair eclipsed all previous local social functions of its kind in size and elegance.

Promptly at the hour of eleven strains of the grand march were heard and the more than three hundred guests started their promenade about the beautifully decorated ball room, so that the judges might decide upon the most beautiful as well as the most humorous costume for which prizes were awarded.

Dainty Mrs. James Spearing was awarded the prize as the most beautifully gowned woman, dressed as "Imagination" from the much talked of play "The Memory Hour," this being her own phantasy, written under her own name, Edna Mead.
From her wig of jet black to her silver slippers she carried out the idea in its entirety.

Miss Kitty Barlow, cleverly gowned as Cupid, was given the prize as the most humorously costumed guest.

Wee Billy Kent Schaeffer presented the prizes, to Mrs. Spearing a huge basket of red carnations and pussy willows, to Miss Barlow a Valentine box of sweets.

Miss Viola Dana, Mrs. Schaeffer, Miss Addie Jenkins, Mr. Zed Barnes, Mr. Johnny Matto and Billy Kent Schaeffer gave special numbers, each giving his or her own impersonation of the Charleston. Each number was well received by the guests, encores repeatedly being called for.

From eleven until midnight a buffet supper was served under the crystal chandeliers in the far east corner of the ball room. W. R.
Drew, chef, having excelled himself in preparing delicious refreshments.
Punch was served throughout the entire evening to the guests.

A number of out-of-town guests were among those attending the affair.

Miss Lois Bynon, Mr. William Crinley of Universal Films, and Helene Breitenstein were judges.

LOVELY BRIDGE PARTIES AT McPHERREN HOME

TWO of the most attractive Valentine bridge parties of the past week were presided over by Mrs. W.
H. McPherron on Thursday evening and again this afternoon at her home on Wantland. Four tables were in play at each of the affairs. Low crystal bowls of red carnations and jonquills carried out a color scheme of red and yellow with the Valentine motif predominating in the decorations as well as the score cards and refreshments, which were served at the small tables concluding the game. Individual silver candle sticks with tall red cathedral tapers were attractively placed about the rooms.

On Thursday evening favors were awarded to Mrs. H. D. Newell who held high score. Mrs. Dave McAuliffe was a close second and the consolation fell to Mrs. Walter West.

Mrs. H. D. Newell and Mrs. Carl Schubert assisted the hostess on both occasions.

The guest list for Thursday included: Mesdames R. E. Dewesse, David McAuliffe, E. M. Igl, Walter West, Floyd McMillan, R. D. Bussard, Newell, Louis Bradford, B. L. Hardenbrook, A. E. Whitman, John C.

Boyle, Joe Brett, Z. Powell, Del Gammon, Don J. Zumwalt and George Stevenson.

Those invited this afternoon were Mesdames E. E. Magee, George Walton, A. F. Graham, Joe Avery, Victor Palmer, T. R. Skillington, V. E.
Parker, Roderick Smith, James Bishop Foster, G. Newsom, J. B. Noud, S. R. Berry, W. A. Owings, H. Foster, Burt Hawkins, James Driscoll and Miss Margaret Maguire.

MONDAY afternoon Mrs. W. H.
McPherron will entertain at her home on Wantland with the third of a series of bridge affairs.
Four tables will be in play. On Thursday evening Mrs. McPherron entertained with four tables and again this afternoon was hostess.

VALENTINE DANCING PARTY AT LINDLEY HOME TONIGHT

A RED LETTER event on this week's social calendar will be the dancing party this evening over which Miss Katherine Lindley and ly invited to attend.

VALENTINE PARTY GIVEN MEMBERS OF EASTERN STAR

ON Tuesday evening, following the regular lodge session of Aloha chapter of the Eastern Star, a delightful Valentine party was enjoyed. Valentine games were enjoyed and prizes were awarded. Mrs.
H. G. Wortley, worthy matron, presented each guest with a Valentine.
The Valentine motif was carried out in the dainty refreshments which were served at the conclusion of the games in the dining room.

Close to seventy-five members enjoyed the affair. The next regular session of the local chapter will be held on Tuesday evening, February sixteenth.

MOTHERS ARE GUESTS OF SONS AT BANQUET

UNIQUE APRON PARTY PROVES ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

ONE of the most unique and delightful affairs on this weeks social calendar was the Apron party at the home of Mrs. A. B. Epperson on Thursday afternoon, for the ladies of the Presbyterian auxiliary.
Invitations were sent out in the form of dainty voile aprons in which a wee pocket was made. This packet to hold a penny for each inch the matron's waist measure amounted to.
From this unusual idea the auxiliary realized twenty-nine dollars and ninety-four cents. Apron stories were composed and read which caused much merriment.

Games pertaining to aprons carried out the afternoons entertainment. For the best apron made, Mrs. Arthur Grubb was awarded first honors. In the guessing of materials, Mrs. A. C. Winnard took first honors while Mrs. J. V. Houston received first honors for the most becoming apron worn during the afternoon.

At the conclusion of the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served to more than forty guests.

TRY CLUB ENJOYS PATRIOTIC PROGRAM

The Try club of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a patriotic program on Thursday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs.
A. L. Rice on Second and Jefferson.
During the early part of the evening a Lincoln program was carried out, followed with patriotic games.
The guests divided into three companies, A, B and C. Colored caps of red, white and blue were worn by the groups and the games throughout the evening were contested. The group wearing red caps under the leadership of Jack Simpson took high honors.

For the occasion the Rice home was decorated in flags with glowing red and blue tapers used about the rooms, to carry out the patriotic motif.

Twenty-nine of the club members were present. At the close of the evening light refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club is to be on March eighteenth.

DINNER PARTY HONORS MR. AND MRS. LINMAN

A coterie of close friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Linman, Jr., honored the young couple on Sunday evening, when they gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lin-man, Sr., at Shippington for a delightful dinner party. A color note of yellow was used in decoration.
Centering the prettily appointed dinner table was a wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs.
John Linman, Jr., the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. John Totten, Mr. and Mrs.
Martin McAndrews, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Howard, Mrs. C. A. Patterson, Miss Louise Cattuzza, Miss Dehila McGrath, Miss Bernardine Hannon, Father A. F. Looser, John McAn-drews, Martin McGrath and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Linman, Sr.

Tuesday evening the P. E. O. club will hold their regular business meeting at the home of Mrs. Calob Jones.

KEDRON CLUB HOLDS STUDY HOUR THURSDAY

MRS. J. F. DAGGETT and Mrs.
F. K. Hamblett were joint hostesses to the members of the Kedron club on Thursday evening, when they met for their regular session in the church. The program carried out, covered the study hour, being brief, so as to enable members to attend the monologue program in the church parlors, in which William Leo Greenleaf appeared.

GUESTS FROM VARIOUS CHAPTERS TO BE HERE

WITH guests from various chapters throughout Oregon present, including Benjamin Ostlund, president of the Longfellows of Oregon, the local chapter will be hosts with a dinner on Monday evening at the hotel White Pelican.

MRS. POINDEXTER TO TALK BEFORE SOCIETY

THE American Indian, is the topic upon which Mrs. Poindexter will speak, when she appears before the missionary society of the First Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon at the Rice home on Second and Jefferson.

For a number of years Mrs.
Poindexter lived in South America and her talk before the society gives promise of being one of much interest.

Indian music will be rendered during the afternoon's program. At the door of the Rice home, Indian maidens will greet the guests.

Mrs. W. J. Horbelt, Mrs. Fred E.
Fleet and Mrs. A. L. Rice will be hostesses. The meeting is called
