Pelican City Shooters Will Meet Tomorrow

Public Invited to Learn Delights of Pigeon Bursting

Invitation to the general public has been issued by the Pelican City Gun club which meets tomorrow for the first time at the new traps, located on the highway about a mile north of Pelican City.

Ammunition will be on hand for all who desire to try their luck. Election of club officers resulted in the selection of E. H. Pike as president, Horace Bridgford as vice president and Lee Smith as secretary-treasurer.

Plans are now under way for the building of a new club house and it is expected that construction will begin in a short time.

While cops don't make much in some towns they get their drinks free.

and the best way to reach Klamath Falls was to take a short-cut thru the mountains—and he did it.

He arrived here Friday morning after spending two nights camped out on mountain sides. The last 35 miles were made on the rim, blizzards and punctures having done their worst. In the region south of Topsy grade he was forced repeatedly to chop adobe from the radiator and wheels of his car.

"In spite of all that, I like it here," he said today.

Work will begin immediately at the Edgewood ranch preparing a standard polo field, 350 by 900 feet.

The first carload of a total shipment of nearly 30 race horses has arrived, and within a few days selection will begin of Klamath range stock for crossing purposes, the ideal polo pony being a cross between wiry range stock and thoroughbred racing horses.

Fishe was selected by Coyne to take charge of the ranch because of his wide experience.

He was secretary of the Piping Rock club on Long Island in 1913-1914. In 1913 he was goal referee in the international matches between England and America.

He was official umpire at Narragansett Pier, Rhode Island, in 1914, appointed by the American Polo Association.

From 1914 to 1921 Captain Fishe spent his time in France. In 1921 he was assistant manager of polo at Rugby, England, during the American's polo visit. In 1923 he was manager and referee at Narragansett Pier, Rhode Island.

In addition to other official positions, Captain Fishe has also found time to supervise laying out of some of the best American polo fields, including those on the Rockefeller and Harriman estates.
