

KLAMATH COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

MERRILL

John Callahan of Klamath Falls was in Merrill Friday. Mr. Callahan owns a ranch near Merrill.

T. J. LaBrie from Merrill Lake was in Merrill Friday. Mr. LaBrie had not been here for many years. He is one of the pioneers of the southern Oregon country. Mr. LaBrie is one of the survivors of the Silver Lake disaster of '24. Having lost his wife and baby in the fire at the Xmas exercises at that time. He gave a very graphic description of the disaster.

Friday evening an Easter dance was given at the community hall. Music was furnished by Lee Sallins' orchestra of Klamath Falls. There were not as many out as usual, as the farmers are all very busy at this time, but it is reported to have been a very nice dance.

The Klamath Falls high school put on their play "Safety First" at the Merrill community hall Saturday evening. It was thoroughly enjoyed by every one and considered one of the best put on for some time. There was a well filled house to see it.

Mrs. J. A. Brown and Mrs. W. H. Anderson spent Friday in the Falls, the guests of Mrs. Elmer Anderson.

Mrs. W. F. Jinnette visited in Klamath Falls Friday.

Merrill played Henley at baseball Friday afternoon at Henley. Both games were won by Henley. Messdames R. H. Anderson, R. L. Dalton and Geo. Offield took the players to Henley.

Mrs. W. F. Hill was in Klamath Falls Friday shopping.

Mrs. Clyde Barka and children spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Minnie Dillard, and attended the play given by the Klamath high school.

Mr. Woods of the Candy Kitchen is ill at his home with a severe cold.

Mrs. Jones is another of Merrill's residents who are reported ill.

Miss Margaret Tallman was in Klamath Falls Saturday to be with her sister who has been in the hospital for a week. Miss Beattie Tallman is reported to be improving rapidly.

Word has been received in Merrill from Mrs. Malone, a former resident of Merrill but now living in Washington, that she was recovering from an operation for guttre. Mrs. Malone is a sister of Geo. Offield.

There were exercises Easter Sunday throughout the day beginning with sunrise prayer meeting on the Moore hill. The sun however failed to appear. There were about twenty present. A short talk was given by Rev. Beatty. Music was furnished by Raymond Taylor and M. A. Bowman. It was enjoyed by all, and will be made an annual event.

Sunday morning the Easter exercises were held in the Presbyterian church at the hour of the regular church services. The house was well filled and everyone spoke in praise of the program. The committee for the program was Messdames C. A. Bowman, Minnie Dillard and C. N. Hawkins. The following program was given:

Talk by Rev. Beatty.
Songs.
Opening song—Burdette Dunnington.
Resurrection—12 children.
Dialogue—4 children.
Recitation—Arthur Brown.
Recitation—Jackie Ratliff.
Dialogue—Irene Anderson, Mary Ellen Stevenson.
Piano Solo—Lowell Katterhorn.
Recitation—Phyllis Jean Haskins.
At the cross—Dialogue.
"Jesus the Light of the World"
Dialogue—Iola Whifely and Audrey Kiger.
Song.

There were no services in the local Catholic church Sunday and a number attended Easter services

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How to Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.
Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant anesthetic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up and miserable. Relief is sure.

in the church at the Falls. Those attending from Merrill were Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson, Mrs. N. H. Hogue, Miss Ellen McVeigh and Miss Caroline Vaerth.

Misses Florence McClay and Gladys Anderson attended the Presbyterian church at the Falls, Easter morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson and daughters Misses Thirza and Helen Anderson attended services at the Episcopal church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson and Helen Anderson were guests at a family dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Martin in Klamath Falls.

Gus Eksman was a Klamath Falls visitor Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bailey, Donald and Billy Bailey and Mrs. M. Galeomini and John Galeomini were the guests at dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Offield in Klamath Falls.

Ivan Kilgore was called to Ashland Saturday by a message telling of the death of his father at that place. Mr. Kilgore Sr. was one of the old pioneers of Klamath county. Mr. Kilgore and family have the sympathy of the many friends in Klamath county.

MIDLAND

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scoggins and Miss Etta Scoggins spent Saturday in Klamath Falls shopping.
Verne Whitlatch is confined to his home with mumps.
Miss Hazel McClelland, county health nurse was in Merrill Thursday.

Leroy Wright returned to O. A. C. on Monday. He is a junior in agriculture, and is pledged to the Theta Epsilon fraternity.

F. W. Sexton was a visitor at Miller Hill school on Wednesday.
Lorin Calhoun and sister Lucille spent Thursday evening at the home of Charlotte Wright.

A party of young folks spent Sunday at McCollum's mill. Those accompanying the party were Misses Gwendolyn Martin, Lucille Calhoun, Lorane Lavenik, Mabel Barthelf, Alexis Lyle, Charlotte Wright, Messrs. Joe Wright Jr., Loren Calhoun, LeRoy Wright, Richard Robustelli, Hans Edwardsen, Guido Robustelli, Almond Gregory. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright.

Mrs. Wm. Hooper was a caller on the Island Tuesday.
Mrs. John Scott spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hooper.

Mrs. Edna Flowers and Mrs. J. B. Burnett were among the visitors in Klamath Falls Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burnett were in Klamath Falls on Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sutton were calling on Miller Island Friday.

Mrs. J. D. Hooper was in Klamath Falls on business Thursday.
The youngsters spent Friday gathering Easter eggs at school.
Edgar Furber was a business caller in Klamath Falls Friday.

Miss Marie Polson of Klamath Falls spent Easter at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Polson of Midland.

Albert Ball was visiting with S. L. Burnett on Sunday.

Among those attending the trap shooting at Keno Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burnett and daughter, Mrs. Turner, Opal Hooper, Mrs. Edna Flowers and family, O. Travers. Mr. Travers won several prizes at the shooting on Sunday.

Henry Cratt is leaving for Washington this week, having sold his ranch to Mr. Coe.

HILDEBRAND

T. A. Roberts returned to Hildebrand after being in Klamath Falls for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gaskill and John Thomas and James Haynes of the highway camp spent Sunday afternoon at the Michael home.

B. P. Alexander was transacting business in Klamath Falls Saturday.
Wm. H. Bliss, postmaster of Hildebrand, was transacting business in Klamath Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heilbrooner of Klamath Falls were visitors at the Ritter home Sunday.

Mrs. W. O. Smyth was taken to the Klamath Valley hospital Monday.

Joe Smyth was a visitor at the Michael home Sunday.

J. P. Calahan was a visitor at the Joe Smith ranch Sunday.

W. O. Smyth was transacting business in Klamath Falls Monday.

Resembling a surveyor's transit is an instrument that has been invented to estimate approximately the amount of lumber in a tree before it is cut down.

When driving over rough roads a soft top is just as important as a soft seat.

Lower Swan Lake

The light showers that fell Saturday and Sunday have greatly benefited the crops.

Mr. L. L. Arnett has recently purchased a car for family use.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tramel and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hilbert and family spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Stiles.

Mr. John Karney who has been living at Nine's Camp moved his family to Hildebrand the first of the week.

Mr. L. H. Minier, teacher at Upper Swan Lake, passed through here one evening last week accompanied by his father.

Roy and Glenn Leverenz, who have been on the sick list, are very much improved.

Mr. C. H. McKoen, who met with a severe accident when his ankle was injured by a rolling log at McKoen's camp last week, is reported doing well. He is in a hospital at Klamath Falls.

Lester Robin, Clifford Robins, Ralph Hutchinson and Paul Hobbs were in Klamath Falls Saturday.

Mr. L. L. Arnett and family spent Sunday in Klamath Falls.

Mr. P. E. Stiles was repairing the telephone line Saturday. He was assisted by Irving Nichols.

The box social and program given at the school house Saturday night was a splendid success and netted the school the sum of $45.25. A very interesting program in which the pupils from Upper Swan Lake joined was given. The selections consisted of recitations, pantomimes, music and dialogues. The pupils from Upper Swan Lake deserve especial credit for the way in which they rendered their pantomimes and readings. Aside from recitations and songs, the pupils and young people of Lower Swan Lake gave three very interesting dialogues. One "The Sick Baby" was given by three small children, Portia McKoen as the Mother, Ruby Arnett as Nurse and Charles McKoen as the Doctor.

Another dialogue "The School Board's Visit," had the following characters: Carl Stiles, Paul Arnett and Ralph Hutchinson, directors; Norma Stiles, teacher and Zelma Stiles, Iva Stiles, Ora Arnett, Ralph Arnett, Molly Karney, Ray Arnett, Anna Stiles, Irving Nichols and Vena Arnett, pupils. In the play "Waiting for the Doctor," characters took part. The patients consisted of the fat woman who wished to be made thin; Hank, who had hurt his foot; Mrs. White who was all worn out; Mattie, who had run a needle through her hand and thought the doctor might find "German" in it; Mrs. Wilson, who took things so easy; Mr. Lowe, who was deaf; Tom, who stuttered; Pete, with a hurry call; Mrs. Hill and Lovey and Mr. Brown, who mistook the doctor for a vetinary. The parts were taken by Norma Stiles, Clifford Stiles, Mabel Karney, Iva Stiles, Anna Stiles, Irving Nichols, Paul Arnett, Ralph Arnett, Myrtle Karney, Ora Arnett and Carl Stiles while Zelma Stiles took the part of the nurse.

A local orchestra consisting of Clifford Stiles, Ernie Robin, L. L. Arnett, Lester Robin and Iva Stiles furnished some splendid instrumental music. Mr. P. E. Stiles was auctioneer and Mr. L. L. Arnett clerk. The school appreciated the cooperation of all.

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank and E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National will serve as captains of the teams. The date of the shoot will be announced later.

Local Bankers
Plan Keno Shoot

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank and E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National will serve as captains of the teams. The date of the shoot will be announced later.

Local Bankers
Plan Keno Shoot

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank and E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National will serve as captains of the teams. The date of the shoot will be announced later.

Local Bankers
Plan Keno Shoot

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank and E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National will serve as captains of the teams. The date of the shoot will be announced later.

Local Bankers
Plan Keno Shoot

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank and E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National will serve as captains of the teams. The date of the shoot will be announced later.

Local Bankers
Plan Keno Shoot

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank and E. M. Bubb, cashier of the American National will serve as captains of the teams. The date of the shoot will be announced later.

Local Bankers
Plan Keno Shoot

The First National bank trap gunners Tuesday afternoon challenged the American National group to a shoot on the Keno grounds.

HENLEY

Two baseball games were played at Henley on Friday, April 2, between the Henley and Merrill baseball teams, both resulting in a decisive victory for Henley. The girls' score was 25 to 15 and the boys' score was 22 to 1.

Mr. A. M. Thomas of Malin was a visitor at the Central Community club on Friday night.

The Central Community club held a meeting on Friday evening, April 2. The purpose of the meeting was to appoint a committee for the management of activities in the gymnasium. Those appointed were A. R. Campbell of Pine Grove, L. B. Dawson of Fairview, Chas. Mack of Spring Lake, Jim Esell of Summers, and S. P. Dehlinger and Henry Semon of the Henley district.

The upper grades of Henley school held an Easter party in the gymnasium on Friday evening. A delightful evening was reported.

A number of the younger set motored to Chiloquin and Port Klamath on Sunday afternoon. Those of the party were the Misses Lydia Seiffert, Marjorie Reeder and June Bradbury, and Messrs. Orin Reeder, Melvin Greeley and Charles Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Blackman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Drew, and Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Reeder and family attended Easter services in Klamath Falls on Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. Campbell and small son of Pine Grove returned home from the hospital last week.

Mr. Floyd Greeley has been painting the gymnasium this week.

Miss Dorothy Short, who has been ill for the past week is reported as improved. She left on Sunday morning for Monmouth, Oregon, where she will resume her studies.

FLAPPER YACHT

NEW YORK, April 7. (AP)—One of the most palatial yachts afloat looks as flapperish as if she just had a bob. This description is given by her skipper of the Sapphire, which has just arrived from Miami, where she lost her mowsprit in collision. On the yacht, valued at $1,250,000, a long trip is being made by her owner, Urban H. Broughton of London, son in law of the late H. H. Rogers and formerly president of the Virginian railway.

Apparatus has been developed with which the effect of sea water in ten years upon condensed pipes of power plants can be tested in a few months with a salt water spray.

Shasta View

Mrs. Belle Kirkpatrick who has been ill for several days is somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Christensen and daughter Jeanette and Mrs. A. Turner were visitors at the Harry Wilson home Sunday in honor of Earl Wilson's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer and son were Sunday guests at the home of Joe Micka, Jr., and family.

Douglas Bussy was married in Ashland to Miss Elsie Crowson a short time ago and has brought his bride to his ranch home here.

Mr. James Warlow of Malin is still very ill of pneumonia. He has been ill for several days.

The Helping Hand society met with Mrs. Lida Kirkpatrick Wednesday with twenty-five ladies and three gentlemen present. Mrs. J. L. Bailey was completely surprised when the society presented her with a beautiful rocker as a token of her services as secretary-treasurer for five years. The day was enjoyably spent and a delicious dinner served by the hostess. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Alma Layman, on April 7th.

The honeymoon ends when the life insurance begins.

MT. LAKE

L. A. West and family were dinner guests of their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Griffith and family, Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Houghton and family visited with Frank Stewart Easter Sunday.

A large number attended the Easter services at Mt. Lake Sunday morning. After the services the children enjoyed an egg hunt.

Mrs. Al Durant and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Cam Dehlinger.

Easter dinner guests at the Dan Kaylor home were Mr. and Mrs. Van Meyers and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Kaylor and children and Joe Meyers.

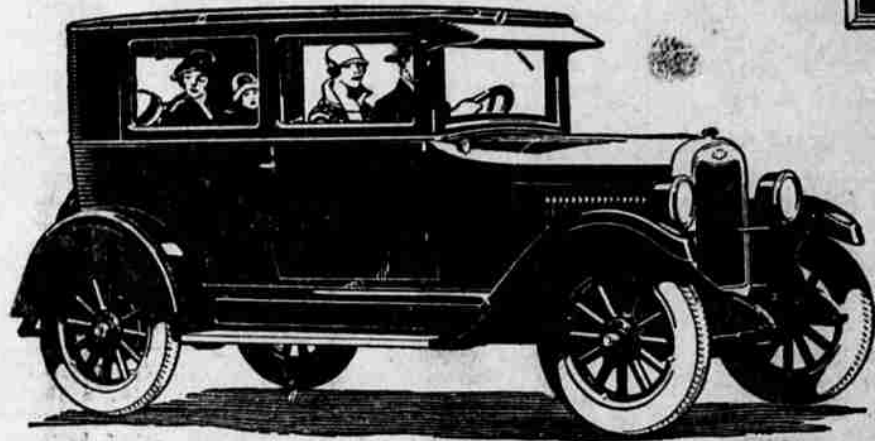

Mr. and Mrs. Will Butler and daughter Wilma and Zoe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallagher and Miss Helen Gregory, all of Klamath Falls were Easter dinner guests of H. D. Morrison and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hamilton and daughter Mildred and Neva, were dinner guests of friends in Klamath Falls Sunday.

Mrs. Otto Wabbie and Mrs. Geo. Rudolph were shopping in Merrill Tuesday.

Frank Stewart and Alex Cheyne were visitors in the city Tuesday.

for Economical Transportation

The Coach
$645
J. O. B. Flint, Michigan

Low in Price—yet has the quality features of high-priced cars

Touring $510
Roadster 510
Coupe 645
Sedan 735
Landau 765
1/2 Ton Truck 395
1 Ton Truck 550
J. O. B. Flint, Michigan

At the lowest price in Chevrolet history, this handsome, rugged coach gives you every quality feature essential to modern motoring satisfaction.

Think of buying, for only $645, a beautiful Fisher Body closed car, finished in beautiful colors of lasting Duco and offering such quality features as 3-speed transmission, balloon tires, Alemite lubrication, oil and water pumps, and Remy electric starting, lighting and ignition!

Come in! Learn how little it now costs to own and drive a quality closed car of modern design.

L. O. ARENS, Chevrolet
L. O. ARENS—CHEVROLET

Original

The original method used in applying pink felt, edged with green grain ribbon, makes this pink peanut straw hat charming for southern wear.

QUALITY AT LOW COST