Here's A Community That Thrives Because Its People Are

Boosters and Hustlers

As a guide to insure continuous growth and prosperity for our city, we are broadcasting through this page the principles for which every resident of Klamath Falls should stand.

1. Cheerfully assume his full responsibility for a clean and efficient City Government. This is the first essential to a good town.
2. Lend his full support—both moral and material—to the churches and schools of our community, for these institutions are shaping the character and lives of our next generation.
3. Give his full support and patronage to local merchants, business and professional men, for they are the service-factors of our community. They are public-spirited men, always working for a bigger and better Klamath Falls and their ability to serve depends upon the loyal support of our citizens.
4. Vote "YES" on every occasion for better roads. Good roads bring more visitors and more business to Klamath Falls. That means a better and more prosperous town.
5. Do his part toward keeping our city clean and attractive. Burn the rubbish, keep lawns mowed, walks clear, trees trimmed and houses painted. This makes for a healthy atmosphere and attracts the right sort of new citizens.
6. Be friendly and generous in thought, word and deed. Respect the rights and interests of others. Co-operation is truly the key to happiness and prosperity.
7. Meet obligations when due—one hundred cents on the dollar. Earn the confidence of neighbors and fellow-citizens.
