

Goodbye breakfast blues!

The first fragrant whiff of M-J-B—and breakfast blues go up in thin air! M-J-B proceeds to set you right with the world—and yourself! Not because M-J-B is simply coffee—but because it is coffee contentment. There's a big, happy difference!

The cheering warmth, the friendship, you expect in your breakfast cup is always there. For M-J-B is the coffee of constant flavor!

M-J-B
meets every taste in coffee

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

ZION LUTHERAN SALE

Plans have been completed by the ladies of the Zion Lutheran church for the cooked food and apron sale Saturday at Hale's store. Posters have been placed, announcing the sale.

ARRIVING TONIGHT

Miss Neva O. Betz from the National Child Health association of New York city is expected to arrive in the city tonight. Tomorrow Miss Betz will speak to the Henley high school students and before the luncheon of the Kiwanis club. On Friday she will speak at the Bonanza high school and Friday evening at the chamber of commerce, to which the public is invited.

LUMBERMAN LEE BACK

Frank T. Lee, local lumberman, has returned from a trip which kept him in the northern part of the state for several days. Mrs. Lee returned with her husband to Portland, to be with her mother, who is in poor health.

BABY GIRL BORN

Mildred Joanna was the name given the baby girl born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Massey at the family home on East Main. The child weighed seven pounds.

AT GRANTS PASS

Mrs. M. McDonald, Mrs. J. Hershberger and Mrs. R. Hunsaker spent Tuesday at Grants Pass on a combined business and pleasure trip.

HARTS VISIT CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Hart and family of the Shaw - Bertram company spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls.

TEA CUP CLUB TOMORROW

Members and friends of the Tea Cup club are invited to attend the social afternoon in the First Methodist church parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

CLASS HOLDS FINAL MEET

A pot luck supper featured the final meeting last night of the C. E. expert class of the Presbyterian and Christian church societies, which has just completed its eight weeks course. Social festivities marked the last gathering, at which grades on the final examination were announced by Allan W. McComb, leader.

The meeting and party was held at the home of Miss Dehla Hawkins in Mills addition.

TO MEDFORD TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Knight motored to Medford today to spend the day visiting with friends.

HERE FROM MERRILL

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunsicker of the Government Cottage at Merrill are shopping in the city today.

MRS. LEAVITT IMPROVES

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Leavitt will be pleased to learn that she is resting easily at the Klamath General hospital where she submitted to a major operation yesterday noon.

MRS. AKERS HOME

Mrs. Wayne Akers and son, Dick, have returned from Eugene and Cottage Grove where they have been visiting with relatives and friends for several weeks. Mrs. Akers was accompanied home by her mother, Mrs. Titus of Eugene.

AT EBERLEIN HOME

The drama section of the American Association of University Women will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein in the Sunset on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. Mrs. Eberlein will give a book review and Miss Margaret Hargus a paper. The class is urged to attend.

NEW FOOD SHOP

Linkhaven Food Shop, which opens Saturday in the Harry Cash Grocery, is preparing to take complete care of the food wants of the business woman and the all too busy housewife.

Cookies, pies and cakes will be handled in limited quantities and anything else in the bakery line may be had on special order. The regular variety of soups, meats, puddings, and all the rest of things you expect to find in a cooked food shop, will be there, and your cooking worries will be cut to a five minute's call at the shop. And you can even phone 762 on Sunday's for anything your heart could desire for a picnic lunch.—Adv.

MANY CARS REGISTER

Monday marked the largest number of registrations for the season at the Triple A booth, when Mrs. Leah Smith registered 23 foreign cars. Yesterday's registrations included: Robert W. Anderson, Spokane; M. C. French, Sacramento; Elmer Steen, Oroville; E. C. Highley, Glendale; K. M. Joseph, Sacramento; C. A. Cuppet, Menlo Park; S. Howitz, San Francisco; F. J. Spore, Eureka; Charles O. Johnson, Redding; Albert Rickards, Eureka; F. M. Blair, Westwood; W. D. McLeod, Long Beach; G. F. Parker, San Francisco; A. L. Pearson, Delano; I. R. Barnum, Oak Bar; Westlake, Sacramento; O. M. Steffensen, Seattle; Clarence E. Dryden, Maywood; O. Skaggs, Atwater, California.

MARTIN FROM FORT

J. F. Martin of Fort Klamath is in the city today.

ATTEND MEETING

Jack F. Kimball and Byrl Blevens spent Monday night at Chiloquin where they met with a dozen business men in the interest of the boy scouts.

OREM ARRIVES

Lieutenant Howard Orem arrived last evening and will spend several weeks here visiting with his father, H. Orem. Lieutenant Orem recently returned from China.

TUTTLE GIRLS SHOPPING

The Misses Lou and Bobbette Tuttle of Bonanza are shopping in the city today. At the present time their parents are in southern California for Mr. Tuttle's health, and the sisters are in charge of the ranch at Lorella.

DUNNS FROM CHILOQUIN

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dunn visited in the city yesterday from Chiloquin.

GRIFFEN FROM BLY

L. O. Griffen, of Bly, spent Tuesday in the city.

MRS. HOPKINS LEAVING

Mrs. Farrell E. Hopkins plans to leave within the next few days for Los Angeles, to spend a fortnight with relatives and friends.

IN FROM FORT

T. A. Culbertson and J. F. Loosley of the Fort Klamath district, spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls.

THE WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy recorded practically no change in barometric pressure the past twenty four hours. The present fine warm weather being assured for next 24 hours. Forecast for next 24 hours.

Fair weather with moderate wind. The Tycos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:

High.....78 Low.....46

LAKE CON HERE

Lafe Con, former circuit judge and district attorney of Lake county and an old timer of southern Oregon arrived in the city last evening to take an active part in the testimony given at the Sprague River water right hearing to be held this afternoon in the circuit court. He comes here from his home at Lakeview.

New shipment of pretty georgette and ribbon dresses just in at Bee Begin's Store.—Adv.

FOREIGN CARS REGISTER

Frank McCann, San Francisco, Ralph Wiley, Tacoma, Carl C. McCann, San Francisco, D. Marian Johnson, Los Angeles, Paul Winfield Mahern, J. I. Hickey, San Francisco, T. E. Barns, Walla Walla, H. S. Mathews for the Shell Oil company of San Francisco, all registered foreign cars with Mrs. Leah Smith at the triple A booth at the chamber of commerce. Twenty seven cars registered at the booth Tuesday, which is the largest day this season.

HERE FROM BLY

Everett Whitstone, Tom Edsell, George Boyd, John Henderson, Everett, Lloyd and Perry Whitstone all of Bly are in the city this afternoon on business.

STEWART FROM MALIN

Jim Stewart, well known rancher of the Malin section, transacted business in the city today.

PAUL MCKEE HERE

Paul McKee, official of the California Oregon Power company at Medford, arrived in Klamath Falls this morning to look after legal business for his company.

FROM MALIN

Mrs. Emma Ward, of Malin is shopping in Klamath Falls today.

CHEYNE FROM MERRILL

Bob Cheyne of Spring Lake is attending to business in the city this afternoon.

EXPLOSION KILLS

BILLINGS, Mont., April 14.—(P)—Lee Edwin Mead, 12, is dead and Lewis Clark, also 12, is not expected to live as a result of their attempt to blow up the butt of a cottonwood tree with caps, fuses and dynamite they found in an old powder house.

'Pretty new silk dresses in all the newest shades just in at Bee Begin's Store.—Adv.

HOGAN FROM MERRILL

John Hogan of Merrill, attended to business in town this afternoon, from his ranch.

FROM MERRILL

Vilton Haskins of Merrill attended to business in the city this afternoon.

LEWIS IS BETTER

John M. Lewis, who was operated upon at the Klamath General hospital on Sunday is doing nicely according to word from the hospital today. Lewis is employed at the Baldwin Hardware company.

CASEBEER FROM BLY

E. J. Casebeer of Bly, here for the water right hearing, arrived in town this forenoon.

MRS. DAVIS LEAVES

Mrs. Claude Davis left by motor this afternoon for Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip.

At The LIBERTY

Last showing tonight of "Without Mercy"

A vibrant story of a woman's revenge.

Thursday & Friday
EVELYN BRENT,
in another of her famous crook stories,

"SMOOTH ASS SATIN"

The story is by the author of "Within The Law" and "The Thirteenth Chair," which guarantees the production.

PINE TREE Theatre

V A U D E V I L L E

An exceptionally good harmony number, some clever new steps, and a most unusual exhibition of "Living Pictures."

On the screen EUGENE O'BRIEN and LILLIAN RICH with a fine supporting cast in the story of a man with only a few minutes to live.

"SIMON THE JESTER"

COMING THURSDAY & FRIDAY

With all the magnificence of the Stage Production plus Eric Von Stroheim's marvelous genius.

"THE MERRY WIDOW"

Mae Murray as the widow and John Gilbert as the prince with a cast of featured players have made screen history in this picture. You may expect something bigger, more beautiful and more thrilling than you've ever seen before. You won't be disappointed.

Harry Borel and his Pine Tree Orchestra will feature the entire score of the original opera.

There will be one performance only, each afternoon and evening, at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. — Regular Prices.

BRING MACHINERY IN

The road jumbo, caterpillar and steam shovel which have been grading the road near Bonanza, are being brought into Klamath Falls in readiness for work on Oregon Avenue. To be started within the next few days.

Tom Dixon, roadmaster, feels that with warm weather this work should be completed within a week's time.

HERE FROM BAY

Theron Lee and Thomas Denaea, both of Marshfield, are in the city today.

IN FROM BLY

R. E. Whitlatch of Bly transacted business in the city over Tuesday.

HERE FOR SUMMER

P. M. Clauson and R. B. Cox, both engineers for the Southern Pacific, will reside in Klamath Falls for the summer months in the interests of the company.

LEASES HERE

E. DeBon of Weed has leased a lot on Main and Eleventh from Chris Planas for selling used cars. The lot is being fenced off today.

DR. JOHNSON OUT

Dr. E. D. Johnson has fully recovered from his severe attack of influenza and has resumed his practice.

MRS. VAN HUSKIRK RETURNS

Mrs. Zepha Van Huskirk will resume her position at the hotel White Pelican tomorrow morning after a two weeks vacation in southern California.

VALEY MEN HERE

E. D. Briggs, Clarence Taylor and J. A. Taylor all of Ashland are transacting business here today.

When the Western Motorist travels he prefers to travel first class. The saving in time, comfort and safety makes the slight difference in cost between ordinary transportation and "first-class" transportation a real economy.

The items listed below will help to give you "first-class" transportation that adds so much to comfort, safety and economy of operation and costs so little that they may be considered as necessities.

You will find scores of other approved appliances at your nearest "Western Auto" store.

for your Safety
Comfort Economy

—For Safe Night Driving

The Kay Bee roadway light cuts through the densest fog or mist. Fits on the spring horn. Throws the rays directly onto the road and lights up the highway for the entire breadth. For all cars $5.50 Other road lights $7.00

S & M Spotlight

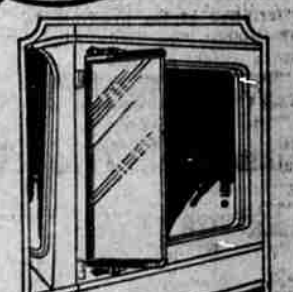

A night time necessity for reading direction signs, house numbers, etc. 3600 foot projection $9.50 5600 foot projection $13.00 Other spotlights as low as $1.95.

Brake Lining

"Neverburn" —for Safety

It is made of high quality wear resisting, long fibered asbestos and interwoven with base of tough copper wire. Our low prices per foot. 25c to $1.48—according to car.

Closed Car Wings —for Real Comfort

Easily adjustable to get just the amount of air desired for ventilation, yet affording full protection from draught, wind or rain. They are aristocratic in appearance. Price per set $9.95

Wind Wings

For open cars. $4.85, $6.95 and $9.85.

Tonneau Shields

$16.85 to $65.00

"Cap Spoiler Mirrors"

Without removing your eyes from the road ahead the Cap Spoiler rear sight mirror gives you a full view of the road behind. For open and closed cars $2.70 and $2.95. Other mirrors .95c to $2.45

Stop Signals

The "Stover" combination stop signal includes tail lamp and a bracket for the license plate. The name of your car etched on the glass. It reduces chances of rear and collisions. Price $4.55. Other stop lights at $1.75, $2.40, $2.95, $3.00 and $3.50.

Pyrene Fire Extinguisher

Saves you 15% on your fire insurance premium. Conquers flames of gasoline, benzene or acetylene. Chemical does not stain the finest fabric. Brass finish; complete with brackets. Refilling fluid.....$1.85 —for Emergency Use!

Tire trouble is a source of grief and worry, especially if you are not prepared for it. As a precautionary measure, carry along some of the emergencies listed below.

Valve Insides

Per box of five.....25c

Tire-Cut Filler

A rubber putty that fills cuts and holes—handy tube.....35c

Patching Cement

In tubes and cans.....10c to 20c

5-Minute Vulcanizer

Complete with 12 patch whits $1.18

Sure-Hold Patch

Complete outfit, 12 sq. in., including cement.....65c

Everlastic Rubber Patch

Complete with cement—40 square inches.....35c

Monkey Grip Tube Patch

Complete outfit—27 square inches of patch with cement and buffer.....45c

U. S. Tire Gauge

An accurate gauge that takes care of both balloons and standard tires. This is a feature, never before.....$1.35

A complete stock of Jacks, Pumps, Blowout Patches, etc., at unusually low prices.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIALS

Handy Cigar Lighter

Merely draw the lighter forward and you have your light instantly. No match scratching, no burning fingers, clothing or upholstery. Reduced this week only $1.90

Chime Explosion Whistle

Its soft chime note is composed of three distinct sounds. A friendly warning to pedestrians. Regular $4.45. This week only $3.00

Smithkit

A place for the cigarettes. Exceptionally compact unit for ashtray and matches—it serves the cigarettes to you. A real bargain this week at $1.85

Chime Explosion Whistle

Its soft chime note is composed of three distinct sounds. A friendly warning to pedestrians. Regular $4.45. This week only $3.00

Clear Tone Whistle

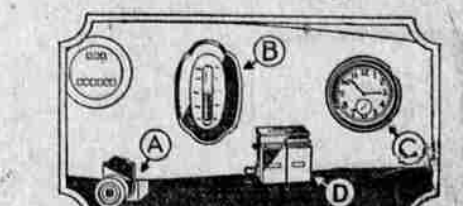

A warning signal that is entirely dependable. It produces a loud and compelling sound. Regular price $2.70. This week only $1.85

TWIN-BAR BUMPERS

Practical, economical and unusually handsome. Heat treated, tempered in oil—triple nicked plated—unusually strong bolt attachments. A sturdy bumper that will absorb the severest shocks. For light cars.....$11.75 For larger cars.....$14.80 Special two-bar bumper for Ford, Chevrolet, Star and Overland cars.....$8.85 "Double XX" model for medium cars.....$16.50 For large cars.....$18.75

DEPENDABLE DASHBOARD NECESSITIES

A. "Cuno" Electric Cigar Lighter—No more fussing with uncertain matches—a quick, sure light whenever you want it. No holes to drill. Our price.....$3.00 B. "Safe-T-Stat"—A modern theft-proof heat resistor always visible night or day. Warns instantly of approaching motor trouble. $4.50 to $7.50, according to model. C. Dash Clock—A real convenience. You have the time always before you. Easily installed.....$2.85, $7.65 and $11.65

Stores Open
Saturday Night
Until 9

More than 125 Stores in the West
Western Auto Supply Co.
Seventh and Pine Streets
KLAMATH FALLS

Ask for 1926
Catalog
It's Free