

Speaker Praises Managerial Form City Government

Commission manager form of government would provide a more democratic form of municipal government than the present system, Bryan Gilkinson, connected with the educational department of the Klamath News, told the chamber of commerce forum at luncheon this noon.

porary school board system. Music provided by "The Ramblers," White Pelican hotel orchestra, was greeted with applause from chamber members. R. H. Dunbar, an active proponent of the commission-manager form of government presided.

TICKET SALE GOOD

The ticket sale for the old fashioned and modern dancing party being sponsored by the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal guild is progressing in a splendid manner according to matrons in charge of the ticket sale. The dance will be the social event of this week and will be held on Friday evening at the Altamont dance pavillion.

STEIGER TO RETURN

J. J. Steiger, Jr., is expected home this evening from Washington where he has been with his father on a business trip for several days.

Mainly About People

DR. SWEET HERE

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Sweet prominent residents of Lakeview are enjoying a brief visit in Klamath Falls.

BACK SOUTH

After attending to work at Pausina and visiting briefly in Klamath Falls for a few days, S. R. Baker returned this morning to his home in Dunsmuir.

DAN SULLIVAN IN

Dan C. Sullivan of Bly is transacting business here today from his home.

GOES TO LAKEVIEW

Ted GeBauer, vice-president of the Valley Candy company, left by motor this morning for Lakeview on business.

TAKES POSITION

Miss Eulalia Waters, sister of Mrs. Jack Beal, took up her duties with the Abstract and Title company of Southern Oregon on Tuesday.

Miss Waters is thoroughly experienced in this work and came here from Grand Island, Nebraska.

WITH MRS. BERRY

Tomorrow afternoon the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. S. R. Berry on Reclamation and Main.

DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT

The members of the Kedron club are looking forward with much interest to the dinner party to be held at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. This affair is for members of the club, their husbands and friends.

MEETING TONIGHT

The Knights of Columbus are urged to attend the business meeting at the Moose hall this evening.

DORIS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Matney and baby of Dorris spent Tuesday shopping and visiting with friends in Klamath Falls. They returned home this morning by motor.

LAKEVIEW PHYSICIAN

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Carsters of Lakeview arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to visit with friends and attend business. They are guests at the hotel White Pelican.

COMING ATTRACTION

Hunts Craterian theatre in Medford will draw some Klamath Falls people on Friday, April 30, when George White's "Scandals of 1926" will be shown.

White's revue for the past few years has played to capacity houses in the large cities, due to his picking some of the leading beauties of America for his chorus.

CHILD IS BETTER

Edna Bergman of Pelican City is fully recovered from an attack of spinal meningitis. For the past three weeks the child has been seriously ill at the family home.

TO HONOR ANNIVERSARY

Klamath Falls Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will celebrate their 107th birthday anniversary on Monday evening, April 26, at the American Legion hall. This announcement was made by members of the order yesterday.

Mrs. Jennie Hurn is in charge of affairs for the entertainment. Following the program a dance for the members of the order and their friends will be given. W. E. Beck is chairman of the dance committee.

TO VISIT KLAMATH FALLS

Friends of Bishop and Mrs. Remington will be pleased to learn that they will visit Klamath Falls early in May to attend the confirmation on the second of the month.

The ladies of the Guild are planning for a pot luck supper to be held in the parish house at Saturday, May 1, for members and all friends of the church. The dinner will be complimentary.

WITH MRS. DREW

Members of the Dorcas Circle of the ladies auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. B. Drew on North Ninth.

OBITUARY

BABY JOHNSTON Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston, Eugene, who died suddenly in an automobile yesterday morning, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Whitlock's funeral home. Services were conducted by the Salvation Army. The child, a post mortem examination showed, died from peritonitis.

MOVING SOON

Rev. and Mrs. J. Henry Thomas will leave their apartment in the McCarthy, sometime this coming week to take up home life at the rectory which is now being completed. The rectory is located at 630 Pine.

ON BUSINESS TRIP

Ed Sulton one of the well known ranchers of the Midland district transacted business here yesterday and expects to make a short business trip north to Portland in the near future.

ABLE TO RESUME DUTIES

Friends of Mrs. Hal Ogle will be glad to learn she has recovered from an attack of influenza which has kept her confined to her apartment at the Winters for several days.

RETURN FROM PORTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Westbrook of Merrill have returned from a business and pleasure trip to Portland. They made the trip by motor.

CHILD IMPROVES

Gerald, the two year old twin of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stevenson of Merrill is recovering from the injuries he received the latter part of the week when he caught his hand in an electric washer. Mrs. Stevenson brought him in on Monday to have his hand dressed by the attending physician.

AT VEATCH HOME

Acting as hostess for the members of the Bethany circle, Mrs. E. S. Veatch has invited the ladies to meet with her tomorrow afternoon. The Veatch home is located at 1819 Earl.

MEETING PLANNED

Members of the Meriam circle are invited to meet with Mrs. L. L. Truax tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Coseboom will act as hostess with Mrs. Truax.

PLAN FOR DINNER

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club are looking forward with much interest to the picnic supper which they are planning for on the upper Klamath. This will be held on Monday evening and cars will leave for Shore acres at the close of the business hours.

MEETS TOMORROW

Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Mary Baker will preside as hostesses tomorrow afternoon at the regular guild meeting in the parish house. The meeting has been called for 2:30.

McAULIFFES ARE BACK

After a lingering illness of almost a year's duration, Jack McAuliffe has returned to Klamath Falls from San Francisco, where he has been confined to the St. Francis hospital. With Mrs. McAuliffe he arrived in the city on last night's train from the south, and is at present stopping at the hotel White Pelican.

In June of last year, Mr. McAuliffe was severely burned while motoring to Lakeview. He had stopped his car in a blinding rain storm and leaving the motor running, he had climbed into the back of his car and fell asleep. When he was found he had been overcome by carbon monoxide and seriously burned by the heater.

For a time he was confined in the Lakeview hospital and later Mrs. McAuliffe moved him to San Francisco, where he has been until his return last evening.

The return of Mr. and Mrs. McAuliffe is welcomed by their hosts of friends throughout Klamath county.

San Francisco's finest new hotel Exceptional DINING ROOM SERVICE Garage adjoining... HOTEL CALIFORNIAN TAYLOR & O'FARRELL

New Beauty Cream Quickly Remakes Your Complexion

Gives it the texture and appearance of a wild rose petal! You can't help but notice a striking difference the moment you put it on! Nourishes while it beautifies—whitens, cleanses. Should be left on all night. Also makes wonderful powder base. Not sticky or greasy. Get this new wonderful beauty cream called Mello-glo and try it. Underwood's Pharmacy. (Adv.)

MRS. DALTON SHOPS

Mrs. Robert Dalton spent Tuesday in town shopping from her home near Merrill.

MRS. TAYLOR SHOPPING

Included in the Merrill residents in town today shopping is Mrs. John Taylor.

SHOPPING FROM MALIN

Mrs. Zeida Smith of Malin, spent the morning hours in Klamath Falls shopping.

PILCHER'S STAFF PARTY

The P. M. M. Club of Pilcher's store held the first of its monthly social and business affairs at the store last evening followed with a social hour at the Grey Goose shop. The early hours of the gathering were spent in discussions of the store and business activities. Those attending the affair included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Schroeder, Mrs. E. E. Knibs, Mrs. W. O. Hardberger, Mrs. H. C. Killian, Miss Pauline Adamson, Miss Mayme Harris, A. McDonald, A. F. McDonald, F. P. Anderson, L. W. Fernandes and J. T. Cox. The next party will be a picnic to be held in May, plans for which the club will announce later.

NO SOCIAL MEETING

The social meeting of the Knights of Columbus which was to have been held along with business meeting tonight has been postponed until the next meeting. Tonight the Knights will hold their regular business meeting to be followed with a talk by ex-mayor Wiley on the city manager form of government.

MRS. HENRY SHOPPING

Mrs. Clyde Henry of Shaw Berrigan spent Tuesday in the city shopping and calling on friends.

THE WEATHER

Oregon—Rain west, probably rain east portion tonight and Thursday. Warmer in east portion tonight. Fresh south to westerly winds.

PINE TREE Theatre Last Time Tonight Five Clever Acts of VAUDEVILLE And nifty Viola Dana in a very funny picture in which an elephant plays the biggest part THURSDAY AND FRIDAY We take pleasure in presenting the greatest achievement of the master showman, D. W. GRIFFITH With his marvelous melodrama of the Chicago Jazz Zone—the real epic of the Daughters of today "THAT ROYLE GIRL" Millions loved it as a Cosmopolitan Serial. Millions more have read it as a novel. Now the genius of Griffith gives it soul upon the screen. Motion picture critics say: "The silent drama speaks when D. W. Griffith Directs" You will realize the truth of this when you meet "THAT ROYLE GIRL" Matinee Prices, 10 and 35 cents Evening Prices, 25, 50 and 65 cents

At The LIBERTY Last showing tonight of Dynamic Priscilla Dean in "The Crimson Runner" Thursday and Friday "Lefty" Flynn in "High and Handsome"

McDONALD IS AWAY A. A. McDonald, manager of Pilcher's store left for Seattle this morning on a business conference which will keep him on the coast for at least a week. AT RUSSELL AUSTIN HOME Mrs. Russell Austin will be hostess tomorrow afternoon to the ladies of the Gleaners circle. With but two more meetings of the year to be held before the circles adjourn for the summer months, Mrs. C. H. Landis, president, is anxious that the matrons make an effort to attend the meeting tomorrow. PETE O'CONNOR HERE A familiar figure on the streets today is Pete O'Connor, of the Fort Klamath district. Mr. O'Connor is here on business matters, and plans to return home tomorrow. Among the strange things in this life are bald barbers, skinny cooks and lazy married men.

McAULIFFES ARE BACK After a lingering illness of almost a year's duration, Jack McAuliffe has returned to Klamath Falls from San Francisco, where he has been confined to the St. Francis hospital. With Mrs. McAuliffe he arrived in the city on last night's train from the south, and is at present stopping at the hotel White Pelican. In June of last year, Mr. McAuliffe was severely burned while motoring to Lakeview. He had stopped his car in a blinding rain storm and leaving the motor running, he had climbed into the back of his car and fell asleep. When he was found he had been overcome by carbon monoxide and seriously burned by the heater. For a time he was confined in the Lakeview hospital and later Mrs. McAuliffe moved him to San Francisco, where he has been until his return last evening. The return of Mr. and Mrs. McAuliffe is welcomed by their hosts of friends throughout Klamath county.

W. L. Douglas Shoes The name and price stamped on every pair. Snappy and conservative lasts in black or tan shoes or oxfords, every pair solid leather. Priced at $5 $6 $7 $8 Work Shoes Work shoes that stand up under the hardest kind of work or wear. Shoes that don't have to be broken in but are comfortable the first time you put them on. Soft and pliable and all-leather or leather and Gro Cord Soles. Priced at $4.50 to $6.50

Work Clothes Mr. Working man, we have a full and complete line of Union Made work clothes, clothes that are full cut and that don't go to pieces the first time you wear them. Overalls, coveralls, work shirts, underwear and everything else that you need for everyday wear while on the job. Make the Manstore your headquarters for clothing of all kinds—your neighbor does. 517 Main St. Beck's Manstore "IF MEN WEAR IT—WE HAVE IT" KLAMATH FALLS - WOODBURN, ORE. Next to The Blue Bird

Improve Your Appetite with a VEGETABLE DINNER that is different AT THE WHITE CAFE "IT'S THE COOK" BOB PULASKI GEO. W. EVENS Open 6 a. m. to 1 a. m. 1118 Main St.—Phone 346-J

Browne's Paint Store —Phone 75— W. P. FULLER'S Paints, Oils and Varnishes "Western Made For Western Trade" THE BEST ON THE MARKET

TO VISIT KLAMATH FALLS Friends of Bishop and Mrs. Remington will be pleased to learn that they will visit Klamath Falls early in May to attend the confirmation on the second of the month. The ladies of the Guild are planning for a pot luck supper to be held in the parish house at Saturday, May 1, for members and all friends of the church. The dinner will be complimentary. WITH MRS. DREW Members of the Dorcas Circle of the ladies auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. B. Drew on North Ninth.

OBITUARY BABY JOHNSTON Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston, Eugene, who died suddenly in an automobile yesterday morning, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Whitlock's funeral home. Services were conducted by the Salvation Army. The child, a post mortem examination showed, died from peritonitis.

San Francisco's finest new hotel Exceptional DINING ROOM SERVICE Garage adjoining... HOTEL CALIFORNIAN TAYLOR & O'FARRELL

New Beauty Cream Quickly Remakes Your Complexion Gives it the texture and appearance of a wild rose petal! You can't help but notice a striking difference the moment you put it on! Nourishes while it beautifies—whitens, cleanses. Should be left on all night. Also makes wonderful powder base. Not sticky or greasy. Get this new wonderful beauty cream called Mello-glo and try it. Underwood's Pharmacy. (Adv.)

MRS. Lageson Back Mrs. L. J. Lageson, of 133 Fourth street has returned from Eugene, where she has been for the past week, called north by the critical illness of her daughter. She is very much improved in health and hopes are held for her complete recovery.

FROM LAKEVIEW Dr. and Mrs. Michael Sult of Lakoview are visiting today with friends in Klamath Falls. Dr. Sult is a dentist at Lakoview. They were accompanied by Dr. J. H. Carstens a surgeon of the neighboring town.

LAMBS ARE BACK Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb and son Calvin, returned this afternoon by motor from Portland and Astoria, where they have been for the past two weeks. At Astoria they attended the Masonic convale. In Portland they visited with relatives and friends.

BUDGET O'CONNOR ILL Bridget O'Connor, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim O'Connor, of Fort Klamath, was taken to the Klamath General hospital this morning where she was operated upon for appendicitis. She is a student at the Sacred Heart Academy. Late this afternoon reports from the hospital told of her steady improvement since the operation.

Tires That Last Firestone and General Tires Best in the long run Klamath Tire House "Cap" Calkins Klamath Ave. & 6th St. Firestone, General and Oldfield Tires.