HEED CONSTIPATION'S WARNING

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings sure relief because it is 100% bran

Even before constipation wrecks the health—it lines the face with wrinkles, spots the skin, hollows the cheeks. Unpleasant breath and headaches are merely outward signs of the inward havoc this dire disease promotes.

Rid yourself forever of constipation. Stop it before too late! Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has brought relief to thousands where all else has failed. Doctors recommend it. They know ALL-BRAN brings results. It is not an uncertain part-bran product.

Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—with every meal, in chronic cases. Your grocer will refund the money if it fails.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is made in Battle Creek, Michigan. Ready to eat with milk or fruit. Cooking too. Delicious recipes on the package. Sold by all grocers. Served at hotels and restaurants.

JIM STEWART VISITS

Jim Stewart, Salem, is here. Too much, that information should be enough, but for those who by some chance do not know who "Jim" is, let it be known that he is one of the wisest and quietest political heads in Oregon. Right now Stewart is connected with the state land board and is doing field work. Also of late he has been helping out in bonus commission work. "Jim" is an unprepossessing sort, until you get him to talk on his favorite subject, Oregon politics, and then it is different. He arrived here yesterday afternoon and after saying hello to a few of his friends here he transacted business. He will be in the city for several days before returning to Salem.

CASSIDY VISITS

The man who hovers over bus and taxi operators, who is short and fat and talks fast, and who always has a ready smile whether he is about to place you under arrest or not, that same man is none other than J. F. Cassidy, connected with the Public Service commission. Cassidy blew into town a few days ago and is talking turkey to local taxi operators regarding state permits, adherence to regulations, ad infinitum.
