Cathay, Portland physician, every possible effort was made, to save Dadmun's life, but to no avail. No sign of brain lesion was evident, it was reported.

Dadmun enjoyed a wide circle of friends throughout the state. He was graduated from Oregon Agricultural college in June, 1920. During his college career, he was active in student affairs. He was president of his class, president of his fraternity, Sigma Nu, and active in his major course, engineering. It was while in college that he met Miss Dorothy Morill, who was later to become his wife.

Dadmun came to Klamath in May, 1923. Starting in a modest position with the Big Lakes company, he had worked up to the position of yard superintendent, and was looked upon as a "comer" by his superiors.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Dadmun, the deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dadmun of Independence, Ore. Funeral services will be held tomorrow in Portland at the funeral parlors of Edward Holman & Sons.

Recently Dadmun had built one of the most modern homes in Klamath Falls, located on a hill on Jefferson street. The home occasioned favorable comment from hundreds of home builders and home seekers.
