People! Meet Lotus, the Girl Who Knows Her Stuff

She never dined at the Ritz nor sipped tea in Greenwich Village.

No. Sir! Not Lotus. But regardless of this fact, she can give the average frequenter of the best restaurant a lesson or two when it comes to eating.

For Lotus knows all about table manners, and why shouldn't she? She eats a bushel of carrots and a bale of hay every lunch hour and washes it down with a barrel of 'agua pura'. Lotus is the largest and only performing blood-sweating hippopotamus in the world. She will entertain you when she comes to Klamath Falls Monday, May 10 with the Al. G. Barnes Big 4 Ring Circus.

Lotus doesn't mind being fat and proves it by eating more and more every day. And she's impatient sometimes—when she's real hungry. When her trainer is a trifle slow, she says, "Let go of those carrots, Bob, and make it snappy!"

Lotus is only one of the 2000 trained wild animals and 550 educated horses in the Barnes circus.

The feature of the age, "Pocahontas at the Court of Queen Anne," the extravaganza, which includes in the gigantic cast over a hundred pretty girls from sun-kissed California and three tribes of Indians from Arizona, Nevada and New Mexico.

Most of the ballet and chorus girls in the cast have appeared in West-Coast motion picture productions.

You will also see the greatest movie star of them all—Joe Martin, himself.

It's the show that's distinctly different every year.

Jail Construction Seems Dead Issue

Speaking of building, it begins to appear as if the county court, or rather County Judge Bunnell, was mistaken when it was announced that a new county jail would be constructed behind the court house. Judge Bunnell was interviewed on the matter several months ago, and at that time stated positively that the new jail would be constructed this year, and would cost in the neighborhood of $50,000. Since that time the judge has said nothing.

Financing of the jail project was to have been by a special bond issue, placed before the people at the May primary election.

Last day for filing the bond issue so it would appear on the May ballot is today, and unless the judge or one of his agents submit the matter to the county clerk, the bond issue will not come before the people at the May elections.

Judge Bunnell was enthusiastic about the new county prison. He talked at length of the plans he had, and of how he hoped the people would vote favorably on the project. But the matter has seemed to slip the mind of the judge and today is the last on which he can place it on the May ballot. The people will not have the opportunity to authorize the jail bond issue for some time to come.

DUEL IS DRAW

SEATTLE.—(AP)—Two women fought a duel through a door with .25 calibre pistols. Each fired two shots, but no one was injured. Mrs. Louise Taylor, hotel proprietor, and Mrs. Billie Sears, a roomer were the principals. Police say they fought over James Taylor, the landlady's husband.
