MT. LAKE

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Henry Semon Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Van Meyers, president; Mrs. Harry Booth, secretary; Mrs. Verna McClellan, treasurer. After the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. H. Semon and Mrs. Jess Johnson. Those present were Mesdames Wm. Cheyne, L. A. West, Harry Booth, Percy Dixon, H. D. Morrison, J. H. McClellan, Verna Mc-Clellan, Russell, John Koonitz, McClay, Burke, Van Meyers, B. H. Hamilton, Hiatt, Chet Haley, Carl Schubert, R. Hill, Triplett, Dan Kaylor and hostesses, Mrs. Semon and Mrs. Jess Johnson. Next meeting to be held at Mt. Lake church, May 26.

Mrs. Dewey Pollard and little daughter, Margarette, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Cheyne, left for Eugene to join her husband, who is working at that place.

Johnny and Nellie Stewart visited with Leo Houghton and family and Frank Stewart and family Sunday.

Mrs. Lamb of Portland visited with Mrs. H. D. Morrison recently. Mr. and Mrs. Will Kaylor's family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Van Meyers.

Mrs. B. H. Hamilton called on Mrs. Shann Dixon Monday afternoon.

Mary West returned to school Monday after an absence of several days.

Mrs. Sam Dehlinger entertained a number of young people at dinner Tuesday evening in honor of her son Glenn's 16th birthday. The young folks spent the evening with music and games. The guests departed, wishing Glenn many more happy birthdays.

CHILOQUIN

Work is to be started on the community hall. The building will be a credit to the community.

Sargent Brown returned Wednesday from Chehalis, Wash., where he has been on a business and pleasure trip for the past ten days.

Geo. W. Beyker of Ridgefield, Wash., was looking over Chilochin this week, with a purpose of locating here.

Mr. Loomis of the Review staff was a visitor in the county seat on Tuesday.

The Chilochin schools are to hold their annual picnic at Hayden creek, Saturday, May 15. This is for the entertainment of the patrons of the school as well as the pupils. Plenty of fun for everybody, races and all other forms of entertainment, a well-earned roast and good things to eat for the kiddies are planned.

Chilochin is going right along, building is progressing and everything seems on the go. A large number of lots are being sold for residence property.

The new auto park in west Chilochin located in Mr. Spink's addition, will be an improvement.

The new electric bakery is under construction. While the weather is retarding it some, nevertheless, it is progressing rapidly.

ALGOMA

Mrs. Clarence Shults and infant son returned home Friday from Shipplington.

J. Tolliver, who has been employed in the office of the Algoma Lumber company for some time, has moved his family up. They are occupants of house 3.

Mrs. J. A. Windsor entertained friends at 500 Thursday afternoon after which a dainty luncheon was served.

John Conquer has his Chevrolet landau sedan back again after having it stolen from Main street in Klamath Falls Wednesday evening. It was found the next day about a mile out on the old Fort Klamath road, minus five balloon tires and rims. The motor meter was also broken, but no further damage was done.

Miss Minoque, principal of the Algoma school, accompanied three girls to Henley Thursday evening to take part in the music memory contest at that place. The girls were Mildred Midliff, Eleanor Nabakowski and Grace Franklin.

The Community club members are busy planning an entertainment to be given May 17 to raise funds to aid in sending a couple of Algoma children with the children attending the summer class at O.A.C. The club, which is newly organized, is getting in running order, but more new members are needed.

Mrs. Stanley Hull entertained friends at a party Saturday evening. The time was spent playing cards, games and dancing. Refreshments were served and at a late hour the guests departed.

Four new sedans came in camp the evening of April 17. The owners were H. Cotton, B. J. Loftsgaard, Joe Brown and Walter Rouse. Each sedan was a different make.

Mrs. A. Thompson is home again after a visit to her mother's, in Grants Pass.

Combined with a keyless lock for automobiles, a new device sounds a rattle as an alarm should a thief try to move a car.

PINE RIDGE

Mrs. Chas. Sevens and Mrs. Rosser spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls, shopping and visiting with friends.

Little Jackie Davidson is able to be out again, after having been ill for several weeks.

Quite a number of houses on the east side of the river are being torn down to make way for construction of larger buildings.

The hotel, which is under way here is a very busy site; the frame work is being erected this week.

Quite a number from here motored to Diamond Lake to enjoy the fishing there last week end. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Guillepie and children, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dehu and children, Mr. and Mrs. Rosser, Mr. and Mrs. Bowler, Mr. and Mrs.
