

PINE TREE Theatre

TODAY AND WEDNESDAY

On The Stage

This week we offer four big acts of fine vaudeville numbers and an afterpiece by the entire company. Somewhat different and excellent entertainment.

Harry Borel and his Orchestra of course

On The Screen

William J. Locke's great novel

"The Coming Of Amos"

with Rod La Rocque and a big supporting cast. The screen attraction is a worthy part of our program today.

At The LIBERTY

We have little to say about our attraction today, it's just

Harold Lloyd

in his latest and greatest picture and he calls it

"For Heaven's Sake"

It's just one of those pictures that no one should miss. That's all.

RETURN FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bernard Matt have returned from their wedding trip which they enjoyed in valley points. Their wedding was an event of Saturday morning. Mrs. Matt was formerly Miss Josephine Lindley.

HOTELS FILLED

Last night found local hotels filled with regular and transient guests from all parts of the country. It is apparent that tourists are starting to enter Klamath county, many of them with the idea of locating here permanently.

FAMILY JOINS HIM

Mrs. Budore Jonas, with her two daughters and son, have arrived in the city from Minnesota and will reside here permanently. In the past Mr. Jonas was manager of a lumber mill and has taken a position here with P. Hill Hunter. The Jonas family are residing on High street.

VISITING FROM MEDFORD

Mrs. Edgar Johnson and Miss Helen Meyer of Medford are visiting with friends in the city today.

MEETING DATE

The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wilson on Thursday afternoon at 2:30. A silver tea will be held during the afternoon hours at which Mrs. Wilson will be assisted by Mrs. W. S. Slough and Mrs. W. C. Ball. Mrs. John Bargent is in charge of the program. Friends of the church who are interested in missionary work are extended a cordial invitation.

SLOWLY IMPROVING

The condition of L. W. Fernandes shows slight improvement. He has been confined to his room for more than ten days suffering with a severe attack of influenza.

SALE ALL DAY SATURDAY

The cooked food and apron sale of the First Presbyterian church will be held on Saturday at Miller's market starting at nine o'clock in the morning to continue throughout the day. The members of the church have prepared numerous tempting cooked dishes. Miss Maude Carleton, Mrs. Rena Reed, Mrs. Grizzle, Mrs. C. E. Jay and Mrs. Myrtle Helm are the ladies who will sell. Mrs. George Grizzle, Mrs. C. E. Jay, Mrs. D. S. Shiel and Mrs. E. G. Grover make up the soliciting committee.

BACK FROM ASHLAND

John Sylvester returned late yesterday from Ashland where he transacted business over the day.

ERROR IN DAY

Through an error it was announced the Rebekah lodge would meet at the Independent Order of Odd Fellows hall on Wednesday evening. Thursday evening is the correct date.

WINNARD BACK

After an absence of several months during which time he has been taking medical treatment in Eugene, H. E. Winnard returned to the city on Saturday evening. He is much improved in health.

DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT

Plans for the Longfellow's dinner at the chamber of commerce tomorrow evening have been completed. At this time a number of new members will be initiated in the local club.

MEETING TUESDAY

Mrs. H. G. Wortley announces that the next meeting of the Eastern Star on Tuesday evening will be devoted to the regular routine of the business. Mrs. Wortley is worthy matron of the order.

BACK FROM PORTLAND

Mrs. P. D. Schroeder resumed her position with Pilcher's today after a week's vacation spent in Portland and other northern cities.

RED PIPER BACK

"Red" Piper returned from Ashland last evening where he has been since Saturday visiting with friends.

VISITING FROM PORTLAND

Stell Zigler, of Portland, passed through the city today and visited briefly with J. A. Perry enroute to Diamond Lake with a party of northern men on a fishing trip.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. E. V. Hillius submitted to an antrum operation at the Klamath General hospital this morning and reports from the hospital late this afternoon showed her condition satisfactory. Dr. O. J. Johnson was the attending physician.

TOOL LEAVES FOR HOME

C. L. Toole, a resident of Klamath Falls for the past year left today for his old home at Wendell, Idaho, where he plans to reside permanently.

While working as a carpenter at the West Fir lumber company some time ago, Toole was injured in a fall and has been unable to work since the accident.

WHITLOCK AFTER BODY

Earl Whitlock of the Whitlock Funeral Home, left early this morning for Sprague River for the body of Merle Schwerdtford of the Campbell-Towle Lumber company who was killed this morning when the carlidge struck him, the car passed over his body. Schwerdtford was employed as a dogger with the company.

O'BRIEN HONORED SUNDAY

T. F. O'Brien, assistant secretary of state from Carson City, Nevada, who is visiting with his brother, William O'Brien, was honored with a picnic on Sunday.

The party left Klamath Falls at ten o'clock in the morning, motoring to the west side of the lake and stopping at the Seven Mile creek for lunch.

This is Mr. O'Brien's first trip to Oregon and he is most favorably impressed with Klamath and the surrounding country and is thinking seriously of locating here.

Those enjoying the picnic included F. T. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elliott, Frank and Billy Elliott, Misses Laura and Goodwin Waage, Bernice and Lucille Dawson, Miriam Offield, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheyne and family, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Thompson and family, and Mrs. F. H. Bursley.

LEGION MEETS TONIGHT

At a Legion meeting scheduled for tonight, plans will be discussed for putting on an old-time Fourth of July celebration here. Other matters of importance are scheduled to come up before the group.

NEW SIGN ERECTED

A new sign carried out in black and gold letters to spread across the entire front of Moe's store was erected today. Footlights in various colors will be used at the base of the sign at night.

POOL IS GOING SOUTH

Harry Poole of the Pine Tree and Liberty theaters expects to leave early next week for Hollywood to attend a conference of theater men.

RETURNING SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klahn are expected home Sunday from a two weeks vacation trip spent in southern California. They motored south. Both Mr. and Mrs. Klahn are employed with the Klamath Oregon Power company.

MISS WEST ELECTED

Miss Le Laine West was elected to serve as president of the American Association of University Women for the ensuing year at the banquet of the association held at Linkhaven Monday evening. To serve with Miss West for the coming year Mrs. Russell A. Austin was elected as vice president, Mrs. Myrtle Helm, secretary and Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt as treasurer.

The banquet was one of the most successful of the season and plans for the coming year took up considerable time.

Linkhaven was decorated in an attractive manner for the banquet with vases of California poppies.
