At The Liberty

For sheer action, thrills, originality of plot and grandeur of scenery, not to say delicious comedy, the picture Sunday and Monday at the Liberty theater is the last word in western presentations. It is "The Phantom Bullet," starring "Hoot" Gibson.

The star portrays the role of a cowboy, Tom Farlane, who in order to solve the mystery of his father's murder impersonates a young man from the city, delicate, gentlemanly and ultra-refined. His ludicrous contrast to the hard-boiled, flea-bitten frontier character allay the suspicions of the guilty men and justice is served, after a long and difficult series of happenings.

An ingenious twist to the plot brings into prominent position in the story, a camera and the fact that the hero is a youth who loves photography. It is because of Tom's artistic proclivities that a major crime mystery is solved.

"The Phantom Bullet" brings out the very best of the famous star. It is one of the best western pictures ever produced and the best that Gibson has done. Universal deserves much credit for effecting a western feature that strikes a new and different chord.

At the PINE TREE

Oregon climate, Oregon scenery and Oregon in general, from her snow-silvered peaks to her green carpet of dense forests and her ribbon-pattern of multitudinous streams, contributed, in a great measure, to the making of this picture, "The Ancient Highway," which comes to the Pine Tree theater Sunday and Monday.

For the early scenes of the James Oliver Curwood story Irvin Willat, the director, headed a company of more than a hundred players into Oregon, the personnel including Jack Holt, Billie Dove and Mantague Love, the featured players.

The objective of the company was the second splash dam of the middle fork of the Coquille river, approximately 20 miles from Coquille, Oregon, and in the heart of the log country.

One of the big sequences in the picture shows timbermen felling 150-foot trees, a wonderful sight and with action aplenty.

ELECTION IS OVER --

And now we can have a few months rest, after learning how big scoundrels and also how absolutely angelic some of our neighbors are. With things normal again, let's not neglect that old battery in the car. Hot weather is bad for it, unless it has plenty of water. APRIL- THE GREATEST MONTH PACKARD Ever had

MORE new Packard cars were delivered in April than in any month of the twenty-six years that Packard has been making fine motor cars.

May promises to out-do record-breaking April.

With retail deliveries much greater than current production, June will surely see a shortage of Packard cars. As a matter of fact, there is already a shortage in several models.

Quality cannot be hurried nor production doubled quickly.

Among the cars on which prompt delivery can still be made is the Packard Six Five-Passenger Sedan.

This car, the most popular of all Packard models, costs but $2925 at your door with freight and tax paid.

When bought on the payment plan the sum of $900 is required on delivery with payments of $130 per month.

If you have a used car it will be appraised fairly in this, the best used car market of the year, and its value applied against the delivery payment on the new car. Any excess will be credited against the monthly payments.

If you cannot come to our store, a telephone call will bring a car to your door for examination and any demonstration you may desire.
