

Crater Lake Park Open to Campers

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7. (AP)—Crater Lake National Park was opened for the season today for campers. The formal opening date has been set for June 28 instead of July 1, as in previous years. At that time hotels, camp grounds, transportation service and other utilities for the benefit of park visitors will be in full operation, says an announcement by the department of interior.

Car Slips off Grade Sunday

Kind providence smiled on Rod Smith, foreman of the Acme Motor Co., repair shops, and his family Sunday, when the big sedan which was driven by Smith, skidded from the Green Springs Mountain grade about half way down that precipitous seven mile descent, and turned over practically a car length below the road grade.

None of the passengers were injured and the car only slightly damaged. A passing truck, with Mr. Smith's aid, righted the car and pulled it back on the road, from which point the party proceeded on to the ball game at Ashland.

UNIVERSITY WILL AID IN STAGING EUGENE PAGEANT

Big Fete Will be Held on
Hayward Field; 12,000
Seating Capacity

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 7.—(Special)—When the big transportation pageant, "Klatawa," the central feature of Eugene's celebration in honor of the completion of the Eugene-Klamath Falls branch of the Southern Pacific, is presented on Hayward Field, August 19 and 20, it will present numerous evidences of University of Oregon cooperation in the "Trail to Rail" festivities.

Hayward Field itself is the scene of the University's athletic contests. In its grandstand and bleachers will sit the thousands who will view the pageant which will tell the story of the development of transportation in Oregon, through a series of dramatic episodes from the day of the Indian on the primitive trail to the day of the Mogul locomotive and the airplane. The field has a seating capacity of close to 20,000; but not more than about 12,000 seats will be available at a pageant whose action takes place for the most part at one end of the field.

Professor W. F. G. Thacher, professor of English and journalism in the University, Doris Smith of Portland, author of the pageant "Rosaria," and herself a director of large pageants with years of experience in the middle west, on her visit to Eugene to start preliminary arrangements for the production, complimented Mr. Thacher on his grasp of the pageant problem and expressed her satisfaction with Hayward Field as a place for the production.

University students living in and about Eugene are expected to figure prominently in the cast of the pageant, in which several hundred persons will take part. One of the students in the department of drama is to be cast for the title role of Klatawa.

KLAMATH BEATS ALGOMA 11 TO 4 IN TORRID GAME

Lumbermen Will Protest
Contest on Ground of Bad Decision

In a torrid game featured by heavy hitting, Klamath Falls defeated Algoma, leaders of the timber league, 11 to 4, yesterday afternoon. Algoma will protest the game because of a decision of the umpire in calling an Algoma player out when he stepped over the home plate to swing at a wild pitch.

The Klamath sluggers got to Herman, Algoma fliker for 16 hits, one of which was a homerun over the right field fence off the bat of Robertson. Algoma netted seven hits off of Saunders.

Maston, Kells, Ellis Robertson, Klamath sluggers, each connected for three safeties. Waggoner and Maguire poled out two hits; and Saunders two.

Bob Maston and Griffith for Algoma hit safely twice, and Courtney, Anderson and Davis each hit once.

LITHIANS BEAT KLAMATH NINE

Ashland scored two runs in the seventh inning from a whole convey of walks by Pitcher Sage. In the eighth they scored one more when Mohler hit a safe one off his old team mate Andy Street. He was advanced to second by a passed ball by King, took third with a sacrifice and scored on Fuller's error.

Fireworks in 9th

In the last half of the ninth inning the fire works started. The first four Ashland players up all took first on infield errors and scored on more errors. Not one clear hit contributed to the slaughter.

A feature of the game was the big turn out of Klamath rooters who filled the bleachers and howled their approval up until the big blow up in the ninth inning when Ashland had the only howl coming.
