Reunited

Fifteen months ago Miss Hadwick Gerstenacker, 15, (above) came to Dayton, O., to visit her mother (below), who had come as an immigrant from Germany a year or so previously. Federal immigration officials decided the girl must be deported as the German quota was exhausted.
Then her mother married an American-born citizen, and became Mrs.
Weaver of New Letamun, O. So now her daughter can stay as long as she likes.

Embassy Silent

Over Plight of Yankee in Syria

PARIS, June 8. — (A). — The American embassy up to noon today had made no representations to the French government regarding the case of Bennett J. Doty of Memphis, Tenn., who under the name of Gilbert Clare is held in Damascus, Syria, on charges of desertion from the French foreign legion and rebellion.

The French foreign office's knowledge of the case thus far is limited to what has appeared in the newspapers. The official feeling seems to be that if the court martial sentence Doty to death, any appeal from Ambassador Herriek for a commutation will be granted, provided there is time to prevent the execution.

Livestock Show

Opens Tomorrow

LA GRANDE, Ore., June 8. (A). —
A small army of men at Union, Ore., 15 miles southeast of La Grande, is completing preliminary work and taking and listing entries today preparing for the opening of the eighteenth annual Union livestock show tomorrow. Manager W. H.
Vogel reports that more than 400 head of stock, both racing and exhibition, were on the grounds at nine o'clock with a constant stream of new arrivals being checked in.

Vogel estimates that more than 7,000 persons will be in attendance at the Wednesday afternoon racing and judging program.

Commission to

Fight Building Sewer for City

GRANTS PASS, Ore., June 8. — (A). — Injunction proceedings may be started against the city of Grants Pass to prevent the construction of new sewer system which was planned to dump sewage into Rogue river; it was indicated in a letter received by the mayor from Game Warden E. F. Averill.

Grants Pass city officials will go ahead with their arrangements for the sale of the bonds with the belief that assurance can be given that a disposal plant will be added as soon as the financing can be arranged.
