WEDDING AT HILDEBRAND

HILDEBRAND, June 12.—Another June bride was added to the list when Miss Grace Dinkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dinkel of Bellingham, Washington, became the bride of Mr. James Vieira of Hildebrand.

The solemn hush that pervaded the little group of friends could be distinctly felt as Judge Emmett pronounced those mystic words that made them man and wife.

Miss Dinkel, a graduate of Bellingham Normal School, a lady of beauty, grace and charm, has won many friends in the Hildebrand district where she has taught the last school year.

The groom is a prominent young man and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vieira, pioneer settlers of Hildebrand who came to this country a poor boy and girl and are now the largest cattle owners of Yanna valley.

Nearly 100 guests were present in the evening, by invitation, to welcome the young couple, whose ages are 21 and 23 years, respectively.

At twelve o'clock a most sumptuous supper was served after which all retired, hoping that the smiles of peace and the sunshine of happiness might remain with the young couple forever.
