Harvard Does Rare Feat

Harvard University didn't win the annual eastern intercollegiate track and field meet this year, but it performed a rather unusual feat by coping the three long running races, the half, mile and two-mile. In the above layout we find "Red" Haggerty (left) breasting the tape in the mile, with Willard Tibbetts (right) taking the two-mile. In the center, "Soapy" Watters is winning the 880 in a thrilling finish.

SAN FRANCISCO—It cost a would-be holdup man $1 when he tried to rob Mrs. Margaret Bond, sandy store proprietress. He laid a dollar on the counter and asked for a package of cigarettes, trusting a gun in her face when she opened the cash register for change. She threw a handful of pennies and a cheese knife at him and he fled.
