

TO CALIFORNIA
G. L. Conlin and Milo Chamberlain of Bend passed through the city Wednesday on their way south to California. They visited briefly here with friends.

COPERS ARE SOUTH
Mrs. Fred Coker and two daughters, Ruth and Helen, are enjoying a fortnight's visit in southern California. They plan to return home this week.

LUNCHEON TODAY
The P. E. O. club were guests at the home of Mrs. Harry Goeller this noon at a one o'clock luncheon. This gathering marked the first meeting since the state convention in The Dalles. Mrs. Goeller, former state corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. W. Bathiany and Mrs. W. R. Boyd attended the convention and gave reports at the luncheon today.

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

MISS LAMBERT LEAVING
Miss Lucille Lambert expects to leave this week end for Berkeley, California to study music during the summer months. She is enjoying a brief vacation here with her parents and many friends before journeying south. Miss Lambert is an accomplished musician.

COMING FOR SUMMER
Another popular local girl who is expected home tomorrow to spend the summer months here with her parents and friends, is Miss Mae Mordoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Mordoff. Miss Mordoff has completed her third year at the U. of O. and has majored in physical education. She is a member of Delta Zeta.

TO RETURN HOME
Mr. and Mrs. George C. Ulrich plan to motor to Medford where they will meet their daughter, Miss Kathryn, member of Pi Beta Phi of the University of Oregon. Miss Ulrich will spend the summer months here with her parents and friends.

AT ROGERS SUMMER HOME
Mrs. G. L. Baxter and two children are spending a fortnight at the Leslie Rogers cottage at Lake O' the Woods. Miss Ina Beachler of Akron, Ohio, who is making her home with Mrs. Baxter is also at the lake. Miss Beachler is a sister of Mrs. Irma Dixon of this city.

LEFT FOR SALEM
Mrs. James Driscoll and son "Pete" left this morning for Salem to be gone for at least a month. While north they will visit with friends and plan to make a number of motor trips on north. Driscoll will attend to legal matters in the capital city while away. He is one of the promising young attorneys of Klamath Falls.

EPPELSON BACK
A. B. Eppelson has returned from Seattle where he went some time ago hoping to find improved health. His condition shows marked improvement and hopes are held for his complete recovery. Some time ago Mr. Eppelson submitted to a major operation for appendicitis and following the operation suffered a complete nervous breakdown. His friends will be pleased to learn he is recovering.

FALLS FROM CAR
Severe injuries were sustained late yesterday afternoon by Louis Stiles, 27, employee of the Ewauna Box company, while loading logs on a Straborn spur line in Swan lake. The injured man was rushed to the Klamath General hospital here.

MOTHER SERIOUSLY ILL
Jack Fuller has received word of the critical illness of his mother at Pocatello, Idaho.

MOTOR TO VALLEY
Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Mather enjoyed a motor trip to Ashland and Medford over the week-end.

ARRIVED SATURDAY
Mr. and Mrs. George Blehn and her daughter, Miss Pearl, arrived in the city Saturday evening from Portland and will make their home in this city. Mrs. Blehn, Miss Pearl and Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas plan to leave in the near future for an extended visit in southern California.

Among students returning from the University of Oregon for the summer months includes Bernice Lund, Maxine Bradbury, Ruth Gregg, Ruth Newton and Walter Short.

Mrs. A. H. Newton motored to the university and brought the students back via Bend and the McKenzie Pass.

Miss Lund and Miss Gregg are the guests of Miss Newton and a number of delightful trips are planned for the visitors, including trips to Diamond Lake, Lake of the Woods and Crater Lake.

HERE TO RESIDE
J. Hawkins and M. G. Knudson of Sacramento arrived from the south last evening and have accepted positions here for the summer months. Both young men are impressed with the Klamath country and declared the heat intense at Sacramento at the time of their leaving.

RETURNED TO ASHLAND
Completing business matters which kept him here for several days, W. O. Donough left this morning for his home in Ashland.

DEWESEE FAMILY AWAY

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dewese and son, Roger left Sunday for Canada by motor on an extended vacation trip. While north they will visit Vancouver, Montreal, Calgary, Alta, Banff, Lake Louise and other scenic spots of interest.

FROM SPRAGUE RIVER

Included in the out of town visitors in town over Monday was J. J. Baldwin, prominent rancher of the Sprague River section.

MAY MOVE HERE

That the Rev. Dan W. Thurston, pastor of the First Baptist church of Redding, may be asked to accept the pastorate of Emmanuel Baptist church of this city, was admitted a possibility last night. The Rev. Mr. Thurston is now here looking over possibilities in Klamath Falls.

FROM MODOC POINT

J. S. Ball was a business visitor here over Monday from his home at Modoc Point.

CONDITION IMPROVES

Mrs. Nevada Hastings who for many weeks has been critically ill in the Klamath Valley hospital has been removed to her home and her many friends will be pleased to learn she is rapidly recovering.

VISIT FROM ASHLAND

James Smith and Loyal Leach of Ashland motored over last evening to visit with friends, returning to the valley this morning.

LARGEST TROUT

Said to be the largest trout taken from Klamath waters this year, a 13 pound trout was taken from the cold water of Rocky Point by Paul Dalton and Byron Hardenbrook, after a long hard fight Sunday.

E. O. Sawyer, who with his associates publishes a number of progressive trade journals, including the Western Baker, Western Plumber, Western Canner and Packer, and the Pacific Laundry Journal, has arrived in Klamath Falls to spend several days on a vacation. Mr. Sawyer resides in San Francisco.
