

Mainly . About . People

LINDSAY HERE FROM VALLEY

H. Lindsay, former well known Klamath Falls resident, now a retired business man of Medford, is here for a few days visiting with friends and looking over business affairs.

SHOPPING FROM DORRIS

Mrs. Arthur Hill and Miss Lillian Offin of Dorris, are visiting in the city today and shopping at the various stores.

GOING SOUTH FOR HOLIDAYS

Howard Cameron, the Firestone salesman for southern Oregon, who has been in Klamath Falls calling on local tire men for several days is leaving tomorrow morning for San Francisco to visit with friends over the Fourth.

ASHLAND VISITOR

Curt McGraw spent yesterday here from his home in Ashland. Business brought him over the mountain.

VISITING FROM EUGENE

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stone of Eugene are visiting with friends in Klamath Falls. While here they are guests at the hotel White Pelican.

INSURANCE MAN HERE

H. A. Utley, insurance man of Lakeview, is transacting business and visiting friends in Klamath Falls today. Mr. Utley is stopping at the hotel White Pelican.

Buy a Home in Homedale
PHONE 643 W.

PINE TREE Theatre

An excellent program in a cool, comfortable theater

On The Stage

Five fine acts of well balanced numbers that are of the sure-to-please type.

On The Screen

"Soul Fire" with Richard Barthelmess in the leading role. This is "Dick's" latest.

At the LIBERTY

We offer today

"SOME PUNKINS"

with lovable Charles Ray as the farmer boy you know so well.

An excellent comedy and the latest News Reel complete this fine screen program marking the return of Charles Ray to the silver sheet.

Wear Florsheims at all Times

Trim and smart—styled for men who insist upon being correctly attired at all dress occasions—airy and cool because skeleton lined.

K. SUGARMAN
"I Ain't Mad At Nobody"

BALDWIN IS HERE

Mr. Baldwin, general manager and vice president of the Fleisch-hacker interests, spent a short time in the city en route to Medford today. He stopped in the city to visit T. P. Henderson of the Klamath Development company, was a guest at the hotel White Pelican.

RETURNS TO CALIFORNIA

Mrs. H. T. Reid and two little daughters left this morning for San Francisco, after having spent a fortnight here visiting at the home of Mrs. Reid's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Matt.

JOSEPHINE JORDAN LEFT

Josephine Jordan of The Club left this morning for Portland on a fortnight's visit with relatives and friends.

INJURES FINGER AT RANCH

William Hulock, farmer of the Merrill district, cut his hand severely while cutting hay at the ranch home this morning. He was brought to the Klamath General hospital for medical attention.

LEAVING FOR SOUTH

Mrs. Gale Webb plans to leave in the morning for San Francisco, where she will visit for a month.

VISITING SMITH HOME

Mrs. Emma Starkey and children of Santa Rosa are house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Smith at 527 Eldorado street. They plan to remain here for two weeks and during that time a number of outings have been planned. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will take their guests to Crater Lake tomorrow. A trip to Odell lake has been planned for later in the week.

FROM THE VALLEY

E. M. Beer and E. G. Waters motored over from Medford last evening to visit friends.

OREGON CITY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Mrs. Nieta E. Laurence and Miss Madelon Brodie of Oregon City are guests at the hotel White Pelican. The visitors are enjoying a motor tour and included Klamath Falls in their itinerary.

Mr. Brodie, editor and publisher of the Oregon City Enterprise, is former minister to Spain, having returned to the United States some months ago, to resume his business and editorial connection with the newspaper.

FROM CHILOQUIN

Arthur Stearns of Chilquin was a Monday business caller in the city.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. A. F. Graham and son Herbert have returned from a fortnight's visit in southern California where they visited with relatives and friends.

RETURNS FROM EAST

Mrs. George Drummond has returned home from a delightful visit in Kansas City and through Oklahoma, where she spent the past month with relatives and friends.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

To attend the annual convention of the Delta Zeta, and enjoy southern California, the Misses Mae Mordoff and Jean Perry are making plans to leave this coming week. They expect to be in the south for a fortnight.

GOES TO CANADA

Mrs. Ida J. Walker left Sunday for Canada where she will visit with relatives and friends during the month of July.

MRS. SEARS VISITING HERE

Mrs. B. J. Sears of Portland, accompanied by her two small daughters and her mother, Mrs. Irene Way, is visiting in Klamath Falls at the Donelson home on Sargent avenue. They plan to stay for a month before returning north.

An enjoyable outing at Rocky Point was enjoyed by the visitors and the Donelson family last evening.

JAILED

Jerry Chocktoot, Klamath Indian, was lodged in the Klamath county jail yesterday from Justice Olsen's court at Beattie, sentenced to serve 30 days and pay a fine of $25.

McAULIFFE IN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAuliffe and son motored in from the ranch home near Fort Klamath to spend the day. McAuliffe continues to gain in strength and is now able to enjoy motoring.

THE WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy continues to register a very even barometric pressure and while this obtains no change in weather conditions may be expected.

Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair and warm.
The Tyco recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:
High.....95 Low.....58
Relative humidity at noon today, 13.

MOTHER IMPROVES

Friends of Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Sr., will be glad to know that she is rapidly improving from a serious major operation in Portland, and hopes to return to her home in Medford within a short time.

Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger Jr., returned from the north on Sunday. Mrs. Steiger resumed her position at the chamber of commerce office on Monday.

FINED $20

Frank Para, Mexican, held on a vagrancy charge since he was arrested by railroad officers at Calor, California, Saturday night, was fined $20 and costs in Judge R. A. Emmitt's court this morning. Para paid his fine and was given his liberty.

SUES FOR $3,000

A suit was filed in the Klamath county court today by Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank et al, against Marion and Preston Nine for $3,000, alleged to be due on a note signed by Nine Brothers, dated June 1, 1926.

According to the allegations as set forth in the action, the interest on this note has been paid up to June 1, 1925, but no part of the principal has been paid.

LEAVING FOR CRESCENT

A group of the younger social set including Misses Ruth Lindsay, Connie Crystal, Inez Jenkins and Jimmy Welch plan to leave Saturday for Crescent City to spend the holidays. The battleship fleet will be harbored at Crescent City over the holidays and a number of local parties are planning to make the trip.

UNION MEETING

PORTLAND, Ore., June 23.—(AP)—The Pacific Northwest Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Women's Grand International Auxiliary opened a three day union meet here yesterday with about 400 delegates attending.

At The Liberty

"Some Punkins," the Charles Ray production which comes to the Liberty theater today, is an original screen story and will bring back to the screen this popular star in his familiar characterization of the country "straw-hat-and-boots" boy.

Jerome Storm handled the physical direction of the picture and much is expected of him because of directorial efforts on the earliest Ray successes. Joseph de Grasse supervised the production which was filmed at the famous Charles Ray studio in Hollywood.

"The public is crying for laughter and I have tried to give it to them in 'Some Punkins,'" Charles Ray said recently. "And for the present I am going to try to provide stories in which mirth and humor play a dominant part."

In Los Angeles, a man shot himself because his wife wouldn't cook instead of because she would.

Gray Leader

L. L. Moss of Lake Charles, La., is the new chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. He was elected at the annual meeting in Birmingham, Ala.

PILCHER GIRLS SWIM

With the close of Pilcher's store at six o'clock this evening the girls in the various departments are leaving for a swim and picnic lunch in the cool shadows of the trees at Whul-Kee beach.

Included among those who are to leave are Mrs. A. A. McDonald, Mrs. P. D. Schroeder, Mrs. George of San Francisco, Mrs. H. C. Hillman, Mrs. J. E. Caldwell, Mrs. E. E. Knibb, Miss Mamie Harris and Miss Pauline Adamson.

BACK FROM EUGENE

Mrs. Wayne Akers and young son Richard have returned to the city from a fortnight's visit at Eugene. The university city is the former home of Mrs. Akers.

ROSEBURG PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Riedel, Frank Riedel and Vena Fallofeno, all of Roseburg are among the motorists in the city today.

DUE BACK TOMORROW

"Yes, I am due back on the job tomorrow and I'll be there—much rested from my two weeks vacation," Assistant Postmaster Griffith stated this morning. Today he is assisting in taking voters to the polls, using the John McCall car. Griffith and his family enjoyed most of their vacation in the Rocky Point country, fishing and boating.

GRIFFITH FAMILY HERE

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Griffith of Spring Creek are in the city for a few days. The family have the sympathy of the entire community in their recent loss, the death of their son, Dale, who was drowned late Saturday afternoon. The Griffiths are former residents of this city. Mr. Griffith's father, J. B. Griffith, was county judge of this county for many years before he passed away.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffith expressed themselves as grateful to their friends for aid in their bereavement.

WEST FROM LAKEVIEW

To look into business matters, H. F. West of Lakeview arrived in Klamath Falls last evening.

UP FROM DORRIS

D. M. Chambers transacted business in the city this morning from his home at Dorris.

VISITING FROM PENDLETON

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Scharf are guests at Klamath Falls today from their home in Pendleton.

DELZELL HAPPY

Wearing the smile that just won't come off, Tom Delzell of the California Oregon Power company is passing the cigars and candy upon the arrival of a baby girl, Mrs. Delzell and the new daughter are doing nicely. The first baby at the Delzell home arrived Monday afternoon at three o'clock and was born in a local hospital.

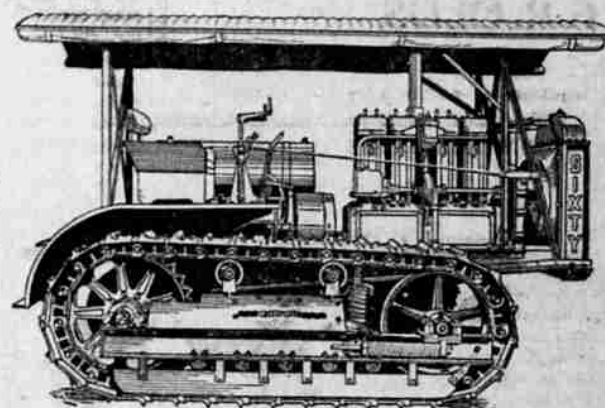

VISITING FROM EUGENE

Mrs. Kate Fales and Mrs. J. O. Martin of Eugene are guests of Klamath Falls friends today.

THE WEATHER

Oregon—Fair tonight and Wednesday, but cloudy and foggy near the coast tonight. Local thunder storms in the mountains of the east portion. Temperatures above normal. Moderate north-easterly winds along the coast.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY
YOUR "CATERPILLAR" TRACTOR
AT THE NEW REDUCED PRICES

BETTER
QUICKER
CHEAPER

BETTER
QUICKER
CHEAPER

For the second time in less than a year Caterpillar Tractor Co. has made reductions in the prices of "Caterpillar" tractors. Thus do purchasers of tractors share in the advantages of the new organization—advantages that include not only the economies of increased sales and production, but also the assurance of maintained quality. The "Caterpillars" of today, because of enlarged and improved manufacturing facilities, are better tractors than ever before. Daily they are making new records of BETTER, QUICKER, CHEAPER power for every outdoor power task. Price reductions apply to all four models—ask us about the new prices and place your order now.

ROBINSON TRACTOR COMPANY
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON

MAIN OFFICE
1844 East 12th St.
Oakland, California

BRANCH OFFICES
Rio Vista, California
Klamath Falls, Oregon

RETURNS FROM SOUTH

Elmer R. Applegate has returned from a visit in southern California. "Klamath Falls is on the tongue of everyone I met while south," Mr. Applegate stated.

ARRIVES FROM EAST

Interesting visitors in our city for a few days are Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Collins and daughter of Beloit, Wisconsin.

The eastern visitors arrived last evening and expect to be here for several days to enjoy some of the scenic spots of national fame of which the Klamath country can boast.

Mr. Collins is a newspaper man in the eastern metropolis.

ARM IS BETTER

Friends of Mrs. Mary Wilson will be pleased to learn that her arm is rapidly healing from a severe break. She suffered it several weeks ago at the family home, when she fainted. The cast was removed Saturday. Throughout the accident Mrs. Wilson has continued her stenographic work.

FROM MALIN

F. W. Shaw, resident of Malin, is attending to business here today.

TO GET FAMILY

Henry Joyaux, assistant at the Early Whitlock funeral home, is in the north to bring his wife and son to Klamath Falls to reside permanently.

FROM CORVALLIS

Arthur L. Peck is a business visitor in Klamath today from Corvallis. Mr. Peck is head of the landscape department of Oregon Agricultural college.

This Quaker picture identifies genuine

Quaker Oats and Quick Quaker

Look for it if rich flavor is what you want in oats; if the finest that money can buy is what you want for your family... the finest oats that grow milled under highest pure food standards. Imitations cost the same. See that you get the genuine Quaker Oats.

2 Kinds—at Grocers Quick Quaker—Cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and the regular Quaker Oats as always