DO YOU KNOW YOUR PAVEMENT?

Few people realize that when they pay their taxes, if they are citizens, they are entitled to a voice in municipal affairs. One of the greatest opportunities for a taxpayer to recommend an economical administration is in his highway department. When your commissioners look to you for intelligent support, do not fail them. A wide investigation of all the destructive forces that reduce the ordinary road surfaces to dust will convince you that Warrenite-Bituthic merits your strongest approval. — Adv.

KENO

The forest fire which has been raging in this vicinity for the past week has about burned itself out. Many homes were threatened and much damage done by the fire, but we are all thankful it was no worse.

Beginning today the Keno post-office will receive all mail from Klamath Falls as the Keno, Worden route has been discontinued.

Roy Nelson, who has been in Klamath Falls serving on the jury, has returned home to the ranch.

Mrs. Chester Wilson came over from their ranch near Worden on Tuesday to purchase supplies. The Wilsons were lucky in saving their ranch, which was in the path of the fire.

On Tuesday evening Pearson mountain, between Keno and Worden, presented an awe inspiring sight, its steep slopes being covered with a roaring, seething mass of flames, a sight which will not be forgotten soon.

The Keno club girls returned Saturday evening from their two weeks trip to Corvallis. They all report an enjoyable trip.

Mr. Whims returned to his home on "Paradise Flat" to look after his place during the fire.

C. J. McCollum of Worden was a Monday evening caller in our vicinity.

Logging operations, stopped by the fire, have been resumed once more and many blackened logs are being unloaded at the river.

Mrs. V. E. Puckett visited with her mother, Mrs. H. L. Clevenger, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Martinson motored down from his island home Tuesday after supplies.

The saxophone was invented in 1840 by Adolphe Sax. He escaped.
