KLAMATH TEMPLE

B. C. Miller, Pastor
Sunday will be a great day with the people of the Temple. It will mark the closing of one of the greatest religious campaigns ever held in the city. These meetings at their close will have lasted over eight Sundays of continuous nightly services. Many people have professed their faith in Christ and many bodies have been healed. Some testimonies of remarkable healings have been given from time to time during the progress of the meetings. Large crowds have been in attendance at nearly every meeting. The Sunday morning service will be held in the Temple as usual, the pastor occupying the pulpit. Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and again in the evening at 8, Evangelist Benham will preach in the big tent on the corner of Seventh and Pine. Sunday night service will close the meeting. Evangelist Benham and party will leave the Falls, having won the respect and love of everyone who has come in contact with them during their stay among us.

Our Sunday school meets in the Temple at 10 a. m. Other services will be announced from the pulpit.

WILL ARRIVE WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Humphrey of San Diego, Calif., will arrive in Klamath Falls Wednesday to spend a fortnight here with relatives and friends. RAYMOND HATTON RIOT IN "BORN TO THE WEST"

Raymond Hatton, whose comedy team work with Wallace Beery, in "Behind the Front," is still a laughing memory, furnishes many new laughs in "Born to the West," the pictureization of Zane Grey's story, which comes to the Pine Tree Theatre, starting Sunday.

This time the little comedian is teamed with Jack Holt. Hatton, brave only when his pal, Jack Holt, "Colorado" Rudd, is at his elbow, seems to wiggle in and out of trouble in carefree manner all through the picture.

"Born to the West" brings Jack Holt to the screen in one of his best roles to date.

There are many so-called exponents of the psychic science on the American stage. They claim to have marvelous powers, but when their performance is over the audience goes with the thought that the work is done by the aid of confederates. This is where Mystic Clayton, the psychic marvel, now appearing at the Pine Tree Theatre, differs from all others. He uses no confederates. He is a true scientific psychologist and well deserves the title given him in the Orient many years ago of "White Mahatma." Mystic Clayton has the record, extending over many years, of having answered every question put to him.
