FINE FEATHERS may make FINE BIRDS — BUT

A Fine Character Builds Confidence and Confidence is the Basis of All Trade

Confidence is a sensitive guest—it goes only where invited and stays only so long as it is welcomed and well treated.

Confidence is the hidden gold slowly washed from the sands of a good reputation or laboriously extracted from the solid rock of a strong character.

The foundation of our credit system is confidence. Credit is granted to those who have built up a reputation deserving of trust.

Confidence is the pass key that opens the door of better opportunity and no greater asset can be acquired than a good name.

Our promises are the steps by which we either raise or lower ourselves in the eyes of our fellow-men—and broken promises are sure to rend that fine silken web of confidence which binds our relations with men. Once torn, this web is most difficult to mend.

Let us assume no obligation we cannot fulfill and PAY OUR DEBTS—one hundred cents on the dollar.
