FISH STORY

NEW YORK—There's much ado about that fish caught by President Coolidge and presented to Al Smith, who is having it stuffed for the state museum. Charles M. Breder, an expert at the city aquarium, says the president has been catching a simple ordinary pike. Not the wall-eyed variety, as the governor described his gift.

The bee is awfully busy. People admire him. Yet very few people care to associate with the bee.
